

CITY BULLETIN.

THE FIRE ZOUAVES.—The regular weekly drill of Company A, Philadelphia Fire Zouaves, Captain J. W. Ryan, commanding, last evening, at the City Armory, was witnessed by a large number of ladies and gentlemen. This company is composed of excellent material—young men, the most of whom have served in the field of the war, and have earned a high reputation, and well deserves to be considered the "crack" company. Captain Ryan has cause to be proud of his command, and it is provided that the company should have a drill every week, there is not the least doubt but that it would be the finest military organization in the country. It already surpasses any company in existence in the State. Those who witnessed the drill last evening were delighted with the entertainment. Every movement was executed with the most remarkable precision, and drew forth hearty applause from the audience. The company, after having been drilled by the word of command, went through the manual of arms by the sound of the tap of the drum. The feature of the evening was the silent or mysterious drill by the company, which was performed in a highly creditable manner. Ryan is a "self-taught" and a well-known life in this city as a newsboy. When the war broke out he enlisted as a private in Col. Frank E. Patterson's regiment, and served with great credit. He was Captain of the 9th Union League Regiment, Col. Frank Wister. He was in the service four years and six months. His military reputation gained him his present position, as he provided the accommodations for strangers to him when they selected him as their commander.

LARCENY OF POTATOES.—H. Fitzpatrick had a hearing before Ald. Carpenter this morning upon the charge of the larceny of potatoes. Yesterday afternoon, Mr. Stapeon, a provision dealer, left four barrels of potatoes on the sidewalk in front of a corner store at Second and Willow streets. Fitzpatrick soon afterwards appeared with a two-horse team and commenced to put the potatoes into his wagon. The storekeeper remonstrated, but Fitzpatrick declared that he had been authorized by Mr. Simpson to take the potatoes. Storekeeper argued that he ought to have a written order, but Fitzpatrick continued to load up the potatoes. He was subsequently ascertained that he had no authority from Mr. Simpson. He was committed in default of $800 bail.

ROBBERS IN A BAD FIX.—At an early hour this morning Officer Grimes of the Harbor Police was notified that a man had effected an entrance into the cellar of a grocery store at Second and Willow streets. He made an examination and found the individual there. The fellow gave his name as Jacob Murphy. He had bored a hole in the front door and slipped through. When the collector came so much that he was unable to get out through the hole again. Alderman Toland sent Murphy to prison in default of $800 bail.

ANOTHER HOMICIDE.—William Martin died at the Pennsylvania Hospital at a late hour on Wednesday night. He was shot in the thigh during a fight which occurred at the polls at Sixth and Tenth streets, the evening of the October election. The deceased was 19 years of age, and resided with his parents in Tudor street. The coroner will hold an inquest in the case to-morrow.

STONK FIGHT.—Two gangs of boys indulged in a stone fight at Sixth and Shippen streets yesterday afternoon, to the great peril of passers-by. Sergeant Bromell of the Third District Police, arrested three of the juveniles and they were committed by Alderman Carpenter.

NOR RECOVERED.—The Schuylkill Harbor Police have been engaged in grappling for the body of William Valentine, who was supposed to have fallen into the Schuylkill from the Columbia bridge on Wednesday night, but thus far have been unable to discover any traces of it.

PROBING POCKETS.—James Whelan was arrested yesterday at Vine street wharf, on the charge of having picked the pocket of a farmer. He was taken before Ald. Cahill and was committed in default of $800 bail.

MILITARY PARADE.—Orders will shortly be issued for a parade of the First Division, Pennsylvania Militia, on Thanksgiving Day. There will no doubt be a very fine turn-out.

MR. J. E. GOULD, 929 Chestnut street, will soon have for sale a second edition of Mr. Jules Berry's celebrated music album. These are decided improvements over the first, not only in the arrangement, the music being printed on both sides of the leaves instead of on every alternative page, but also in their containing a greater number of pieces (fifty more) of the newest and choicest music. They will be sold for the insignificant sum of two dollars and a half a copy, considering that they are worth twenty-five dollars each. The musical public ought certainly to be indebted to Mr. Berry, the intelligent and enterprising publisher of these extraordinary books, for he has achieved a thing which at first sight would seem impossible and absurd, that is, selling a book worth twenty-five dollars for two dollars and a half and making a profit on it. As the Christmas holidays are approaching, many will, no doubt, embrace this opportunity for purchasing a beautiful present for their friends in the shape of one of these albums, and as their whole number is limited to five thousand, we advise those among our readers who wish to obtain one, to secure their prize without delay. We will very soon publish the catalogue, which contains both vocal and instrumental music for the piano.

IS THERE ANY LIMIT to the amount of trade that may be done by a real string and enterprising clothing house? Many people, envious of their success, long since prophesied that Wanamaker & Brown had reached their limit, but any man who has posted himself as to their present trade, knows that the past was but "a drop in the bucket" in comparison with what is now doing at Oak Hall. In fact, to see this you have only to pass their House at any time. It looks like a fair or some popular place of amusement on benefit night.

PROF. JAMES C. BOOTH will open the popular and instructive course of scientific lectures before the Young Men's Christian Association this evening, at their hall, No. 1210 Chestnut street. The subject is "The Manufacture of Glass—ancient and modern."

THE COURTS. QUARTER SESSIONS.—Judge Polce.—This morning Mike Fitzgerald was in the dock. He is represented to be a New York politician, and the charge against him is that of illegal voting in Philadelphia in October last. He was brought on from New York on a requisition issued by Governor Geary.

Mr. Mann, who represents the prosecution, wished the case to go to trial this morning, but this was opposed by Mr. Brooke, as the representative of Fitzgerald's counsel, who was said to be sick, and unable to attend to the case. The Court directed the officer to go for the counsel, but upon his return with the statement that the attorneys were unable to attend, Mr. Brooke was engaged by the defendant, Mr. Brooke then applied for a continuance on the ground of the absence of important witnesses. These witnesses, whose names were given, reside in New York, and Fitzgerald alleged that they would come to Philadelphia by Monday; that these witnesses would prove that he did not vote at any poll.

Mr. Mann opposed any continuance, as no ground was laid, while public justice required the speedy trial. Citizens are present ready to give their testimony—witnesses whose lives are in danger because they are here. One citizen has been shot at his door-step, and is compelled to move from his house; another citizen has been struck down near his own dwelling, and all the witnesses are in danger of these as usual.

Mr. Brooke denied that the witnesses had been assaulted because of their connection with this particular prosecution. He urged that as he had but within a few minutes came into the case he was entitled to a reasonable time to prepare for trial and ascertain what the defence was to the Commonwealth's charge.

Judge Polce decided to allow the defendant to get his witnesses from New York, and therefore continued the case until Monday morning.

Andrew Allen, colored, pleaded guilty to a charge of stealing a pair of boots. He was in a shop store pretending to purchase when he helped himself to the boots.

Wm. Davis, colored, was convicted of a charge of stealing a barrel of flour. He entered the store of the prosecutor, pretending to be sent by a man to purchase a barrel of flour. Subsequently he came back with a push-cart, placed the flour in it, and was about to leave with it when he was arrested.

Johnson Kelly was convicted of a charge of assault and battery. John Macalovey and John Carr were charged on crosses bills with assault and battery. Both were acquitted, but Carr was ordered to pay the costs.

DISTRICT COURT.—Judge Stroud.—Koon & Grubb vs. John W. Colton and John O'Neill, trading as John W. Colton. A verdict for recovery of $1,550 for molasses furnished to defendants' distillery. The defence contended that O'Neill was not a partner, and was not liable, and the suit was therefore improperly brought. Verdict for plaintiffs for $507.87.

DISTRICT COURT, Nov. 2.—Judge Haro.—Blahop, Son & Co. vs. Blahop, Simons & Co. An action to recover $20,000 money loaned. Verdict for plaintiff for $28,456.

FROM NEW YORK. NEW YORK, Nov. 13.—Griffin, who was charged with complicity in the Royal insurance bond robbery in 1866, was yesterday committed to the Tombs in default of $10,000 bail. Dr. Crumman, of Henry street, has been arrested on the charge of having some of the stolen bonds in his possession.

A meeting of the Cigar Manufacturers' Association took place yesterday afternoon at the United States Hotel, when it was agreed to pay an advance in price of $1 per thousand till 1st of January next, and an additional $1 from that time till the 1st of May next, providing that the state of business permitted it.

Storekeeper argued that he ought to have a written order, but Fitzpatrick continued to load up the potatoes. He was subsequently ascertained that he had no authority from Mr. Simpson. He was committed in default of $800 bail.

Who can say that they are not frequently followed by these "direct diseases." Many are aware of the cause of their suffering, but none are aware of the cure.

THE RECORDS OF INSANE ASYLUMS, And the melancholy deaths by consumption, bear ample witness to the truth of the assertion. The constitution once affected with Organic Weakness, Requires the aid of medicine to strengthen and invigorate the system, which HELMBOLD'S EXTRACT BUCHU Invariably Does. Old Stocks of dear-bought goods are reduced to "ONE-HALF THEIR FORMER PRICES," and are still "TOO DEAR BY HALF." The "BEE-HIVE" does not require to REDUCE prices—their Stock, ALL NEW—BOUGHT AT THE BOTTOM OF THE MARKET—and SOLD AT FAIR PROFITS—outranks the supposititious bargains fulsomely promised by "GRAND SALES" and "IMPORTANT NOTICES."

The "BEE-HIVE" is now offering bona fide bargains in all their departments—no catch-penny trifles to mislead—but a pure and unequivocal moderation in prices—in other words, "FAIR VALUE FOR MONEY" will be found to pervade the whole stock.
