CRIME.

Ru-Klux Murder in Louisiana. Outlawry is not yet quite at an end in Louislana.
The Red River News, published at Natchitoches, contains the particulars of outrages, for which the guilty parties should be severely punished:
On Monday night two men went to the house of Richard Faulkner, in Ward No. 5, inquiring for stolen mules. Soon after a party of men surrounded his house. In the meantime Faulkner took up a plank and concealed himself under the floor; the party entered and searched the house and destroyed his papers, together with all the school books there. Faulkner is a school-master. Having discovered Faulkner, they took him out, blindtolded, flogged him severely and made him promise to vote the Democratic ticket, and resign his position as a member of the Police Jury. sign his position as a member of the Police Jury.

The party then went about midnight to the house of Alfred Hazon, awoke him and demanded his papers, which his wife gave to them. They threatened to burn the house if he did not come out. On his coming out they shot and killed him.

Faulkuer and Hazon were respectable colored men. Hazon was a favorite servant of Mr. Tarver. After his emancipation he became a quiet, well behaved, industrious and thrifty citizen. This year he had made some twenty-five bales of cotton, and was in treaty for the purchase of a

Such is a plain, unvarnished statement, derived from reliable sources, of an outrage such as never before disgraced this community—an outrage which no man possessed of right principles or the ordinary feelings of humanity, can pretend to justify, or even extenuate, and which ought to be traced and punished, if halt a century pass before its authors be found out, and found out they will be, for murder will out.

We caudiously abstain from any political restend by all as a deep would inflicted upon law and social order. Upon further investigation, if facts appear different from our statement, we shall state them as they may be developed.

Port Hood. Nov. 18—The money market is easy at 6 to 7 per cent on call.

The government bond market was more active, and 1852s were strong and advanced $to 5, per cent, closing at 110 to 110½. In 1857s there was a fair amount of transactions, and they closed firm at 110½ to 110½.

The gold market is in a mixed condition from the conflicting rumors as to the operations of the Eric clique. The opening price was 13½, declining to 185%, advancing to 185½ and closing at 185½ at 3 P. M.

The Government sold about $500,000 in gold to 5ay, and it is understood, will make sales sufficient to prevent a corner in cash gold.

The operations of the Gold Exchange Bank to day were as follows:
