also, as to the range of the meaning of the words "views," "opinions," "doctrines," "dogmas,"

&c.

The Rev. Richard S. Mason, of North Carolina, referred to the case of a member who preached opinions contrary to the doctrine of atonement, and desired to know whether he would be considered heretical.

Rev. Dr. Gadsden reminded the House that some more stringent control, for the government of the ministry was required, and he favored the some more stringent control for the government of the ministry was required, and he favored the adoption of the new Canon. He had himself seen ministers of the Church attend theatrical exhibitions which were a disgrace to the community if the reverend gentleman must have been there himself; how else could he know it? and which were chiefly intended for purposes of licentiousness.

After this speech the vote was taken and the Canon passed unanimously.
