NEW YORK, Oct. 8.—The nineteenth annual anniversary of the American Bible Union com-menced yesterday at the Mariners' Temple, in Oliver street. The attendance was very good, and Rev. Dr. Thomas Armitage presided. After the usual services a pamphlet entitled "Baptism vs. Immersion," and published by the Essex As-sociation, purporting to raview the revised Eng-lish Testament, was reported on by a committee, of whom Dr. F. J. Conant was the chairman, and several addressee were delivered on the same subject.

From the New York World of to day.] OCTOBER 7.—The money market is working easier, owing to the limited demand; call loans range from 5 to 6 per cent. on Governments, and 6 to 7 per cent. on other collaterals, with the bulk of transactions at the lower rate. Prime discount are 7 per cent. The near approach of November Ist, with its quarterly receipts for dividends on Government bonds, rente, and other sources of income, it is estimated will bring on the market from forty to fifty millions of dollars to be invested in Government bonds and other first-class securities. The Government bond market was strong

The Government bond market was strong through the day, and over $2,000,000 were bought at private sale to day by domestic investors. The new bonds of 1867 are chiefly in demand, as the accrued interest makes them equal to 112 after July 1st, when they were selling at 109%, ex-dividend, against 109, their present price. The foreign exchange market is quiet as usual after the sailing of the packet, and prime bankers sixty-day sterling bills are quoted 108% to 108%. The gold market opened 140 and advanced slightly, declined to 139%, and closed at 140 at 3 P. M. The operations of the Geld Exchange Bank to
