BIOT AT SIXTH AND DICKERSON.

During a riot at Sixth and Dickerson streets, last evening, William Martin. aged 19, was shot in the thigh. He was taken to the Pennsylvania Hospital, where he refused to have the limb amputated, and it is thought his wound will consequently prove fatal. A man named Anderson was also shot in the same difficulty.

TWO MEN SHOT.

At Moyamensing road and Greenwich street a general commotion occurred near the polls, during which George Beitler was shot through the ing which George Beitler was shot through the leg. A fellow named James Errichsen broke through the crowd and fied, pursued by John Davis, who in turn was shot through the wrist by Errichsen. The latter fied to Fourth and Tasker streets, where he was captured by Policeman Buchanan. Deputy Sheriff Matthew Quinn attempted to rescue Errichsen, but the citizens went to the aid of the policeman, and captured Quinn also, and both he and Errichsen were locked up.

SHOOTING AT POLICEMEN.
On complaint of citizens, Reserve Officer Crout and a squad of men were sent to the precinct at the Raymond House, Sansom street, above Eighth. Many Democrats complained of persons being pushed out of line and others thrust in their places, which the officers remedied as ar as was possible for them to do. In a short time a citiwas possible for them to do. In a short time a citizen came upon the ground with a warrant from Judge Allison for the arrest of James Meade and others to be pointed out. Meade not being about the officers sought for his party about Ninth and Chestnut, and on their return John Tobin was standing at the Susom street door of the Continental. The citizen who had obtained the warrant pointed him out and Servent Crout attempted to arrest. him out, and Sergeant Crout attempted to arrest him, when he hastily retreated into the Continental, drawing a revolver. Sergeant Crout had lost his pistol in a former difficulty he was in at the polls, but he followed Tobin through one door and Reserve Officer Henderson took another.
Tobin pointed his pistol at Henderson, but the latter threw Tobin's arm up, and the weapon exploded in the air. Sergeant Crout came up, and Tobin being overpowered, was taken to court, when Judge Allison ordered him to find bail in $6,000. A hubeas corpus subsequently issued, as noticed in another place.

After the release of Tobin, Sergeant Crout and Reserves Kendrick, Nowman and Hess, were arrested and taken before Alderman White, who, by virtue of the penal code, held them in $800 bail each. Officer Hess was not present with the party, but a man named Donohue, who keeps a favern at Ninth and Sansom streets, swore he was MURDEROUS AFFAIR AT NINTH AND CHESTNUT STREETS.

Between one and two o'clock this morning, a man coming out of Leach's cellar, northeast corner Ninth and Chestnut streets, remarked that Fox never would be Mayor, wherenortheast corner initia and Caestiut streets, remarked that Fox never would be Mayor, whereupon he was knocked down, and a party of men instantly commenced firing. A party of policemen marched to the place, when a number of men jumped into the street and commenced firing indiscriminately. All citizens in the vicinity had to save themselves as best they could. Reserve Officer Hodges was shot in the leg, Policeman Henry Stiles, of the Eighteenth District, shot in the breast and side; Policeman McKibbin, of the Tenth District, cut in the eye with steel knuckles; Policeman Bayliss, of the Third District, shot, ball passing around his body, injuring him seriously. Charles Gline, Samuel Carson, Owen McCabe, Hugh Barr, Oscar Regan, Matthew McCusker, and Robert Walker, a Baltimore repeater, who had two pistols on him, two charges of which had been discharged, were arrested and looked up at the Central Station.

TWO MEN SHOT DEAD.

TWO MEN SHOT DEAD. Last evening, at 10 o'clock, Christian and Edward Byrnes, brothers, who reside in Reed street, below Second. Charles Specht, James Kolt, and William Pollitt, visited a number of taverns in the vicinity of Fourth and Monroe streets. On leaving the tavern of Mrs. Simons, near Fourth and Stanley streets, they reached a short distance off in Monroe street, and firing was heard. Christian Byrnes was shot in the neck and killed. Edward Byrnes, shot through the heart and killed. Charles Specht, wounded with ball in his left ear; J. Tolan wounded by a shot in the head. The bodies of the dead men were taken to the Niagara Hose house, and Specht to the Pennsylvania Hospital. Holt and Pollitt were carried away. Specht lives on Shippen street below Third. At the hospital he made an afildavit, charging Samuel Holt and Charles W. Powell, said to be members of the Franklin Engine, with having fired the shots. They were then arrested. Powell was a Deputy Sheriff and had his badge on when taken into custody. He had a large six barreled revolver. Two chamhad a large six barreled revolver. Two chambers were empty. The shot which killed Edward Byines was a large one. Holt had a three barreled pistol; two barrels were empty. The prisoners were locked up to await the result of the Coroner's inquest.

CONUNDRUMS.—This is propounded by Squib: What is the difference between one of the Chinese dignitaries and a Hanlon brother? One is a darin' man and the other a mandarin. And we might remark that there is all the difference in the world between coal sold at Alter's, and that of other dealers. While the coal from other yards is full of impurities, that of Mr. Alter is free from cinder and dirt, and is delivered carefully screened. The name of W. W.
