The Ante-Communion Service was conducted by the several Bishops present, after which an eloquent sermon was preached by the Right Rev. Bishop Clarkson, of Nebraska. His text was taken from St. Luke xix, 13 and Joshua xxiii, 24, "Occupy until I come * * * * from the great sea, westward." It was an earnest appeal for an increase of the force of missionary Bishops at the West, strongly advocating the necessityand policy of creating seven more Missionary Diocesse, in order that each of the territories might be under separate episcopal jurisdiction. Bishop Carkson dwelt with great force upon the growing needs of the West, and extended a cordial greeting to the new Bishop, who was about to enter upon the great field lying upon the Pacific coast. We regret that the lateness of the hour forbids our giving a full abstract of this earnest and most sensible discourse.

At the conclusion of the Sermen, the Bishop-lect, vested in his rochet, was presented to Bishop Lee, the Presiding Bishop, by Bishops Kerfoot and Clarkson, saying:

"Reverend Father in God, we present unto you this godly and well-learned man to be ordained and consecrated Bishop."
