No. 330 Walnut street, Philada. How a Sheep was Stolen.—John Crompton

is the name of an individual who has no local habitation. This morning he was at Front and South streets and observed a farmer's wagon come over from Jersey. Crompton had a dog and got him into a fight with another cur. He then asked the farmer to watch the fighting cathen asked the farmer to watch the fighting ca-nines. Farmer consented to do so and got much interested in the contest. In the meantime Crompton went to the wagon and searched it. He took a fancy to a sheep that had been dressed for market and managed to get away with it. He was captured by the Harbor Police and after a hearing before Alderman Toland was sent to prison.

LARCENY OF A YACHT.—Charles Scott is supposed to be in command of a small vessel which makes piratical trips down the Delaware. It has been ascertained that on several occasions he has borrowed yawls from captains of the different vessels and neglected to return them. This morning about one o'clock he took possession of a yacht, which was lying at Willow street wharf. He hoisted sail and started out into the river... Unfortunately for him, the wind shifted and he was captured by Harbor Policemen Meyer and Brown. Scott had a hearing before Alderman Toland, and was committed to answer.

Row on a Vessel.-Lying at the second wharf below Vine street is a small schooner, from Eastport, Me. Last night one of the officers invited a couple of friends to visit him. The whisky bottle was passed around pretty freely, and the party first became lively, then quarrelsome, and finally a fight ensued. The noise attracted the attention of the Harbor Police, and the three men were arrested. The names of the prisoners are James E. Crosby, Erwin E. Kelly and Harry Taylor. Ald. Toland committed the men in default of $800 bell.

Assault with a Measure. - William Johnson, residing at No. 927 Torr street, got drunk last evening. He went to a store at Seventh and Wallace streets. He became quarrelsome and then assaulted the proprietor with a peck measure. He was arrested, and this morning he had a hearing before Alderman Massey and was held in $1,200 bail to answer at court.

THE NEW GERMANTOWN BANK .- The hand some new edifice erected by the National Bank of Germantown is now completed and the transaction of business in it was commenced this week The building, which is an ornament to Germantown, is located at the corner of Germantown avenue and School street. It is 30 by 65 feet and two stories in height. The walls are of Maine granite and are very massive. The banking-room is 30 by 45 feet and 30 teet high, and is surrounded by a neat gallery which adds greatly to the finish of the apartment. The floor is composed of fron beams arched with brick and covered with French till. The clurks' apartment is reader tile. The clerks' apartment is made of walnut and ash, and elegantly carpeted. The tellers' desks are protected with French plate glass doors, and covered with white marble slabs. The rault is one of the largest, strongest and most complete of any in the country. It is fifteen feet square, built on a solid bed of stone resting upon a rock foundation. The walls are 30 inches thick, surrounded with granite slabs 71/2 by 15 feet, and 30 inches thick. The whole interior of this apartment is lined with boiler iron $\frac{1}{2}$ of an inch thick, and is supplied with burglar-proof safes of the best construction. As much as 63 perches of stone were used in building the foundations of

In the rear of the banking-room are the President's and Cashier's parlors, consultation room, &c.. all neatly furnished and carpeted. The front door and shutters are of double thickness, and lined with boiler iron.

On the second floor is the Directors' room, 15 On the second noor is the Directors room, 15 by 20 feet, suitably supplied with walnut furniture, and the floor covered with handsome Brussels carpet. Near this apartment is a vault 15 by 12 feet, intended as a depository for eld account books, the boxes of depositors, &c., of the insti-

Adjoining the bank building and immediately connected with it by a corridor, is the Cashler's residence, 42 by 34 feet, three stories in height, Mansard roof, and built of Falls of Schuylkill stone, after plans suggested by the Cashler, Mr. Otto. On the first floor there are a commodious parlor, library, dining-room, kitchen and wash-kitchen. On the second and third floors eight large chambers and bath-room, all lighted and heated. The dwelling cost $11,000.

The two buildings, with the ground, cost $60,-000.
The Germantown Bank commenced operations
The Germantown Bank commenced operations was govin 1814, with a capital of $152,000, and was governed by thirteen Directors, nine of whom were residents of Germantown, and the remainder were from Phladelphia, where much of the capital was subscribed. The house first occupied by the institution is still standing, and is next door to the splendid structure just taken possession of.

It was a handsome building in its day, and is calculated as being properly.

It was a handsome building in its day, and is celebrated as being once favored with the presence of Generals Washington, Knox and Greene, who slept in it one or two nights immediately after the battle of Brandywine.

The first President of the bank was Samuel Harvey, who fulfilled the duties up to the time of his death, at a ripe old age. He was succeeded by Charles Magarge, who occupied the position for many years, and then, by resignation, gave place to William Wynne Wister, Esq., the present President. The first Cashier was John F. Watson, Eq., author of Watson's Annals of Philadelphia, who was followed successively by Lloyd Mifflin, Samuel Harvey, Jr. (afterwards Vice President) and Charles W. Otto, the present Cashier. The present directors are: Wm. Wynne Wister, Charles Magarge, Charles Weiss, William Green, William N. Johnson, John S. Haines, Jabez Gates, Nathan L. Jones, John B. Haines, Jabez Gates, Nathan L. Jones, John B. Haines, James R. Gates, Charles J. Wister, Jr.

Union Benevolent Association.—The thirtyseventh annual meeting of the U. B. A was held at the office, N. W. corner Seventh and Sansom streets, on Friday evening (adjourned from Tnes-day) Oct. 23, 1868. The following gentlemen were duly elected officers and managers for the were duly elected officers and managers for the ensuing year, to wit:

President—Samuel H. Porkins. Vice-Presidents.

—Richard D. Wood and J. Fisher Leaming. Treasurer—Edmund Wilcox. Corresponding Secretary—L. Montgomery Bond, Recording Secretary—John H. Attwood. Managers—Benjamin Coates, Thomas Latimer, John Behlen, William Purves, Arthur G. Coffin, Benjamin Orne, John W. Claghorn, Thomas Wattson, Joseph H. Dulles, John Ashburst, Thomas A. Budd. Charles Rhoads, Richard Wood, Chas. S. Wutz, M.D., E. B. Wood, Joseph A. Clay, Alfred M. Collins, John E. Graeff, Henry D. Sherrerd. Randolph Saller. Henry D. Sherred, Randolph Sailer.
At a meeting of the Board of Managers, held subsequently, Dr. George F. McCallmont was appointed agent, and Thomas Evans and John T. Walton collectors.
The association thus enters upon its thirty-eighth year. It begins the season with 120 lady visitors. Its work covers all the built-up portions of the city except Kensington. The field is organized into aistriots, with secretaries for each, and subdivided into sections, with visitors over cach. The annual report shows that there was distributed hast year an aggregate sum of $21,290 55 in money and materials and that 4,058 families were furnished with coal. The number of visits made to the dwellings of the poor was 19,011 and 1,098 persons were found employment. Though this is but a partial statement, is hows a large work done, but insignificant in view of the vastamount of suffering in a crowded population of 700,000. The entire sum thus distributed is not more than is expended annually by many single families in our midst, and is not a fourth part of the annual incomes of others. If the lady visitors of our society are willing to visit the sick and suffering in winter, their hands should not be tied for the want of means to give relief. The small amount they have to distribute a lawy insufficient and discourse inc. is always insufficient and discouraging.

The collectors above named will make their an nual calls immediately, and their requests are commended to all. Contributions may also be sent to the Treasurer, Edmund Wilcox, 404 Chestnut street, or to the agent, Dr. George F. McCallmont, northwest corner of Seventh and SERENADE TO HON. EDWIN M. STANTON.—The Republican citizens of Philadelphia will assemble this (Saturday) evening, at ten o'clock, in front of the Union League, on Broad street, to participate in a serenade to the Hon. Edwin M. Stanton whose services and sacrifices in the cause of the Union entitle him to the respect and love all true friends of liberty and free government. Let every Republican be present to show that the every Republican be present to show that the people honor those who serve them faithfully. There will be a magnificent display of fireworks by Professor Jackson, an immense Drummond light will be exhibited on Broad street and a brilliant exhibition of dissolving views in front of the League House during the evening.

THE REFORMATION JUBILEE .-- As a suitable closing to the Seventh Jubilee year of the Reformation which has been observed by the Lutheran Church throughout the world, appropriate and impressive services will be held on Sunday next, November 1st, morning, afternoon and evening, at St. Mark's Ev. Lutheran Church, Spring Garden street above Thirteenth. Discourses will be delivered by eminent clergymen of the Lutheran Church, and the music will be of a highly attractive and beautiful character. Very many of our readers will remember with feelings of pleasure the exercises which took place at the same place a year since, and it is intended that those of next Synday shell be expelly interesting. Sunday shall be equally interesting.

THE curiosities of the looms in Europe, and America are alike displayed at the great Clothing House of Wanamaker & Brown. You can get there a splendidly-made suit of clothes that bears the severest scritiny, cheaper than elsewhere— we mean, you can buy the materials alone. One large apartment in this great house is devoted to Black Clothing alone, and on the ground floor is a Boys' Clothing Department, where a regiment of lads can be fitted out as easy as one. In the customer department our best citizens may al-ways be seen ordering their apparel.

FINE ARTS .- We have received from the pub lishers, Colton, Zahm & Roberts, 172 William street, New York, one of ther last "water-color" chromos. It is from an original study by Miss Ellen Thayer, is known as American Spring Flowers, A., and represents trailing-arbutus, partridge-berries and wintergreen. It imitates with some success an aquarelle in which body-color is freely used to get the value of the white and pink blossoms against the tinted paper. The publishers remark that it is best adapted to a lady's sitting-room or library.

THE BETHUNE MEMORIAL CHURCH.-This new enterprise is fast gaining favor with the residents of the section of the city where the congregation meet for worship, corner of Twelfth congregation meet for worship, corner of Twelths street and Montgomery avenue. To-morrow af-ternoon the Sunday School will be addressed by Colonel De Witt C. Moore and Robert Allen, Esq. Rev. P. Stryker Talmage has been selected as the pastor of the church.

STATUETTE OF CHIEF LYLE. A fine statuette of the late David M. Lyle, Chief Engineer of the Fire Department, executed by Mr. Alfred Stauch. the sculptor to whom was assigned the duty of making the Lyle Monument, is now on exhibition at the Chief Engineer's office. This statue is 18 inches in height, and is a miniature copy of the figure designed for the monument. It is intended as an ornament for the houses of our fire companies, and is well adapted for the purpose.

To Young Men.-Rev. Herrick Johnson will preach a sermon to-morrow evening, especially to young men, at his church, on Washington Square. We are informed that seats will be reserved, and a cordial invitation is extended to strangers, medical students, and young men who have no regular place of worship, for whom scuts will be reserved.

GERMAN MASS MEETING .- A grand German mass-meeting (Republican) will be held this evening at the National Guards Hall, under the auspices of the German Republican Campaign Club. Judge Schutze, of Texas, and Ex-Gov. Miller, of Wisconsin, are the principal speakers.

FREEDMEN'S COMMISSION.—The annual meeting for the election of officers of the Pennsylvania Branch of the Freedmen's Commission of the Protestant Episcopal Church will be held in the lecture room of St. Luke's Church, on Monday, November 2, at 12 M. Contributors are requested to attend.
