OPENING OF THE POLLS .-- Considerable mis-OPENING OF THE POLLS.—Considerable mis-understanding having arisen in regard to the opening and closing of the election polls in New Jereey, in consequence of the repealing conduct of the last Democratic Legislature, the Secretary of State addressed a letter of inquiry to Hon. George M. Robeson, Attorney-General, in refer-ence thereto. Mr. Robeson replies that, atter carefully examining the various laws and their amendments, the polls will be legally opened at seven o'clock in the morning on the day of elec-tion, and closed at seven o'clock in the evening. Those interested in the matter should bear these things in mind. Last year the polls closed at seven. NOMINATED.—At the Republican City Conven-tion of Camden, H. L. Bonsall, Esq., of the New Republic, was nominated for the Assembly in the First District by acclamation. Hon. George W. N. Custis, who was considered a condidate, sent i letter to the Convention declining to run, an he above result was the consequence. Mr. Bor
