The prisoners were divided among the several districts as follows: First, 214; Thirteenth, 89; Second, 102; Fourth, 49; Third, 325; Fifth, 30; Sixth, 175; Seventh, 123; Eighth, 235; Ninth, 152; Tenth, 152; Eleventh, 29; Twelfth, 15; Thirteenth, 8; Fourteenth, 34.

THIEF AND RECEIVERS.—Francis Seymour was arrested for the larceny of two mules and a wagon from Fifteenth and Vine streets. The wagon contained a lot of horse feed, valued at $50. It is alleged that the feed was taken to the stables of Michael Thompson, on Coster street, near Twenty-fifth street, and was sold for $4, and the bags which contained it were sold for three cents per pound to Elizabeth Brady, living on Pennsylvania avenue, near Twenty-fourth street. The alleged receivers were arrested, and all of the stolen property was recovered by the Ninth District Police. The prisoners had a hearing before Alderman Pannocost, and were held in prison at Court.

CHARGED WITH ROBBERY.—Joseph Kille went into the Third District Police Station yesterday to enter a complaint against a man. While there he was recognized as the person charged with having broken the windows of the jewelry stores of William W. Whitehead, No. 469 North Tenth street, and Richard Davis, No. 483 North Tenth street, in February last. Two gold watches and a tray of rings were stolen. Kille admitted the theft. He is also suspected of having broken a window of a store on Girard avenue, near Sixth street, about the same time. He was committed by Alderman Carpenter.

NEW BUILDINGS.—The number of permits for the erection of new buildings, issued by the Building Inspectors, during the month of October, was 417. Of these 2 were for the erection of four-story dwellings, 202 for three-story dwellings and 142 for two-story dwellings; boiler-houses, 1; churches, 4; coach-houses, 3; engine houses, 1; factories, 2; ice-houses, 1; manufactory, 1; offices, 8; sheds, 3; skating rink, 1; stables, 19; shops, 14; sugar-house, 1; stores, 9; warehouses, 8. There were, in addition, 38 permits issued for alterations and additions.

POLICEMAN STABBED.—Yesterday afternoon Policeman Hart, of the Seventh District, yesterday was arrested at Front and Callowhill streets. He was set upon by a crowd of men, and his prisoner was rescued from him. During the wrangle Hart was stabbed in the side. John Cassidy, Thomas Gallagher, John Moore and William Malone were subsequently arrested on the charge of having been concerned in the affair. They had a hearing before Alderman Toland, and were held to answer.

LARCENY.—James Moran and Thomas Harvey were arrested on Saturday night upon the charge of having stolen a coat and hat and $9 from a man who was asleep on Delaware avenue. They are also suspected of the larceny of a quantity of 150 pounds of navy chewing tobacco, which was found in their possession. The tobacco swears an owner at the Third District Police Station. The supposed thieves were sent below by Alderman Carpenter.

CHARGED WITH PERJURY.—A German named Henry Smith was arrested on Saturday and taken before Alderman Nell, on the oath of Policeman Barger, of the Eighteenth District, charged with perjury and false arrest. Smith had had Barger arrested upon a charge arising out of an election trouble, and was unable to get him released. Hence his arrest. He was held in $800 bail for trial.

HIGHWAY ROBBERY.—Charles Kuntz, residing on 11th street, near Cedar, was attacked, last evening, while passing Girard avenue and Shackamaxon street, on his way home from church. He was seized by the throat, and a silver watch and chain taken from him. The robber, William Thurston, was arrested on the charge of having committed the robbery. He was sent below by Alderman Eggleston.

A VIOLENT FELLOW.—Edward Street, engaged as a hand on the brig Fanny, lying at Lombard street wharf, got on the outside of too much whiskey on Saturday night, and attacked everybody on board of the vessel. The latter Police were sent for, and Lieut. Edgar and some of his men arrested Street, who was sent to prison by Ald. Carpenter.

DISORDERLY HOUSES.—Sergeant Bromell and a squad of the Third District police made a descent upon the houses of Mary Donnelly, No. 239 South Front street, and Deborah Mack, No. 241 South Front, on Saturday night, and captured the proprietresses and ten inmates. The prisoners were all committed by Alderman Carpenter.

ASSAULTING WOMEN.—Robert Cathcart and Samuel McAllister were arrested last night, at Eighteenth and Montrose streets, for attacking and beating two women, who were quietly passing along the street. Alderman Dallas committed the accused.

MAYHEM.—John McNamara was arrested last night at Twenty-fifth and Coster streets upon a warrant issued by Alderman Pannocost. He is charged with having assaulted a man named Monaghan and knocked out one of his eyes a few days ago. He was held for trial.

BOURBON WENTH.—The Duke of Montpensier, the husband of Queen Isabella's sister, is principally noted in Spain as a successful speculator. While the court of the Queen was squandering vast sums of money in senseless dissipation, he used the funds at his command with as much sagacity as his father, Louis Philippe, would have done. The consequence is that the Duke is now the wealthiest member of the Orleans family. He is much attached to his Spanish wife, who, though a daughter of Maria Christina, and a sister of Isabella the Second, is a lady generally respected for her virtues and her amiability. Most of the other Orleans Princes are only moderately wealthy. Queen Amelia, the widow of Louis Philippe, left about five hundred thousand francs, about one-half of which sum was given, by the common consent of the members of the dynasty, to the Count of Paris, now the head and representative of the Orleans family. Both the Count of Paris and his brother, the Duke de Chartres, have an income of about three or four thousand pounds sterling. The Duke de Joinville and his brother, the Duke de Nemours, are much wealthier, their incomes being not less than from fifteen to twenty thousand pounds each. All of the Orleans Princes live very economically, and make but little display. The most complete harmony reigns in the councils of the family, and all its members are satisfied that an Orleans Prince will soon ascend the French throne.
