Notify, The Coroner's inquite in the construction of the construction of the optimization of the optimi

he was anot; there yas no should a have, and the see who were shooting. Chas. B. Creasy, residing 439 Enterprise street, testified—Was in my uncle's house; a party came from Sam Peak's; Dan Redding was at the head of them; he came in first and then ran out again; a load was fired from Sixth street; then Dan Red-ding came running over and as soon as he put of them; he canno in his taken then then have a a load was fired from Sixth street; then Dan Red-ding came running over and as soon as he put his foot on the curbstone he lifted up his hand and said, "Ah. you s- b-," and fired one load at Martin, who was at the bill-board; then he fired another load at Martin as he was going in the door, and then Martin fell, and cried "Oh;" a young man named The mpson picked him up, but could not carry him; he was afterwards re-moved to Sixth and Dickerson streets; Redding had a large-sized pistol; sav a man with a gun, standing on the railway track; he fired at Smith; another man had a sword; I went to Dickerson street, and heard Redding say that he would have killed a man if his pistol had gone off, as he had it up to his head. it up to his head. This closed the evidence. The verdict of the jury was: "That the said William Martin came to his death from a gunshet wound at the hands of Daniel Redding, on the night of October 13, 1868, at S. W. corner of Sixth and Tasker streets." Redding has not been arrested.

MURDEROUS ASSAULT UPON / POLICEMAN .-Policeman James G. Hill, of the Reserve Corps, had a warrant for the arrest of a man named Haggerty, and last night, about half past eleven o clock, was in the vicinity of Eleventh and Sano clock, was in the vicinity of Eleventin and Sant som streets for the purpose of executing it. While on Sansom street an individual offered to assist him and finally prevailed upon him to go as far as Eleventh street. When Hill reached the corner of Eleventh and Sansom streets a gang of men rushed out of a public house near by, and with terrible and abusive language, made a viowith terrible and ables to ingluge, induce a visiting lent attack on him, knocking him down, beating and kicking him about the head and body, and finally shooting him in the hip. The villains then ran off. Hill was dangerously wounded. He was conveyed to the Central Station, where his wounds were dressed, and an un-successful attempt was made to extract the ball. He was then removed to his residence, No. 403 Ac was then removed to his residence, i.e. to ac-Catharine street. The officer, in giving an ac-count of the affair, mentioned the names of the partices who were engaged in the assault, but no movement towards an investigation or an arrest of the scoundrels seems to have been made.

STABBING CASE .- Pat Flynn was arrested yes terday upon the charge of having stabbed Terrance McGuire at a house in Suffolk street, on rance McGuire at a house in Suffolk street, on Sunday evening. Flynn and McGuire had a fight. Afterwards McGuire went into the yard, and while at the hydrant engaged in washing himself, it is alleged Flynn went up behind him and plunged a shoemaker s knife into his back, causing a dangerous wound. McGuire was taken to the Hospital. Flynn was taken before Alderman Bonsall, and was committed to await the result of the injuries of McGuire. Edward Murphy, who knocked down a clitzen who cap-tured Flynn, was arrested for assault and battery and resening a prisoner. He was committed in and rescuing a prisoner. He was committed in default of $1,000 ball by Alderman Bonsall.

CLIFFORD S. PHILLIPS, Esq., U. S. Assessor for the Second District of this city, was accidentally shot while gunning on the Eastern Shore of Maryland on Saturday last. He remains at Berlin, Worcester county, where he has a sur-geon in attendance from this city, besides several members of his family. The charge entered his side, fracturing one of his ribs, and otherwise in-juring him seriously. The latest accounts re-ceived give a more favorable report of his condition than was first received.

ASPAULT FPON A POLICEMAN.-Last evening Sergeant Hause, of the Eightcenth District Police went to the house of John Call, at Salmon and

THE FAIR for the benefit of the Pennsylvania. Industrial Home for Blind Women, in this city, was epciled on Monday evening, 16th inst., at the Phila-delphia City Institute, portheast corner of Eighteenth and Chestnut streets, with prayer by Rev. Dr. Crowell nid an address by ex-Governor Pollock. The room is beautifully decorated with flags and evergreen. There was a large assemblage present, and the scene was enlivened with music by pupils of the Blind Asylum. The display of useful and fancy articles, tastefully arranged, is very large. The tables are all highly creditable; but we were epecially drawn to the second one on the right-hand side from the entrance, presided over by Miss Ade inc Sager, whose display of wax-flowers, wreaths and bouquets—her own handlwork, beauti-fully framed—could not be excelled.
