ing, about four o'clock, Policeman Wilson, of the Fourth District, who was at Sixth and Arch streets, and Officer Sanders, who was at Sixth and Market streets, heard a loud explosion. Sanders went up Market street to Decatur, and observed a man emerge from an alley. He halled the man and asked him where the explosion was. The follow immediately ran out Market street, pursued by Sanders, but succeeded in escaping. Sanders went down Seventh street, and as he reached the Franklin Institute building, a man came out of the alley on the north side of the structure. This man was captured. By this time Officer Wilson had come up, and he took charge of the prisoner, whom he recognized as James Hope, alleged to be a safe-blower. An examination of the premises was then under It seems that the Franklin Institute building had been entered by forcing open a basement window on the north side. The locks of several doors on the finside were forced off, and finally the front of the building was reached. There the office of the Mine Hill and Schuylkill Haven Raliroad Company was enfered, and the large fire-proof safe was blown open. A very heavy charge of powder must have been used. The front door of the safe was blown completely off. The iron bars were hurled across the room and the knob of the safe-door was forced through the railing around the deaks. All the windows in the apartment were shattered. The fioor around the safe was wet, so that it would not take fire from the burning powder. A man who was passing along Seventh street at the time had his face severely cut by the glass which fell from the windows. A Jimmy, pick and dark lantern were found in the building by the police. Hope, the prisoner, gave his name as Watson. He will have a hearing at the Central Station this afternoon.

HOUSE ROBBERS CAUGHT IN THE ACT .- Yesterday afternoon, about four o'clock, the dwelling of Alfred Berger, No. 651 North Broad street, was of Alfred Berger, No. 651 North Broad street, was entered by forcing open the basement door in the rear. The house was completely ransacked Bureau drawers were opened, closets broken into, and beds were overturned. The thieves secured a gold watch, several pieces of silverware, two card cases and some other articles. They were disturbed in their operations by the entrance of the family, who had been absent but a short time to see the military parade. Mrs. Barger, upon entering the second-story front short time to see the military parade. Mrs. Berger, upon entering the second-story front room, saw a man there. She selzed the fellow, and the two struggled until they got down stairs into the entry. Then he broke away and escaped through the front door, which was onen. He was pursued and was captured after a short chase. A companion jumped from the window. He was also arrested. The prisoners gave their names as Chas. Welsh and Richard Booth. Welsh is also known as James H. Harrington. They had a hearing before Alderman Massey, and were committed in default of $2,000 bail. All of the stolen property was recovered, being found on the person of Welsh.

A LARGE FUNERAL.-The funeral of Mayer Arnold took place this morning, from his late residence on Fifth street, below Noble. The decased was well known and highly respected, and the funeral was largely attended. There were representatives from nearly all the Hebrew Associations in the city. The funeral ceremonies at the house were conducted in accordance with the rites of the Jewish Church. The officiating Rabbi was Rev. S. Morais. The cortege moved to Mount Cenni Cemetery, at Frankford, where the interment took place.

LARCENY OF CARPET .-- Last night William Conway and Thomas McGuire were arrested upon the charge of the larceny of four rolls of carpet from the manufactory of Knorr Webb, ou Germantown avenue, below Oxford street. A Revolution

DRY GOODS TRADE Has been caused by the inauguration of the

"Fair Value for Money" System adopted by "THE BEE HIVE."

Old Sto ks of dear-bought goods are reduced to "ONE HALE THEIR FYRMER PRICES," and are still "TOO LE AR BY MALE".

The "BEE HIVE" does not require to REDUCE Prices. Their Stock—ALL NEW. BUUGHT at the BOTTOM OF THE MARKET, and SOLD AT FARR PROFITS—out ranks the enposititious barsins fulsemely promised by "GRAND BALES" and "IMPORTANT NOTICES."

The "BEE HIVE" is new offering bons fide barksins in all their departments—no catch penny trifice, to mislead—but a pure and unequivocal noderation in prices. In other words, "FAIR. VALUE FOR MONEY" with be found to pervade all the stock.
