LETTER FROM WASHINGTON.

The Marriage of Robert Lincoln and Miss Marian—Desire to see Mrs. Lincoln, the Elder—An Appointment with the Intelligence—The Wax Fraud—What has become of the Wax?

WASHINGTON, Sept. 25, 1868.—The marriage of Robert Lincoln with Miss Marian was the talk of the day. It was not only the family and a few intimate friends, but curiosity has been excited to the highest pitch to know "how the bride looked," how she was dressed, and all the minute particulars which "Jenkins," on such interesting occasions, usually sets forth with scientific minuteness. The newspaper men were excited, and the accounts which are published were gathered piecemeal from those fortunate enough to be present, consequently the allowance must be made for inaccuracies. The greatest desire was felt to see Mrs. Lincoln, widow of the President, whose eccentric course some time since brought her prominently before the country; but every effort to see her with great privacy, and no ostentatious display, was made. She was not gratified with a sight of Mrs. Lincoln or any of the actors in the ceremony. It was a private and great propriety, and everything passed off satisfactorily. The bride party left to-day on the noon train for New York, for a week or two, after which they will go to Chicago, where Robert resides.

Secretary McCulloch has revoked the appointment of William O. Kline as storekeeper in the first District, on account of Kline being one of the parties in the case of the Collector Abel's case, down yesterday to urge the appointment of Kline, but was informed by the Secretary that Mr. Kline could not be released as surety, and the Collector Abel's case was referred to the Collector. Kline's appointment was made on recommendation of Hon. Samuel J. Randall without Abel's knowledge, but Abel contended that the Secretary cancelled it on the legal grounds stated.

THE INTELLIGENCE ON DIX.
The National Intelligence to-day makes a further attempt to get at the real character of the late Secretary. Only a few weeks ago the Intelligence extolled Dix as one of the purest patriots the country had ever produced, but now it finds no language strong enough to condemn him.

"JUDGE" SLOANAKER.
"Judge" Sloanaker, of Texas, formerly of Philadelphia, is now in the city, and is endeavoring to settle his accounts with the Government which accrued during his trip to Texas. It is understood he has "footed up" a pretty large amount of expenses, which he asks the Government to pay. The Collector Abel, who is now in the city, has not been to the White House yet to report to Johnson the details of the case. Johnson declares that "with all his faults, he loves Sloanaker still." Inquiry has been made at the White House as to what disposition was made of the case of Sloanaker, but no trace of it can be discovered. The supposition is, Johnson sent it to Tennessee, to cherish it as long as he lives, as one of his household objects of affection.

NEW JERSEY MATTERS.
The Republicans of Camden are working in great earnest for the success of their ticket. Almost every night meetings are held in prominent places in the city, and many documents are circulated among the voters. To-night a monster mass meeting will be held at Archer's Hotel, Cooper's Point, at which Hon. James M. Smith, of Camden, will discuss the issues of the hour. The Grant and Colfax Central Campaign Club will turn out with music and torches, and a grand time is expected. On Tuesday next, Col. J. Fairman will address the citizens of Camden at the Court House, in favor of Gen. Grant, Colfax, John I. Blair and the Republican cause.

MOSE BOYS IN TROUBLE.—Some boys are very troublesome in Camden, and are frequently annoying the citizens. A class, who seem to delight in perpetrating acts of mischief, such as stealing melons and other property, are the cause of much trouble. They are determined to enforce the laws against these young depredators, as a warning, at least, to others.

DEMOCRATIC CONVENTION.—The Democratic Convention to make nominations for sheriff and three coroners will be held at Black-burn on Monday next. It is expected that a large number of delegates will be present, and that the meeting will be a very interesting one.

CULVERT IN MARKET STREET.—A majority of property owners on Market street have petitioned the Council to authorize the construction of a culvert in Market street, at the corner of Third street, at its last meeting adopted an ordinance authorizing the prayer of the petitioners. The new culvert will connect with one already laid from Second street to Delaware river.

IMPROVING A HIGHWAY.—That part of the Hadonfield turnpike lying and being within the city limits having, by limitation, passed into the control of the City Council of Camden, that body last evening resolved that it should be paved from Market street to Newton avenue.

FELL DOWN.—Last night during the heavy rain the foundation walls of a new building in process of erection, on Market street above Third, belonging to F. Westcott, were undermined, and the structure fell. It was destroyed for a dwelling and a store. No one was hurt.

NOMINATED.—The Republicans of Atlantic county have nominated George Adams for State Senator, and Hon. Jacob Kilm for the Legislature.

BUILDING PERMITS.—Two hundred and fifty permits for the erection of buildings, have been issued in Camden since the first of January last.

The Berlin letter in the North Eastern Correspondence states that there are both a peace party and a war party now in Prussia. It is from the former that the Conservatives, it is from the latter that the Liberals, it is from the former that the Conservatives, it is from the latter that the Liberals, it is from the former that the Conservatives, it is from the latter that the Liberals.

THE CAMILLA MASSACRES.

Fuller Official Information From Major Howard—Thirty-four Persons Killed or Wounded.

WASHINGTON, Friday, Sept. 25, 1868.—Gen. Howard received to-day the fuller information of the riots at Camilla, Ga., on the 24th inst., which fully confirms the previous reports of its tragic and bloody character. Major Howard, the Sub-Assistant Commissioner for the District of Albany, writes to the military headquarters at Atlanta as follows:

HEADQUARTERS SUB-DISTRICT OF ALBANY, BUREAU OF MILITARY AFFAIRS, ALBANY, Ga., Sept. 24, 1868.—COL. J. H. HOWARD, Albany, Ga.—Colonel: The affair at Camilla seems to have been a massacre. I inclose an account of the killed and wounded, so far as known. A freedman, who was a prisoner at Camilla, but who escaped during the night, states that he helped to remove one dead freedman, and four wounded freedmen from the road within 100 yards of the prison. The white men, his captors, boasted to the road comers of twelve freedmen killed in one place near Dr. Doster's, two miles from Camilla. Another freedman, who was a prisoner at Camilla, but who escaped last night with two others near him. He heard during the earlier part of the night the white men scouring the woods, shouting, and firing. He saw the freedmen. The pursuers were accompanied by bloodhounds. He heard the cries and shrieks of the fugitives as they were shot, and as they were being taken to the prison. He saw the white men becoming frightened, endeavored to escape, and both were shot within his hearing. He was reported to me as late as 4 o'clock this morning. He was shot in the head, when my informant told, they were still pursuing the men with horses and dogs. There has been an intense excitement in town all day. The town was swarmed about my office by hundreds of white men, who were very angry, and who were very difficult to restrain from proceeding on a mass to Camilla. I have addressed them, and told them that the officers shall be punished, and that their lives should be protected; but I have no heart for my work. I felt no assurance that my informant would be satisfied. The Mayor addressed the crowd, and told them that they were as did some citizens, but they were not to be restrained from proceeding on a mass to Camilla. I have addressed them, and told them that the officers shall be punished, and that their lives should be protected; but I have no heart for my work. I felt no assurance that my informant would be satisfied.
