OITY BULLETIN.

THE DRATH OF ELLIOTT C. PORTER.—The death of Mr. Porter, which was announced this morning in the papers as having been caused by his

of Mr. Porter, which was substantially on in the papers as having been caused by his own hands, was purely accidental. It appears that the deceased had complained of feeling unwell and had left the store for a few moments, and on his beturn, becoming dizzy, fell to the floor. At this time the unfortunate young man had in his pocket a pistol, which went off, the contents entering his left breast, causing immediate death. Mr. Porter was a young man of much promise, and highly respected by a large eircler of friends. His mother is living in Lower Merion, Pa., while his father, who is possessed of considerable wealth, is now in Europe. The deceased left his boarding house, 1028 Ogden street, yesterday afternoon, in good spirits, and so continued until taken sick about half-past four o'clock in the afternoon. The affair created much excitement in the neighborhood of his store, 924 Spring Garden street, and a large crowd lingered around the place until late in the evening, in the hope of learning the particulars of the sad affair.

Large Temperance Demonstraction.— The

LARGE TEMPERANCE DEMONSTRATION. - The friends of temperance assembled in large numbers last evening, in Rev. Dr. Talmage's Church, Seventh street, above Brown, to participate in the meeting held under the anspices of the Young People's Association of the Church. The President, Dr. Reynolds, was in the chair, and the proceedings were opened with prayer by Mr.
McCarty. After singing an appropriate hymn,
Mr. Hiram Ward was introduced to the audience and made a forcible address. He was followed by Thomas M. Coleman, who showed how far intemperance had gained head way, and how little church members had exerted themselves to retard its progress. At the conclusion of this address, key. Dr. Shepherd was introduced, and made some appropriate remarks. The occasion was one of much interest, all present listening to the remarks with profound attention. The cause of temperance will be advanced by similar meetings being held in other churches.

General Grant at the Methodist Fair. bers last evening, in Rev. Dr. Talmage's Church, GENERAL GRANT AT THE METHODIST FAIR .-The members of Post No. 161, organized in this city three months ago by Col. G. P. McLean as city three months ago by Col. G. P. McLean as mustering officer, have placed a splendid painting of General Grant, executed by Mr. Hartley, in the Methodist Fair now being held at Horticultural Hall in aid of aged and infirm members of the Methodist Episcopal Church. They propose to award at to the organization selling the most tickets. The proceeds will be for the replealshing of the Widows' and Orphans' Fund of the Union soldiers who fell in battle, and to aid in building the Home in question.

MURDEROUS THREATS .- Ralph Stone was arrested last evening at Frankford road and Somerset street on the charge of making an attack upon his wife with intent to kill. It appears that he had been separated from her for some time and that he had got married to another woman. He informed his lawful wife of the fact, and requested her to go with him and testify that he was her lawful husband. This she refused to do, hence the attack. He was held in $1,000 to OVERCOAT THIEF .- William Gray went into the Club House, Thirteenth and Walnut streets, last evening, and stole a fine overcoat belonging to a gentleman connected with the Club. He reto a genteman connected with the Chin. He re-turned soon after and attempted to take off another coat, when he was detected. After a hearing before Alderman Patchell, he was held to answer for the offence.

LARCENY OF HARNESS.—Jerome Bonaparte, a well-dressed young man, was arrested last evening by Officer Kelley, on Market street, near Forty-third, on the charge of stealing a lot of harness which he had with him, secreted in a large bag. The harness is supposed to have been taken from the stable of a physician. He was committed by Alderman Mauli.

STRALING FLANNEL.—William Bryant alias Gil. lin was arrested, last evening at Second and Buttonwood streets, on the charge of stealing a roll of flannel from the store of Joseph Campbell: The accused had in his pocket a quantity of pepper rolled up in paper. He was taken before Ald. Toland and committed in default of bail to House Entered.—The house No. 1006 Jefferson street, occupied by John Evenwright, was entered last evening from the second story back window and robbed of $8 in silver coin, which had been locked in a closet. The thief got into the house from a back shed. He made his escape with the booty.

STOCKING THIEF.—George Vanhorn was taken into custody last evening on the charge of steal ing a lot of stockings and a handkerchief from a store in Spring Garden street. He was taken be-fore Alderman Massey, and held to answer for LARCENY OF MONEY AND JEWELRY.-James Loan was arrested last evening on the charge of stealing $22, two breastpins, a chain, and a lot of buttons. He had a hearing before Alderman Mas-sey, who committed him in default of bail to an-

THE OLD FRANKLIN ALMANAC FOR 1869, published by A. Winch, No. 505 Chestnut street, contains the names, ages and titles of the family of the Ex-King of France; together with other useful informa-tion desirable during the course of the coming year.

THE COURSE OF LECTURES arranged by the Teachers' Institute having been successful last winter with the assistance of such lecturers as Profs. Agassiz. Rogers,&c., we naturally look for a renewal of popular favor for the present season. To-morrow evening, at Musical Fund Hall. Rev. B. G. Northrop, Secretary of the Connecticut State Board of Education, will deliver a public lecture, under the auspices of the Institute, on the "Culture of the Sensibilities!" We believe this lecture will prove interesting to the general public, as it is not of a professional character, and has afforded entertainment wherever delivered.

Future lecturers of the course will be Rey. T. K. Beecher and Prof. Samuel K. Murdoch. We also learn with interest that the celebrated lecturer on comparative anatomy, Dr. Lemerciec, of Paris, whose explanations of the famous Auzoux clastic models and mannihims have excited such interest in New York, will bring his complete set of preparations hither in January, and explain them in two lectures under the authority of the Institute.

The exercises of the Teachers' Institute, to-morrow afternoon at 2 o'clock, are public. Rogers,&c., we naturally look for a renewal of popular

THE FAIR in aid of the aged and infirm of the

M. E. Church closes at Herticultural Hall on Saturday evening next. Thousands of choice and desirable day evening next. Individuals of choice and desirable articles are en exhibition, besides a number of splendid paintings by eminent masters, a large museum of curiosities, &c. The goods on sale comprise almost every conceivable article, both useful and ornamental, and the prices at which they are disposed of offer the best opportunities possible of securing Holiday Barrains.

CITY DIRECTORY.—Gopsill's City Directory for 1860 will be issued within a short time. It will be complete in every respect, but it will not be quite so bulky as the volume for this year. Mr. Isaac Costs, the compiler, requests all persons whose names have not been taken by the canvassers, as well as those who have changed their residences or places of business recently, to notify him of the fact at No. 201 South Fifth street, corner of Walmut.

We call attention to the advertisement of a special partner wanted in the importing and jobbing Drug business, as the respectability of the advertiser would warrant it a safe and profitable investment.
