CITY BULLETIN.

THE CHESTNUT STREET SKATING RINK.—This new and extensive institution, located at Twenty-third and Chestnut streets, will be thrown open to the public on or about the 28th inst. The building is 220 by 120 feet, and the skating surface will be 190 by 90 feet. A full description of the Rink was published in the BULLETIN of Saturday. Mr. Wm. E. Sinn has been appointed manager, and everything will be conducted in a manner to insure the greatest amount of comfort, convenience and amusement to visitors. An advertisement announcing the price of tickets, &c., will be found in to-day's paper.

A DANGEROUS LOCALITY.—Delaware avenue is exceedingly dangerous at night, owing to the scarcity of light. People often narrowly escape walking over-board. Between 9 o'clock on Saturday night and 3 o'clock on Sunday morning, six men were prevented from walking overboard. There were three at Walnut street, one at Arch street, one at Race street, and one at Shippen street. Three men were walking straight for the water and were not aware of their danger until halted by members of the Harbor Police. Something should be done to have the river front properly lighted up, as it is absolutely necessary for the protection of the lives and property of our citizens.

GOT INTO TROUBLE.—John E. Clark, of Chester county, was before Alderman Patchel, on Saturday evening, upon the charge of horse-stealing. Rev. J. Wheaton Smith stopped to visit a friend residing on South Broad street, on Saturday afternoon. He left his horse and carriage in front of the door. When he was about to leave, his team could not be found. He notified the police authorities, and soon afterwards Clark and the horse and carriage were captured at Fifteenth and Lombard streets, by Constable Donnelly. Clark said that he was drunk, and that he did not mean to steal the horse. The Alderman committed him for trial.

A BOLD THEFT.—A man in a wagon drove up to the store of Philip Donohue, on Market street, below Thirty-sixth, on Saturday afternoon, put a barrel of flour into his wagon and drove off. He was pursued, and was captured on Market street, near Thirty-second street. He also had in his wagon some apples, a piece of pork, and a lot of butter. The prisoner gave his name as Abram Petroski. He was taken before Alderman Maull, and was committed for a further hearing.

THE POULTRY SHOW.—The national exhibition of poultry at Horticultural Hall was opened this morning. Contributions came in with a perfect rush, and the Committee were kept busy in arranging matters. There are many very fine specimens of poultry. The exhibition will get fully under way this afternoon, and it promises to be one of the most interesting of its kind ever given.

JUVENILE THIEVES.—Three boys named Henry Plamer, Henry Robinson and Samuel Boufer were arrested on Saturday upon the charge of having stolen pocket books valued at $30 from a case in a store at Fifth and Shippen streets. Some of the pocket books were sold for ten cents each. The accused were committed by Ald. Tittermary.

STABLES ROBBED.—The stable of Powers & Weightman, on Ridge avenue near James street, in the Twenty-eighth Ward, was entered a night or two since and was robbed of three horse-blankets.

Last night the carriage house of Mr. W. H. Merrick, on School Lane, near the Norristown Railroad, was broken into by thieves, who carried off three blankets, a fox robe and a leopard robe. The stolen property is valued at $100.

A DISAGREEABLE DAY.—A disagreeable drizzling rain fell yesterday morning, and the atmosphere being chilly, the pavements were covered with a thin coat of ice. Pedestrianism was exceedingly difficult and very few persons were to be seen on the streets. The attendance at the churches was rather slim.

CORNER LOUNGING.—During yesterday, about twenty young men were arrested in different sections of the city, for corner lounging. They were all held to bail to keep the peace.

SLIGHT FIRE.—The match manufactory of Fred. Zaiss & Co., at Twenty-first and Jefferson streets was slightly damaged by fire at an early hour this morning.

PHOTOGRAPHIC ALBUMS.—Frank Moore, No. 129 South Eighth street, and No. 1324 Chesnut street, has on hand the most complete and elegant assortment of Photographic Albums to be found in this city or elsewhere. Mr. M. has taken great pains to select his stock, and Albums varying in price from 25 cents to $50, according to size, style and finish, can be obtained from him. For a Christmas present, there is nothing that would be valued so much as a nice Album.

THE GRAND SPECIAL SALE OF JAMES DIXON & SONS' best Sheffield plated ware, artistic bronzes, &c., will take place at Scott's Art Gallery, 1020 Chestnut street to-morrow morning, at 10½ o'clock, to be continued in the evening at 7½ o'clock. Coming from a well known and responsible Chestnut street house, we advise all who wish to make purchases for the holidays to attend the sale.

FINE HOLIDAY PRESENTS.—Turner Brothers & Co., late Fitcher's, 608 Chestnut street, have an immense stock of the choicest kinds of goods on hand, especially adapted to the season to be so universally celebrated. Chromos, books, pictures, stereoscopes, articles of vertu in all varieties, here greet the eye, from which many beautiful and valuable presents can be selected. It is a vast emporium of choice and splendid articles. Buy before the rush.

FRANKLIN INSTITUTE.—Professor Rogers's lecture, announced for Tuesday evening, has been postponed on account of sickness, until further notice.

SALE OF CLOTHING
Despatch from Wanamaker & Brown.
SALE OF CLOTHING

The appraisement of our stock, under order of Executors, included all our piece goods, which we are cutting and making up as rapidly as possible, and though we are always cheaper than other houses, the people can readily see how much cheaper we can sell everything under present circumstances, and how impossible it is for any one to reach our low prices now, and our goods are well-known in style and warranted superior in every respect. As to our prices now, we guarantee them ten per cent. lower than the lowest elsewhere, or cash handed back if shown to be otherwise. To accommodate parties who are not quite prepared to buy, these bargains can be secured by making the selection now, and with a small payment on account, will be put aside until required, or, if desired, full payment can be made in installments.
