Dr. Pierce, of Alabama, expressed his disapprobation of the amendment, because territorial limits are the only limits that have over been recognized by the Church, and, also, because it tends to foster that spirit of congregationalism which is damaging to the Church.

The Rev. Dr. Littlejohn, of New York, then took the floor, and said he hoped no delegate would be choked off and garged by this ery, but that the fullest scope would be given to every brother to discuss this very important matter.

The matter, after some further discussion, was postponed indefinitely. Yeas, 123; nays, 78.

This is regarded as a defeat of the friends of the Rev. Dr. Tyng, in whose interest it is understood the amendment was introduced.

The Convention, the Rev. Dr. Adams, of Wisconsin, rose and stated that he had a Canon, generally known as Hugh Davy Evans Canon, on Marriage and Divorce. He desired that the Canon should be referred to the Committee on Canons.

The report was adopted.

Amessage was received from the House of Bishops containing a long report on the "Italian Reform Movement."

The report took grounds in favor of the movement now going on in Italy, as regards worship in the vulgar tongue, non-celloacy of the clergy, &c.

The report particularly mentions the fact that great opposition was offered by some of the native prefers, who were grossly ignorant, and made their living saying mass.

The report contained the following resolution:

DESCRIPTION OF THE PICTURE.

But it is time to advise the public what it is they are brought before, with all this ceremony of deprecation and preface. Pauwels' "New Republic," a perfectly simple allegory, devotes half its breadth to the consideration of our Immigrants, and the other half to that of Emancipation. Both sides are needed to that of Emancipation. Both sides are needed to the date of the Edict which is Lincoln's perquisite and glory. The martyr president therefore stands on the highest stage of the composition, and an improvement on that sombre proclamation. On the left side of first the martyr president therefore as a both rest upon the Emancipation. Proclamation. meets hers as both rest upon the Emancipation Proclamation. On the left side of the picture, in a corresponding situation, stands Washington with a body-guard of his Continentals. The Republic, with the shades of her two great Presidents, stands under a canopy that is profiled against the sky, amid the towering honors of palms and plantaintrees. A breadth of draperied steps leads downwards from their elevation to the forground. On the left of the composition is a mass of groups illustrating the sudden joy and ratified of Emancipation.
