(Special Despatch to the Phila. Evening Builetin.) WASHINGTON, Nov. 3 .- The profound interest which is felt here in the election overshadows al other subjects. Nothing is being done in any Department, and business is almost wholly suspended. The greatest anxiety prevails to hear 6500 whether the contest is going forward peacefully. Up to this time, the authorities have received 4.123 no information of disturbances in any quarter, though fears are entertained that the day will not close without serious disturbances in some parts of the South.
