ROBBING HIS EMPLOYERS.-William Wright, who has been employed at Simpson & Neill's dry dock, at Christian street wharf, was arrested upon the charge of robbing his employers. For some time the has been suspected of carrying off different things. Yesterday he was stopped and searched, and his pockets were found to be filled with copper halls. Wright had a hearing before Alderman Tittermary, and was sent to prison to await trial.

MAYHEM. Yesterday John P. Shuman and Samuel Sultzer got into a quarrel at Eleventh and Parrish streets. Shuman, it is alleged, bit off a portion of the nose of Sultzer. He was arrested and taken before Alderman Kemble. After a hearing he was committed in default of $3,000 ball to answer at court.

ALL PHILADELPHIANS are divided into two classes; 1st. Those who do, and 2d. Those who classes; 1st. Those who do, and 2d. Those who do not purchase their clothes at Oak Hall. The near approach of the Fall and Winter season suggests a timely word to each of these classes. To the first class (fast becoming a majority) we would say: To you are we largely indebted for our present proud position of the first and best Philadelphia Clothing House. The best return we can make you, is to so order our business as to make the success to which you have contributed redound to your own advantage. This we have sought to do in our arrangements for the coming Fall and Winter Trade. We are determined to out-do any and all our former achievements, and we are confident of having successed, especially in these three particulars. In quality and variety of material, in beauty and elegance of styles, in moderation of our prices. We take pleasure, then, in announcing to you that we are ready for the season.

To the 2d Class, we would simply suggest the consideration of two plain, incontrovertible facts:—Ist. Large and permanent success only follows real merit. 2d. Such success has been attained by our House, and we are confident that if you will inquire into the merits which have insured this success, you will find them to be just the advantage which you desire to command in the purchase of your Clothing, namely: The best of clothes, made of the best of styles—sold on principles of strictest honesty, by the politest and most obliging of salesmen, in the largest do not purchase their clothes at Oak Hall. THE COLD SNAP .- The sudden change in the weather has produced a lively time in all branches of business likely to be benefitted by it. The clothiers and coal-dealers are as busy as bees. Those people who have so far neglected to provide against the sudden change are feeling the effects of their neglect, and are now laying in their supplies of everything calculated to keep out the cold. The best place to get supplies of good coal is at the popular yard of W. W. Arres, No. 957 North Ninth street. Orders may also be left at the branch office, Sixth and Spring Garden streets.

Winter.—That the long lean arm of winter has thrust itself in a preliminary way into our midst, was evident to everybody yesterday. No more white duck sad shady straw bets, no more dapper summer raiment, but turned up clears under bine noses, and chilly hands diving into he hidden caloric of overcoat pockets, and all in mich capital initiation of a hard winter, that everybody looked around the corners to see if the snow had all gone yet. Sensible people hurried towards E. G. Whitman & Co.'s confectionery store, 318 Chesinut street, to secure a supply of goodies. Their fine, roasted Jordan Almonds, cream fruits, chocolate and gum preparations, caramels, fine bon bons, &&., &&., are just the things for this cold weather.

The Mammorth Fancy Baraar of Grorese Doll. During the past season the spirit of improvement has been manifested by our business ment of a greater degree than usual, and as a consequence we have to note the erection of many imposing structures on several of our leading thoroughers, that are either already finished and occupied as warehouses for the axiabition and sale of merchandise, or are rapidly approaching completion under the magic touch of artistic workmen.

Among the latter we may particularly mention the exhibition and sale of merchandise, or are rapidly approaching completion under the magic touch of artistic workmen.

Among the latter we may particularly mention the elogent and spacious edifice erected by Mr. George Doll, at Nos. 10 and 12 North Sixth street, above Market street, to which he has removed a portion of his immense stock of Toya and Fancy Goods, with the view of opening to the public some time during the ensuing week. The building, which has been put up regardless of expense, is of the most substantial character, consisting of four stories, thoroughly lighted and ventilated, and having a frontage of thirty-five feet on Sixth street, with a depth of over one hundred feet. The front is built of iron, symmetrically proportioned, and is in every respect a ched d'œuvre of architectural skill.

Two mawmoth plate glass windows, either one of which will contain goods enough to stock a small store, are on either side of the entrance, and will, when tastefully decorated with choice fancy goods, give the passers-by some inkling of the immense variety that may be found within.

The first and second floors will be used as salesrooms, and being handsomely nitted up with all the necessary appointments, are well calculated to display the stock to the best advantage. A portion of the third floor will be devoted to the manufacture of walking canes, a branch of business in which Mr. Doll may well lay claim to precedence, and one in which he has attained a wide spread reputation. It may infact be considered a specialty with him, as he, has given it much attention and filled orders from all parts of the Union. Many of the presentation canes now highly prized by the owners, the more so from their having been made from consecrated relics such as the Old Treaty Rim Tram of Kensington, the Cinktres Oak, the main mast of the Constitution, etc., etc. have been fashioned and monnted by Mr. Doll.

There is also on the same floor another spartment for the manufacture of Crutches, Sweet Briar Plyes, me hamman of the consideration ear, ear, the seem farhined and mounted by Mr. Doll.

There is also on the same floor another apartment for the manufacture of Crutches, Sweet Briar Pipes, Pipe Stems, Walnut Brackets, Match safes, etc.,—the sale of which constitutes no inconsiderable share of Mr. Doll's business. The remainder of the stind floor, together with the fourth floor and basement, are devoted to the storage of goods, packing and unpacking of cases, etc. But enough—our readers will doubtless on the opening day avail themselves of an opportunity of visiting this beautiful museum of novelities, and judging for themselves.
