NEW YORK. Nov. 12.—A sub-committee of the Congressional Committee on Retrenchment held a session in this city yesterday and examined District Attorney Couriney as to his reason: for not pressing a trial of the Kentucky Bourbon Company and other whisky cases. Mr. Gourtney testified that the dalay was caused by orders from Washington.

The 'After Dark' and 'Under the Gaslight' litigation promise to be very complicated. In addition to Augustin Daly's injunctions, J. E. McDonough, of the Bowery Theatre, was served with an injunction yesterday by Harry Palmer, restraining him from performing 'After Dark' at his theatre, Jarretti & Palmer claiming 'Losole right to perform it is the United States.

A Spaniard named Nareno, while imprisoned on a charge of insanity in the Tombs, on Tuesday attempted to set fire to his cell. He was severely injured by bures, and almost suffected by the smoke. But little damage was done to the cell.

Madame Olympe Audouard, Countess de la Morlière, held her first "conference" at the theatre of the Union League Club House, last night, before a fashionable and highly intelligent audience, and achieved a great success. The subject of her reading was the political life of Victor Hugo, and in the course of it she drew impressive pictures of the man, his character and his influence during the eventful history of France.

and his inhuence during the eventual misery of France.

A meeting of the Workingwomen's Association was held last night at No. 68 East Broadway, at which Miss Susan B. Anthony presided. Several Sorosians were present, who, it was believed, were anxious to get the control of the tising organization; but they were utterly defeated in their object by the true representatives of the working women. The debate between the two factions was quite apicy, and the Sorosis received several severe rebuffs, but the meeting adjourned peacefully. Miss Susan B. Anthony was elected president; Miss Celia Burleigh and Miss Elizabeth Brown secretaries, and Miss Field treasurer.

CITY BULLETIN.

Fire.—This morning about half-past twelve o'clock a fire broke out in the flour and feed store of William Dinsmore, on Frankford Road, above Hanover street. The building was two stories in height—the lower story being brick and the upper frame. The structure and its contents were entirely! destroyed. Loss about $600. No Insurance.

The flames extended to a frame building adjoining on the south, occupied by C. Haines as a harness manufactory. This was likewise destroyed.

A frame building on the north, occupied as a dwelling and butcher shop, took fire and was badly damaged. A frame slaughter house and stable in the rear were destroyed. Loss $1,500.

A stable in the rear of the feed store was also burned.

BALLOT-BOX STUFFING.—George Ferguson, residing on Sylvester street, near Sixth, was arrested yesterday by Policeman Brines, of the reated yesterday by Policeman Brines, of the Seventeenth District, and had a hearing last evening before Aiderman Bonsall. The evidence showed that Ferguson was Return Inspector of the Ninth Division of the First Ward, at the Presidential election. When one of the hourly counts was made, Ferguson turned the ballot-box upside down, and the tickets fell out on the table. Then, it is alleged, he dropped a handfull of Democratic tickets, but they did not fall on the general pile, and were quietly taken possession of by the other Inspector, who produced them at the hearing last evening. The accused was held in $1,000 ball for trial. in $1,000 ball for trial.

Suspicion of Robbery.-Michael Hoing was arrested, last night, at Seventh and Shippen streets, on suspicion of robbery. On the afterstreets, on suspicion of robbery. On the atternoon of the 10th inst., a dwelling-house, No. 1214 Austin street, was entered and ransacked. Some jewelry and clothing were stolen. The theves, in their haste to get away, dropped some articles in the yard. Hoing was seen prowling about the neighborhood, acting in a suspicious manner, about the time the robbery is supposed to have been committed. He was sent below to await a further hearing. await a further hearing.

Ice.—The weather since yesterday morning has been decidedly wintry. A fresh, cutting wind has been blowing and the atmosphere has been exceedingly chilly. Thick clothing and overcoate have been brought into requisition. This moralog the gutters in various sections of the city and the ponds about the city were cov-ered with a thin coating of ice.

DWELLING HOUSE BURNED .- This morning, about half past seven o'clock, a fire broke out in the old Rose Hill mansion, a stone structure located on Front street, above Hart's lane. The building was owned by Braddock & Bedford, and was occupied by John Ryan as a dwelling. It was completely gutted. The loss is estimated at $1,000, upon which there is no insurance.

BOLD THEFT.-William Ringle walked into the store of Bernard Rafferty, at No. 706 Lombard street, yesterday afternoon. He took a fancy to a roll of carpet containing eight yards, shouldered it and walked off. He was pursued and cap-tured. This morning Ringle had a hearing be-fore Ald. Carpenter and was sent to prison.

PICTURE SALE AT BIRCH'S .- Among the good paintings to be sold to-night by Mr. Birch (C. F. Residence of the strong Rehig, "Balvator Rosa, Sketahing;" a Sully, "The Pet," by no means bereft of Sully's old charm, only it looks a little too much, as Mile. Jeanne Benoiton says of Grenze's Cruche Cassée, as if painted with coldof Grenze's Cruche Cassée, as if painted with coldcream; landscapes by Weber, Williams, the Morans, and W. T. Richards; Schussele's original study of Peter Cooper, Esq., for his picture of "American Inventors"—a very good, bold sketch, of use to the artstudent; and Cresson's "Sister Anne," representing a scene in the old story omitted in the Barbe Bleue now playing at the Academy; it is a female figure, in old French costume, signalling from the battlements, relieved against a good windy sky. We must not forget a fine little Hoguet, a "Scene near Amsterdam."
A still better Hoguet occurrs in the group for tomorrow evening's sale—No. 184, "Coast of Etretal."
There is a big, rich Spanish head and bust by Rothermel, answering to the name of "Domenica." The picture in the whole collection most to our taste is No.
111, "The Sistera," by Patrois. There is a good Fischel, No. 118, "The Mother's Pride. "The Dead
Bird," by Ricot, is well executed. A large painting, by Boichard, "Catching the Butterfiy," will be a parlor treasure to whoever is fortunate enough to catch and add it to his entomological collection. Cresson's "Poet's Dream" is an attempt, with some good points, to paint in a more ambitious style than he usually felt himself equal to.

"A REGAT DESSERT."-The highly-finished fruitpicces of W. Johann Preyer, the German artist, are to the Düsseldorf school what the flowers and bijons of the Düsseldorf school what the flowers and blions of Blaise Desgoffe, with their enamel-surface, are to the French public. In both, microscopic minuteness of touch is carried as far as it is possible to conceive. Preyer's fruit-studies were first brought to everybody's attention in this city by an exquisite pair exhibited for the Sanitary Fair in 1864, by the respective owners Mr. Webb and Mr. Bailey: in one of these a glass of vine, standing amongst the fruit, contained a complete reflection in its tiny surface of the painter's studio, with the odd dwarf's figure of Preyer in the centre.

The chromo-copy of another of these miracles of finish has been named "A Regal Dessert." We were studying an example of it in the store of Mr. A.S. Robinson, No. 910 Chestnut street. The brilliancy and roundness of the grapes, the bloom and cool firm flesh of a large peach, and the translucency of the marble slab upon which the dessert is grouped, were indicated with excessive care. This chromo-lithograph is carried to a pitch of delicate imitation which will disarm the criticism even of those who do not much like that sort of art.

A LARGE collection of pictures, purchased by the well-known New York importer Mr. J. P. Beaumont, will be disposed of in this city, before long, under the charge of Mr. Scott. We call attention to Mr. uer the charge of Mr. Scott. We call attention to Mr. Beaumont's letter in another column, explaining the nature of this importation. A number of paintings were bought by Mr. B. daring the Paris Exposition, while others were obtained from prominent artists of Düsseldorf, Berlin, The Hague and Brossels. This interesting gallery of pictures will be arranged for examination previous to sale, in the Eastern rooms of the Academy of Fine Arts, on the 20th instant.

PROBABLE MURDER IN N. J.

A Stabbing Afray in Frankfort, Sussex County.

On Tuesday night last the rather dilapidated public house at Mount Piegah, near Culliver's Gap, in this county, was the scene of an attack which will in all probability result in a murder. The circumstances, as related to us, are briefly as follows: Martin Clifford, a man whose business has been the collecting and carting of bark for the tannery of William H. Bell, of Branchville, and Daniel H. Utter, a farmer of Frankfort township, left Branchville together after the closing of the polls and they were in friendly accord when they left. An old grudge, originating in their boyhood, existed between them, and this feeling probably was the occasion of an altercation, which led to a quarrel when they reached the tavern, as they were, it is said, using bad languago and threats when they got out of the wagon in which they traveled. Both went into the barroom, when Clifford blew out the light and stabbed Utter in a vital part, from which wound he is, or was at the could not recover. Clifford got out of the house in the confusion, and escaped to the woods, or in the Blue Mountain. Some forty or fifty men were in pursuit of him on Tuesday night and on Wednesday, but so far as we have learned had not succeeded in capturing him. It is probable he has escaped for the time, as his knowledge of the mountain would enable him to hide until he could effect a crossing of the Delaware into Pennsylvania, where he could be safe from arrest for the present. The scene of this affray is but a short distance from the place where Skellinger was murdered by Cruyer some seven years ago.

Whether any reward has been effored for the present of Clifford me are number to say.

linger was murdered by Cruyer some seven years ago.

Whether any reward has been offered for the arrest of Clifford we are unable to say. We hear that Clifford has sought refuge in the "Bear Swamp," on Culver's pond, at the gap, where he was seen on Wednesday and shot at. The swamp was surrounded and notice given at the ferries over the Delaware, so that he cannot escape in that direction. A more recent account of the stabbing informs us that Utter was stabbed between the ribs in the immediate vicinity of the heart. Clifford then blew out the light, exclaiming. "Tve fixed him," and jumping over the bar escaped through the back door.

The Surrender of Fort Sumter.

[From the Worester Spy, Nev. 10]
Major Anderson's Original telegram from Sandy Hook to Mr. Cameron, then Secretary of War, announcing the surrender of Fort Sumter is now in possession of a gentleman in New London, Connecticut. At that time communication between the Northern and the Southern States by the ordinary channels had been cut off, and this despatch, sent by Major Anderson immediately on his arrival by the Baltic, which received him and his force after the surrender and sailed at once for New York, was the first official intimation received by the government of the fate of the fortress so gallantly but hopelessly defended. The following is a copy of the despatch:

Steamshift Baltic, Opp Sandy Hook, April 18, The surrender of fort sumter.

BELLEGIE THE IONOWING IS 2 COPY OF MICHAEL PAICH:

STEAMSHIP BALTIO, OFF SANDY HOOK, April 18, 19,30 A. M., via New York.—Hon. S. Cameron, Secretary of War, Wachington:—Having defended Fort Sumter for thirty-four hours, until the quarters were entirely burned, the main gates destroyed by fire, the gorge gates seriously injured, the magazine surrounded by flames and its door closed from the effects of heat, four barrels and three cartridges only being available, and no provisions remaining but pork, I accepted terms of evacuation offered by General Beauregurd, being the same offered by him on the 11th inst., prior to the commencement of hostilities, and marched out of the fort Sunday afternoon, the 14th inst., with colors flying and drums beating; bringing away company and private property, and saluting my flag with fifty guns.

RAILROAD COMPANY

A limited amount of the First Mortgage Bonds of the Union Pacific Railroad Company are offered to the pub-lic, as one of the safest and most profitable investments. They are a first mortgage upon the longest and most important railroad in the country.

2. By law they can be issued to the Company only as the road is completed, so that they always represent a real value. 8. Their amount is limited by act of Congress to Fifty Million Dollars on the entire Pacific line, or an average of less than $20,000 per mile.

4. Hon. E. D. Morgan, of the United States Senate, and Hon. Oakes Ames, of the United States House of Repre-sentatives, are the trustees for the bondholders, to see that all their interests are pretected. 5. Five Government Directors, appointed by the President of the United States, are responsible to the country for the management of its affairs.

6. Three United States Commissioners must certify that the road is well built and equipped, and in all respects a first class railway, before any bonds can be issued upon it. 7. The United States Government lends the Company its own bonds to the same amount that the company is sues, for which it takes a second mortgage as security.

2,800 acres of land to the mile, lying upon each side of The bonds pay six per cent. in gold, and the principal is also payable in gold.

8. As additional aid, it makes an absolute donation of

10. The earnings from the local or way business were over FOUR MILLION DOLLARS last year, which, after paying operating expenses, was much more than sufficient t pay the interest. These earnings will be vastly increased on the completion of the entire line in 1869. 11. No political action can reduce the rate of interest

11. No political action can reduce the rate of interest, it must remain for thirty years—six per cent, per annum in gold, now equal to between eight and nine per cent, in currency. The principal is then payable in gold. If a bend, with such guarantees, were issued by the Government, its market price would not be less than from 30 to 25 per cent, premium. As these bonds are issued under Government authority and supervision, upon what is concluded to the contraction of the contraction very largely a Government work, they must ultimately approach Government prices. No other corporate bonds are made so secure.

are made so secure.

12 The issue will soon be exhausted. The sales have sometimes been half a million a day, and nearly twenty millions have already been sold. About ten millions more may be offered. It is not improbable that at some time not far distant, all the remainder of the bonds the Company can issue will be taken by some combination of capitalists and withdrawn from the market, except at a large advance. The long time, the high gold interest, and the perfect security, must make these bonds very valuable

All the predictions which the officers of this Company have made in relation to the progress and business success of their enterprise, or the value and advance in the price of their securities, have been more than confirmed, and of their between the parties who desire to invest in their bonds will find it to their advantage to do so at once.
