MERCANTILE LIBRARY .- I'ne Directors of the Mercaptile Library Company met on Friday evening, for the purpose of reorganizing, in conformity with the lately-amended charter.

Hereafter the Board is to consist of eighteen members, to be arranged in three classes, one members, to be arranged in three classes, one class to be elected each year. The following persons drew the lot for the first class, and their term of office will expire at the next election, in February, viz: Messrs. J. C. Grubb, E. K. Stevenson, J. S. Weimer, S. E. Harlan, Edward Taylor and C. M. Taylor. Messrs. John Lardner, O. H. Wilson, W. A. Rolin, J. G. Barnwell, A. S. Letchworth and J.H. Watt constitute the second class, and will serve till February, 1870. Messrs. A. I. Fish, W. D. Gemmill, Oliver Evans, Richard Wood, T. Morris Perot and Edward Bains form the third class, and will rotain office until February than the second class, and will rotain office until February. the third class, and will retain office until Feb

An election for officers was held, which resulted as follows, viz.: T. Morris Perot, President; O. H. Wilson, Vice President: John Lurdner. Recording Secretary; A. I. Fish, Corresponding Secretary, and A. S. Letchworth. Treasurer.

of the institution, seems to be universally acqui-esced in, and is to be token as a pledge of the esced in, and is to be taken as a piedge of the early accomplishment of the great enterprise now in hand. The work upon the new building is rapidly going forward, and with proper co-operation of the members and friends of the institution, the library will soon be transferred to more convenient and spacious apartments than have ever been provided for any enceantile library in the country. It is quite in keeping with the reputation that Philadelphia has had for intelligence and liberality, that its most extensively used gence and liberality, that its most extensively used hbrary should be thus generously provided for.

FATAL RESULT OF SKYLARKING .- On Tuesday last Felix Dorsey and Pierce Lacey were out together. In the neighborhood of Walnut and Dock streets they got to skylarking. Dorsey pushed Lacey. The latter fell and struck his pushed Lacey. The latter fell and struck his has head heavily upon the curbstorie, He was taken to his home in Har-mony Court, Sixth street, below Pine. He was found to be dangerously aurt, and last evening he died from the effects of his injuries. This morning about eight o'clock Dorsey heard of his death and immediately went to the office of Alderman White and surrendered binself. He was placed in the custody of Sergeant Crout, of the Reserve Corps, to await the result of the Coroner's inquest. He is a drayman and resides on Gothic street. He bears an excellent character.

A LARGE FUNERAL.—The funeral of James Young, the policeman who was murdered on election night, at Seventh and Lombard streets. took place from his late residence at Nineteenth and Catherine streets, yesterday. There was a large turnout of the police force of the city, and a long train of carriages. The interment took place at Mt. Moriah Cemetery. The remains were temporarily placed in the vault, as it is understood that the Managers of the cemetery need the consent of the cemetery need to the consent.

THE FIRST SNOW .- To-day the weather is decidedly wintry. A strong northwest wind sprung up about daylight, and about eight o'clock this morning there was a fall of snow for two or three minutes. About eleven o'clock the sky was suddenly obscured by a cloud, and there was another epit of the white flakes. For a minute or two the hard pellets came down quite fively.

FOUND DROWNED .- At ten o'clock last night, at Shippen street wharf, on the Delaware, the body of Gilbert Pinkney, third mate of bark Lizzie Durkee, was found floating in the dock. The deceased was twenty-two years of age, and a native of Yarmouth, N. S. He had been missing for three days.

BUNYAN'S PILGRIM'S PROGRESS .- Although nearly two hundred years old, no book, except the Bible, is more read and pondered by Christian people than the immortal allegory of Christian people than the immortal allegory of Bunyan. By our advertising columns it will be seen that Rev. Dr. Stryker, lately from New York, now pustor of the North Broad Street Presysterian Church, is preaching on Sabbath evenings a course of sermons on "Gospel Truth as Illustrated by Bunyan's Pilgrim's Progress."
We understand there was a large andience in attendance last Sabbath evening, and we doubt not the andience and their interest will increase not the audience and their interest will increase as the subject progresses. There is a fascination about old Bunyan which is quite irresistible.

LENGH VALLEY RAILROAD FREIGHT, LINE. The Lehigh Valley Railroad is now running fast through freight trains from this city to all points in the Lehigh Valley. Wyoming Valley, and Ma-hanoy. Beaver Meadow and Hazleton Coal Fields; through without change of cars to Easton, Allenthrough without enange of cars to Easton, American, Mauch Chunk, Mahanoy City, Hazleton, White Haven, Wilkesbarre, Pittston, Scranton, Tunkhannock, and all intermediate points, at rates as low as by any other route. Goods received at North Pennsylvania Railroad depot up to 5 o'clock P. M.

The road between Tunkhannock and Towanda is nearly complete, and in a short time freight can be shipped to all points on the North Brauch of the Susquehanna.

TEMPERANCE MEETINGT.-A large temperance meeting took place last evening, at Rev. Dr. Shepberd's Church, Buttonwood street, below Sixth. Hiram Ward presided, and opened the proceed-Hiram Ward presided, and opened the proceedings by making an address urging upon all present to renewed energy in the temperance reform. Eloquent addresses were also made by T. M. Coleman, Esq., Rev. Dr. Shepherd and others. These meetings have been productive of a vast amount of good, large numbers having been induced to sign the temperance pledge.

NASBY.-Petroleum V. Nasby, P. M. (wich is Postmaster), of Confedrit X Roads, Kentucky, will preach a little pure doctrine upon the text, "Cnrsed be Canaan," in Hort-cultural Hall, on Wednesday evening next. The lecturer (Mr. Locke) does not need any enlowy from us. He is sure to have a full house, and those who wish to hear him will do wisely to secure seats before-

WANTING a new suit for our coachman the other day, we sent him to Oak Hall, and he was fitted up in a livery equal to any we have ever bought before, though at much less cost. The suit was made of good material, cut in good style and showed that the makers. Wanamaker & orown, had the right idea of the matter.

NATIONAL CRISIS .- Rev. T. De Witt Talmage announced to his congregation last Sunday night that he would on the two following Sunday even ings speak of the duties of Christian men in this national crisis.

OUR TOWNSMAN, J. E. CALDWELL, has returned in the Scotia, having visited the European marts for the purpose of selecting a stock for his establishment, No. 902 Chestaut—which is said to be the finest stock ever brought to this CITY NOTICES.

A WANT SUPPLIED.

To know where to buy the numerous articles of Dry Goods constantly required by every household has been a frequently required problem to all our citizens. We have for years felt the need of some Central Emportum, where not only a general assortment of goods could be found, but the character of the house give assurance that the prices were, beyond doubt, as tow as the same goods could be found anywhere. Much time has been consumed by every housekeeper in goin g from place to place, not only to comparison whether the prices were right. How often has the wish been expressed that this were not necessary; that we had one place where all kinds of Staple and Fancy Dry Goods could be comfortably selected, and the prices implicitly relied on as being as low as the market affords. Strangers especially have often felt this need, and persons from the surrounding country well know how irksome is a day's shopping when many places have to be visited instead of one.

The Central Dry Goods Emporiam of Messrs Strawbridge & Clothier has been established with the view of supplying this want. To build up a business on a scale that will afford low prices, and constantly mainain a reputation for fair dealing (without which any success is a failure), is the determination of this firm.

Withholding for the present further notice of this new enterprise, we refer our readers to the advertisemens of Messrs. Strawbridge & Clothier, and to a personal inspection of their new establishment at Eighth and Market treets.

The 32-cent Stocking!
The 32-cent Stocking is full, regular, well made, warm and heavy, and decidedly the cheapest in the market. The large sales for this Stocking and the ladies' and children's Vests and Drawers are the best evidences that Mr. Finn's prices are right.

The 32-cent Stocking is full, regular, heavy and good fabric. There is probably not a wholesale house in the city selling as good an article for as little money Mr. Finn, also, has a full line of Iron Frame Stockings, and Ladles' full Children's Vests and Drawers, which he is offering at very low prices. Ladles, you will probably save money by looking at these goods before going e'rewhere.

Preparity.—A philosopher says that if anything will make a woman swear, it is looking for her night-crp after the lamp's blown out. And then her swearing would be nothing compared to that of a man who has bought coal and found it to be full of cinders. He would naturally think himself cheated, and would make a change in his patronage. People who buy their coal of W. W. Alter, $57 North Ninth, street, never have reason to be disratished with it, and that is the secret of Mr. Alter's success. What customers he gets he keeps, and is constantly adding to the list.

Orders may be left at the branch office, Sixth and Sping Garden streets.

A New Election.—The elections are over and both parties can take a rest after the exciting work of the week. Some are satisfied, while others are in no gentle humor, threatening to contest. Now if there was to be an election to decide who made the best confectionery, the unanimous vote of the city would be cast for E. G. Whitman & Co., No. 318 Chestnut st. There wouldn't be a dissenting voice in all the vast

There wouldn't be a dissenting voice in an all community.

B. G. W. & Co. stand to-day the recognized head of the confectionery trade, and well do they deserve the proud position. Their line bon-bons, roasted Jordan almonds, cream fruits, dainty caramels, chocolate and gum preparations, and many other dainties are unrivaled for sweetness and purity.
