TELEGRAPHIC SUMMARY.

Brow in New York yesterday morning: Two thousand special deputies have been sworn in for duty to-day in Brooklyn. The Alabama Legislature met yesterday, but a quorum of members was not present. THE Parisian journals are again warned not to neak their sentiments too freely PIRT'S OPERA HOUSE, in New York, it is re-ported, has been purchased by the Eric Railway Company for $850,000. UNITED STATES MARSHAL MURBAY, it is said has appointed two thousand specials to preserve the peace in New York to-day. A DRUNKEN man was killed by falling from a tween the accuser and the accused; between the Commonwealth and those whom she charges with violations of the law; not to protect the guilty, but to see that the law and the rights of the Commonwealth and the public welfare bave an opportunity to be vindicated, and to protect those against whom there is no evidence of wrong doing from the in-dignity of persecutors. To the discharge of this duty you should bring the best qualities of your eads and hearts. You must not suffer you selves to be controlled or affected by passion or prejudice, by partiality or disaffection for persons r parties. Questions arising out of the present political contest may come before you. In the onsideration of these questions you are not act as partisans, and decide them according to your political preferences or dislikes, but as grand jurors in the discharge of your high and solemn office, according to your obligations to the law and the oaths and affirmations which ou have severally taken. Partisanship has no place within the sacred precincts of the halls of justice. The judge, ju-ror, or officer of the law, who suffers his parti-sanship to control or affect his official duty is unworthy of the sacred trust reposed in him, and hould receive the just reprobation of all men. ou will, therefore, bring to the discharge of this duty minds free from all party bias or prejudice and determine all cases according to the law and the evidence, and by those alone. You will be assisted in your duties by the District Attorney, who is the officer of the law for this purpose; and if any question of law should arise in which you may desire the instruction of the Court, you may freely apply to the Court for hat purpose. In all cases of misdemeanor, if you should return a bill ignoramus, it is your duty to decide and certify on such bills whether the county or rosecutor shall pay the costs of prosecution. The officers of the court will attend you and send to you the witnesses as you may require them. The Grand Jury then retired to their rooms. (Translated for the Phila, Evening Bulletin.)

BILL OF FARE FOR TU-MUMROW'S DINNER. BY BABON BRISSE.

Stew of Turnips. Dressed Cabbage without Meat. Whoever likes the flavor of the turnip as I do, will appreciate this capital little recipe. Stewed Turnips.—Scrape the turnips, cut them up and cook them in salted water. When they re well done stew, over a slow fire. some bread moistened with the water they were cooked in, and when the stew is just done stir in the turnips, previously browned in butter over the fire; add pepper and salt to taste, a morsel of butter, mix all together and serve. This stew is rendered ery delicate by adding yolks of eggs, diluted in a little milk. Dressed Calbage.—Fry in butter, without browning, some chopped onions; add chopped parsley, salt, pepper, nutmeg, a few spoonfulls. of vermicelli, some minced mushrooms, if you have them, if not, moisten with a little water, mix, and withdraw this dressing from the fire. Take off the finest cabbage leaves whole, cut the rest in 4 or 8 according to size; trim off the hard part from each piece, and cook all in boiling Drain, then put some dressing between the

On Saturday last the President sent to General Ronsseau's request for further instructions in view of the complications and conflicts of au-thority and jurisdiction among the several con-tending factions who claim the civil power in Lonisiana: Wasurngroy, D. C., Oct. 31, 1868.—To Brevet Name and the sentence of the sentence

You are expected and auhorized to take, all legi-timate steps necessary and proper to proven-breaches of the peace or hostile collisions be-tween clitzens. Questions relating to the civil polity of the State must be left to the proper civil authorities for consideration and settlement; the object is to preserve peace, and restore civil government to the people, according to the prin-ciples laid down in the Constitution. You are referred to instructions heretofore, which were deemed full and ample for all just and lawful pur-poses. - [Signed] ANDREW JOHNSON.

bischat. He strike half a dozen chords on the piano, and plunges into a complaint of the world's injustice to Wagner. His talk is never duil, his sentences are never finished, his stories never quite reach their point; there is a sort of vague and wan-dering continuity about his thoughts and the result of his thoughts as genial good nature, a social tact, which render him a favorite with 'young wo-men and with old women. He is the victim of a thousand confidences, he is amazingliv susceptible, he writes the most charming lit-the love-poems, he even strums them on the most romantic of guitars, and he remains somehow a bachelor. He is guashing in the benevolence, and is constantly taking up lit-the orphans to set them down again. You never quite torget that he is a paron, but taking up lit-the orphans to set them down again. He can't understand why people quarrel about anything, aad clerical controversies are the most unintelligible of all. For himself he likes a choral service because his voice happens to be a fine tenor. But then he is quite ready to quiz the Ritualists about their taste in pigs'-heads, and at the about their taste in pigs'-heads, and at the mals who devour fruit, leaves, stalks and all, about their taste in pigs neads, and at the same time to believe that everybody is as good as can be, and that the true cause of all this bitterness is that the theologians don't see enough of society. For himself he owns that his interest lies in quite different quarters. He has the finest bit of Sevres at home; he has just picked up the loveliest little emerfrom the banana patches, at a distance of He has the mark of the function bound of the low list in the second of the purpose, because it is impossible to ex-the sides im the ground perpetually – and in a tew years covering the intervening spaces, till the whole surface becomes a forest of fruit and foliage; with scarcely room to pass through the cool overhanging arches.
