Proclamation by Gov. Geary. Governor Geary issued the following procla-mation vesterday: mation yesterday: Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

grateful hearts, and in the performance of our sacred duties to set special periods to enter into His gates with thank-giving and into His courts with praise. For this purpose, and in accordance with established custom, I have designated Thursday, the twenty-sixth day of November next, and I recommend that the people of this Commonwealth on that day refrain from their usual asymptices and purguits and assemble at usual avocations and pursuits, and assemble at their chosen places of worship to praise the name of God and magnify him with thanksgiving devoutly to acknowledge their dependence, and lay upon His altars the cheerful offerings of Let us thank Him with Christian humility for health and prosperity, abundant harvests, the protection of commerce, and the advancement of scientific, mercantile and manufacturing in-terests; our progress in education, morality, virtue and social order, the increase of our ma-terial wealth. exemption from pestilence and virtue and social order, the increase of our ma-terial wealth, exemption from pestilence and contagious diseases, and the destructive influ-ences of war; for having blessed us as a people and a nation, and opened before us the brightest prospects for the future, and for all other bless-ings, both temporal and spiritual. With sure re-liance upon Bivine favor, let us pray for the forgiveness of our sine, making public confes-sion of our dependence, that we may continue worthy of His parentage, love and protecting care; that our civil and religious liberties and political rights may remain unimpaired; that we may remember with gratitude our country's brave defenders, and cherish with sympathy their defendors, and cherish with sympathy their widows and orphan children, and that our paths through life may be directed by the example and instructions of the Redeemer, who died that we might enjoy all the blessings which temporally flow therefrom and eternal life in the world to come. Given under my hand and the great seal of the State at Harrisburg, this twenty-eighth day of October, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and sixty-eight, and of the Commonwealth the ninety-third
