himself and his country with the English government and people. Although we do not perceive that Mr. Johnson's boasted "arrangement" promises any remarkable results, we believe that the constant reiteration of our demand for a settlement of the claims in full. Mr. Adams had no accomplish quite as much, and he had the good sense to hold his tongue while he had his work in hand.

GRANT'S CABINET.
If General Grant's administration is a failure, it will not be because he had not a sufficiency of good, bad and indifferent men. The newspapers and the politicians—those of the Democratic persuasion particularly—have been a policy for a long time after the election, and he now has the choice of as many methods as there are counsellors. At present, the especial source of anxiety on the part of interested parties is the formation of a Cabinet. Several brigades of politicians, from "Bible" Polk up to and including the "Bible" Polk, have been suggested for the different portfolios, and peculiar claims of all are demonstrated to be so strong that it is difficult to perceive how General Grant could enlarge his Cabinet to the dimensions of a grand army, without making himself liable to the charge of base treachery. It is surprising how much effort is expended in this connection, and upon these occasions, anxiously awaiting an opportunity to exercise itself in behalf of the party.

Men would find it embarrassing to make selections from such a vast body of sagacious statesmen; but it is likely General Grant will not be so choosy in his selection of his cabinet as the Democrats would like. This growth is best shown by a comparison of the list of candidates for the Governor:
Republican 1867. 1868.

NEW YORK AND THE GOVERNMENT.
For a number of years, the city of New York has been a political anomaly, according to its position to the Federal Government. Every year it rolls a still heavier majority against the Union party, comprising the great mass of the population, and yet loyal. Under the management of the political machinery of the Tammany leaders, there is no limit to the vote which they do in several of the wards of the city which are under the control of politicians of the New York school.

This year the enormous fraudulent vote of New York city, and Brooklyn, carried the State for Seymour, while nearly all the interior voted for the New England States, Pennsylvania and the great West, for Grant.
New York is thus the last stronghold of degenerate Democracy, and its last vote placed it more than ever in opposition to the Republican majority in Congress and to the incoming administration of Grant.
Notwithstanding this reiterated hostility to the Government chosen by the people, New York claims and puts forward from the Government that all the other great cities of the North put together. The annual expenditures from the public treasury among the great cities of the North, in the year 1867, were as follows: New York, $1,000,000; Boston, $500,000; Philadelphia, $400,000; Chicago, $300,000; St. Louis, $200,000; San Francisco, $150,000; New Orleans, $100,000; Baltimore, $80,000; Cincinnati, $70,000; Portland, $60,000; New Haven, $50,000; Albany, $40,000; Hartford, $30,000; Providence, $20,000; Worcester, $15,000; Syracuse, $10,000; Albany, $5,000; Hartford, $5,000; Providence, $5,000; Worcester, $5,000; Syracuse, $5,000.

THE CITY OF PHILADELPHIA, WHICH MADE MORE sacrifices in the war than any other city, which sustained the Federal administration bravely and consistently, and which has been the scene of General Grant for six thousand years, has received from Congress scarcely a handful part of the favors that have been showered all over the North. The Federal appropriation to Philadelphia for the year 1868, is $1,000,000. The Federal appropriation to Philadelphia for the year 1868, is $1,000,000. The Federal
appropriation to Philadelphia for the year 1868, is $1,000,000.
