the dock this morning was empty, and the court proceeded to the trial of defendants admitted to bails.

In the case of the Commonwealth vs. the Tack brothers, charged with compliency and defrauding Charles O'Commer of a large sum of money, it was brought to the notice of the Court that to-day was fixed by Judge Brewster for the trial of the same. Judge Pelroe stafed that as this was a special session of the court for the trial of prison cares and the ordinary husiness of the court, he did not intend to hold jury trials after Thursday next until January, 1899; and as the trial of this case would accept several days, and probably necessitate the locking of the jury up over Christmas, he would suggest that the 3d Monday of January next be fixed, subject to the concurrence of Judge Brewster, and, the matter was so arranged.

'The rest of the day was occupied with the trial of petty largeny and assault and battery cases.

RIOTING, HIGHWAY ROBBERY, &C.—This morning, between twelve and one o'clock, six men went in the Na ional Hotel, on Market street, west of Seventeenth. After getting a druk they created a disturbance, and threw tumblers at Mr. Albright, the proprietor of the house. Mr. Albright took out a pistol, when the ruffians went into the street and hurled stones through the windows. Mr. Albright then fired several shots, and the rioters proceeded out Market s'reet. When above Eightenth street Mr. Mark litchardson, who had heard the shooting, came out of his house to accertain its cause. Two of the men went mp to him and after one had selzed his watch, both ran. The whole party were afterwards arrested, and were taken heigre Alderman Jones. They gave their names as John Lynch, Lawrence Nugent, Pat Shanley, Francis Maguire, Michael Freeland Thomas Teenan. Mr. Riohardson identified Nugent as the one who had taken his watch, and Shanley as his comeanion. They were committed in default of $2000 ball on the charge of highway toobery. The others ware held in $1.200 ball for ifot, and assault and ba tery. The stolen watch was recovered, having been dropped by the thief while running.
