His accuracy in fitting even the most ungainly feet, has secured him a reputation far beyond the generality of his craft. Those who are afflicted with corns or bunions should make a note of this fact. Only the best workmen are employed, and the best material used; ergo—he that cannot be pleased with the fit, workmanship and materials of "Helwes" Boots," had better give up trying and go barefoot.

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 1, 1808. A subscription book to increase the capital stock of the People's Fire Insurance Company of Philadelphia, in. corporated by an act of the Legislature of the State of Pennsylvania, approved the 15th of March, 1859, has been opened this day at the office of the Company, 227 and 233 Dock street, Philadelphia, and those interested in the progress of home insurance are respectfully invited to subscribe.

The People's Insurance Company, which has been in actual existence for the transaction of business during the last three years, has, under the management of Mr. G. Paul, its present President, already succeeded in the establishment of a fine, well-paying home business, and nothing is needed but a larger capital to make the company a first class one. Mr. Paul has an experience of fifteen years in this and other States of the Union, in the fire insurance business, and adding thereto the handsome business already established by the People's Insururance Company, it may safely be stated that it will be an excellent investment for subscribers to the stock, ospecially as a number of reliable home fire insurance compapies are badly needed in this State, business being ready for them in abundance.

G. PAUL, President. F. HAGMEYER, Secretary.
