PARADE OF THE REPUBLICAN INVINCIBLES.

The veteran Republican Invincibles made a handsome turn-out, on Saturday night, in honor of the success of our standard bearers, Grant and Colfax: Fully one thousand torch bearers were in line. The club formed at eight o'clock and marched to Broad street, countermarching in front of the Union League House, which was handsomely illuminated and decorated. After this the club proceeded over a lengthy route, reaching their headquarters about eleven o'clock. Many houses along the route were illuminated.
