PRINCETON COLLEGE.

Arrival of Dr. McCosh from Europe— His Reception in Princeton—His In-auguration.

The Rev. Dr. McCosh and his family arrived in the extra Cunard steamer on Tuesday. He was received at the dock by a number of gentlemen of New York, and was escorted to the Astor House. In the afternoon he proceeded with an escort to Princeton, where he was received at the station by the Faculty and students of the Chepoletal Saminary and conducted and of the Theological Seminary, and conducted to his future residence, the old "President's manwhich has been thoroughly refitted and re-sion," which has been thoroughly refitted and refurnished.

The students and citizens gathered in the grounds attached to the president's house, and formed a hollow square. Dr. McCosh came out in response to their enthusiastic calls, and addressed them in a manner which drew out cheer upon cheer. The Doctor is tall, and remarkably hundsome and intellectual in appearance, while his manner to all who approach him is dignified and impressive.

His address was short and to the point. He His address was short and to the point. He expressed his gratification at such a reception, and his gratitude for what had been done for him; pledged himself as a thorough American, and then, in a way fascinating to the youthful mind, talked to the students, and succeeded in making himself popular with them at once. At the close he was vehemently cheered by the students and the citizens, who were congregated together. Dr. McCosh then again stepped forward and expressed his gratification at the enthusiasm manifested, and called on the assemblage to give three cheers for "Old Princeton!" which was responded to with a will.

Among the distinguished orators and other participants on the occasion, in addition to the president elect, who will deliver an inaugural address, will be the Rev. Charles Hodge, D. D.; ex-Governor Pollock; Hon. Abraham O. Zabriskie, LL. D., Chancellor of New Jersey; ex-Governor Chas. S. Olden; ex-Governor Daniel Haines; the Rev. John Maclean, D. D. LL. D., the fettring President; the Rev. Geo. W. Musgrave, D. D., and the Rt. Rev. Bishop McIlvaine. It is supposed that Princeton will scarcely hold the influx of visitors who will be present. Borthern Democrats in War Time, "The Louisiana Tigers" were a famous regi-ment in the Rebel army from first Bull run until nearly annihilated in a desperate charge on the Union lines at Gettysburg. In a work by a mem-ber of that organization, who was wounded and captured in that charge, the incitements to Lee's wild advance into Pennsylvania are thus set forth:

"Our officers had been assured that the northern party opposed to war would rally such force against the draft in New York, Philadelphia and Baltimore as to cause a serious diversion in our favor, and crown with success our glorious cause.

'It was currently reported and fully believed through all the army of General Lee that Mr. Vallandigham and other leading Democrats of Ohio, New York and Pennsylvania, had arranged a plan by which risings and riotous meetings should be inaugurated on the 4th of July in all the great Northern cities. The scheme failed, except in New York, and there it came so late as to be of no avail in our behalf at the Gettysburg
