DRINK THE FAMOUS ARCTIC SODA WATER and read the EVENING BULLETIN, at Hillman's News Stand, at North Pennsylvania Hotel.

REPUBLICAN PARADES.—The Republican Invincibles will parade to-morrow evening to attend the Second Congressional District meeting, at Broad and Shippen streets.

THE CAMPAIGN CLUB, Col. Wm. B. Mann, Chief Marshal, will also parade on Saturday evening, and is summoned to assemble at the City Arsenal at 7 P. M.

NEW JERSEY MATTERS.

POLITICAL.—The zeal manifested by the Republicans of Camden, N. J., in the entire First Congressional District, has had the effect to dampen the ardor of the Democrats and make them feel that the field is lost to them.

THE PRESIDENTIAL CANDIDATES.—The names of Hon. John L. Blair, for Governor, and of Hon. William Moore, for Congressman, have been received with such unanimity and cheerfulness, that despite their efforts to keep up appearances, the Seymourites cannot help exhibiting evident indications of their "letting up."

COOPER'S CHECK.—The work of rebuilding the bridge over Cooper's Creek, in the eastern part of Camden, has been commenced. The structure is to be of iron, the heavy castings for which are now being made at the foundry of the Messrs. Starr.

REPUBLICAN MEETING.—A large Republican meeting will be held at Cooper's Point, on Saturday evening, which will be addressed by James M. Scovel and other good speakers.

THE QUEEN OF PRUSSIA is now travelling in France incognito, under the name of Countess Hohenhalt, accompanied by a maid of honor, a chamberlain and eleven servants. At Marcellus, it was only after she had gone, that the people became aware that she had been there. The Queen visited nearly all the public buildings and curioles, not forgetting the hospitals, where she remained longer than in other places. It gives one an idea of the amount of billiard playing is carried in this country, to read that a single billiard table manufacturing in New York employs more than 400 men; and that it had on hand at one time three hundred finished tables, and four hundred in process of construction; the whole of which were consumed by fire in one night, at an estimated loss to somebody of at least $175,000.
