She is hopelessly bound in the thrall of an ignorant, blind, bigoted Democracy. Her Legislature, and her State and county officers, are all controlled by that party, and popular opinion is strongly in favor of retention of the old modes of punishment. It may be very many years before the people will become sufficiently enlightened to embrace a fiberal faitb, and place liberal men in power. Delaware is wedded to her conservative idols.

The passage of the Civil Rights Bill compelled the Delaware Legislature to abrogate the laws which made unjust discrimination between the punishments of white and black men. THE ERIC MUDDLE IN NEW YORK. The small transactions at the Philadelphia Stock Board, as compared with those in New at prices that CANNOT be as York, have been made the subject of inconsiderate and silly lamentation in certain quarters. It is, however, greatly to the credit of WANAMAKER & BROWN. this city that there is nothing here like the stupendous business reported in New York.

The sales here are mainly bond fide business transactions, while it is safe to say that ninetenths of the sales of Government bonds stocks and gold, reported in New York daily. are simply gambling operations. In most cases neither gold, nor bonds, nor stocks really change hands. To explain all the tricky processes by which the gold and stock gamblers of New York humbug the public would be impossible; but it is a matter for boasting that no such practices prevail, or can prevail, to any extent in Philadelphia. More especially may this community boast that there has not been, and never can be, such gigantic and such incomprehensible EDWARD P. KELLY swindling as that practiced in New York in the name of the New York and Eric Railroad Company. No one is capable of giving any account of the various frauds in the Erie business. Even the writers for the New York press, which have had the subject under consideration constantly for years, are utterly unable to clear up anything in the "muddle." The Tribune, after some gener- ROCKHILL & WILSON alizations as to the cost and the business of the road, sums up in a conundrum, with a very

[From the Albany Evening Journal, Dec. 4.]

The Diocesan Primary Convention of the Episcopal Church, in seasion at 8t. Peter's, completed its labors yesterday. The name chosen for the new jurisdiction was the Diocese of Albany. After several ballotings, Rev. William Croswell Doane, of this city, was elected Bishop.

This result was anticipated by many. Dr. Doane, in his address to the clergy and laity, said he should have regarded it impossible. Nobody will dispute either the ability or zeal of the new Bishop. He belongs to a family which has already given an illustrious name to the Church. But Dr. Doane is conspicuously identified with views which have caused offence to a large body of the laity, exerting an unpleasant infinence even upon his own congregation at 8t. Peter's, where he has introduced elements of service which many believe to be unwarranted by the Ritual. It remains to appear how far these opinions will affect the administration of the Diocese of Albany, or the fortunes of the Episcopal Church within its limits. Dr. Doane is thoroughly earnest and sincere in the position he occupies. He has certainly achieved what, under the circumstances, may be considered a signal personal triumph.

Black Suffrage in Pennsylvania. Black Suffrage in Ponnsylvania.

An article in the Honesdale Republic gives so clear an account of the history and present bearing of this subject that we reproduce it in full:

In 1682 William Penn promulgated "the Frame of Government" of Pennsylvania, under authority of the charter granted him by Charles II. In this document the right of suffrage is given, without restriction, to "the freemen of said province."

In 1701 Penn granted what is known as the "Charter of Privileges," By this instrument the right of suffrage was broadly given to "the freemen of each respective county."

The first Constitution of Pennsylvania was adopted in 176. The Convention that framed this instrument was presided over by Benjamin Franklin. It gave the right of junfrage to "every freeman of the

Peirce, embodying his views:

JUDGE PEIRCE'S DECISION.

My views are in addition to those so well expressed by you. The act of 1854 has inherent evidence that absolute verity is not required to be sworm respecting, the facts est torth in the petition. The act provides that the Court shall proceed upon the merits, and shall have power, if they believe such complaint to have been made without sufficient cause, to decree that the complainants, or any one or more of them, shall pay all legal costs incurred by such investigation.

The words "without sufficient cause," imply not absolute verity, when the complainants in filing their petition, and the parties who swear to it in making oath to it.
