THE NEW JERSEY KU-KLUX. We published yesterday an account of an attempt to commit murder on the part of an organization in Newark, New Jersey, calling itself the Ku-Klux Klan. This body is composed of Democratic voters, who are attempting to introduce to the North that system o persecution for political principles' sake, which has been and is now so infamously successful in the South. The usual threatening placards have been posted in the streets, and obfoxious Republicans have received letters or namented with the customary skulls, cross-bones, dag-green snakes and other cheerful degreen in foonery is silly and harmless of itself, and that the principles for which we fought had equally distinguished speakers will be prewe can regard it with contempt and no real existence; and that every declara- sent. pity.
