CITY BULLETIN.

BOLD ATTEMPT AT BANK ROBBERY--TWO ocally-drresed young men entered the Sixth National Bank, at Second and Pine streets, yesterday afternoon Bank, at Second and Fino screens, yestermay atternoons and purchased some revenue stamps. One of the men them made a sudden dash and seized a roll of bank notes; and the two rushed into the street. The thieves were pursued and captured. They gave their names as J. F. Morton and John Scott. When Morton was scarched $160 were found concealed under his arm, inside of his coat. The prisoners were locked up for a hearing before Alderman Beitler.

ROBBING HIS EMPLOYERS.—William Jurgens was arrested yesterday by Sergeant Murray, and was was arrested yesternay by Sergeant nutray, and was taken before Alderman Toland upon the charge of the larceny of 300 lbs. of white lead, from the manufactory of Jacoby & Muller, at Third and Willow streets. Jurgens was employed in the establishment, and, it is all leged, has been in the habit of leaving a rear window unfastened, so that he might enter the place and carry off the lead. He was committed for trial.

House Robbery .- The dwelling of Mr. Audrow C. Craig, No. 1527 Walnut street, was entered last evening, between seven and nine o'clock. The bureau drawers in the upper part of the house were completely ransacked. The thieves carried off a fine India shawl, a diamond breastpin, and other jewelry, a silver ladle, and $202 in money.

AT Ameeting of the Philadelphia Exchange Company, yesterday afternoon, the following were elected Managers for the ensuing year: Edward S. Handy, Thomas S. Ellis, M. B. Mahony, Coffin Col-ket, Henry D. Sherrerd, Robert W. Ryerss, Charles S. Lewis, William Lippincott, William W. Colket. Some of our morning cotemporaries have made an error by publishing the names of the defeated candidates as be-ing elected. The above is a correct list.

Mysterious |Robbery .- On Sunday evening $1,800 in greenbacks were stolen from the house of Thomas Smiley, No. 1612 South street. The money was in a box, in a closet in the upper part of the premises. It is not known how the house was entered. There were no marks of violence on the doors or windows. The robbery was committed in a few minutes that Mr. Smiley was away from home.

A GOOD APPOINTMENT .- Mr. J. Bernard Apple has been appointed gauger in the First Internal Revzealous and active Republican, and his appointment was obtained despite the bitter opposition of his political opponents. He will make a honest and faithful officer. enue District, under Collector Abel. Mr. Apple is a

THE CATHOLIC CHURCHES of this city were all open for service this morning, the same as on Sunday, the day having lately been set apart by the Church for the celebration of the Feast of the Immaculate Con-ception. The Cathedral and other churches were all well attended, at the early low masses, as well as at High Mass, at half-past ten o'clock.

REUNION OF ARMY OFFICERS. - Officers of Pennsylvania, who intend participating in the reunion of the officers of the Armies of the Cumberland, Tenesses and Ohio, are requested to forward their names, with rark and command, to William McMichael,

More Arrests.-Vagrant Detective Reeder has arrested two more juveniles upon the charge of having been connected with the gaug of depredators who were cent to prison by Alderman Beitler on Saturday last for committing numerous robberies.

"FALLEN PRIDE; or, the Mountain Girl's Love." published this day, is one of the best, if not the bes and most absorbing story ever written by Mrs. Southworth, the Queen of American noveltsts. It abounds in thrilling incidents, increases in interest at every step, and culminates in a powerful and startling man-ner. We call the attention of our readers to it, knowner. We call the attention of our readers to it. knowing that if they once enter upon its perusal, they will endorse every word we have said in its praise. It is published by T. B. Peterson & Brothers, Philadelphia, in a large duodecimo volume, in uniform style withfall her previous works, and sold at the low price of $1.75 in cloth, or $1.50 in paper cover, and will be sent free of postage to any one, dig receipt of the price by the Publishers.

THE NEW FIRM .- At last the Turner Brothers are together. These boys have been in the book busmess since they could talk. Being sons of the ness since they could talk. Deing sons of the late Frederick Turner, of the Turner and Fisher notoriety, and since that time employed with other first class publishers, have at last started for themselves at the old established cheap book and picture store of G. W. Pitcher, 805 Chestnut street.

All the new books are for sale by them at the lowest prices. Also Chromos, both American and foreigm.

GRAND FAIR in aid of the Home tor the Aged and Infirm of the Methodist Episcopal Church. This fine affair closes on Saturday evening next. It This fine affair closes on Saturday evening next. 14 has been a great success, and is one of the most attractive fairs ever projected in Philadelphia. Thousands of useful and ornamental articles are on sale at very reasonable prices in the main hall, while the Picture Gallery contains nearly $40,000 worth of splendid works of art. The Museum of Dr. Dickinson's Curlosities, and the Comical Art Gallery are also splendid features. The whole exhibition is well worth seeing.

THE "OLD FRANKLIN ALMANAC" for 1869 gives complete list of the Chief Officers of the United States Government, from 1774 to 1868; the votes of all the candidates for the Presidency and Vice Presidency, from Washington and Adams to Grant and Colfax. A. Winch, Publisher, 565 Chestnut street.
