THE DAILY EVENING BULLETIN---PHILADELPHIA, THURSDAY, DECEMBER 24, 1868.

Tanler, the preacher, walked; one autumn Without the walls of Strasburg, by the Rhin Pondering the solemn Miracle of Life; As one who, wandering in a starless night, Feels, momently, the jar of unseen waves, and hears the thunder of an unknown sea, king slong an unimagined shore. And as he walked he prayed. Even the same Old prayer with which, for half a score of years. Morning and noon, and evening, lip and heart Had groancd; "Have pity noonime, Lord! Thou seest, while teaching others, I am blind. Bend me a man who can direct my steps!"

TAULER.

BY JOHN G. WHITTIER.

Then, as he mused, he heard along his path A sound as of an old man's staff among. The dry, dead linden-leaves: and, looking up, He saw a stranger, weak, and poor, and old. "Peace be unto thee, father!" Tauler said, "God give thise a good day!" The old man raised Blowly his calm blue eyes. "I thank thee, son; But all my days are good, and none are ill!" Wondering thereat, the preacher spake again, "God give thee happy life." The old man smiled, I never am unhappy.

Tauler laid His hand upon the stranger's coarse gray sleeve "Tell me, O father, what thy strange word

"Tell me. O father, what thy strange words mean, Barely, man's days are evil, and his life. Sad as the grave it leads to." "Nay, my son, Our times are in God's hands, and all our days Are as our needs; for shadow as for sun, For cold as heat, for want as wealth, allke Our thanks are due, since that is best which is; And that which is not, sharing not his life, Is evil only as devoid of godd;" And for the happineas of which I spake, I find if in submission to his will, And cam trust in the holy Trinity Of Knowledge, Goodness, and Almighty Power." Bilentiy wondering, for a little space, Stood the great preacher, then he spake as one Who, suddenly grappling with a haunting thought Which long has followed, whispering through the dark, Strange terrois, drags it, shrieking, into light; "What if God's will consign thes hence to Heil!"

"Then," said the' stranger, cheerily, "be it so, What Hell may be I know not; this I know— I cannot lose the presence of the Lord; One arm, Humility, takes hold upon His dear Humanity; the other, Love, Clasps his Divinity. So where Fgo He goes; and better fire-walled Hell with Him Than golden-gated Faradise without."

Tears spang into Tauler's eyes. A sudden ike the first ray which fell on chaos, clove Apart the shadow wherein he had walked Darkly at noon. And, as the strange old man Went his slow way, until his silver hair Set like the white moon where the hills of vine Blope to the Rhine, he bowed his head and said : "My prayer is answered. God hath send the man Long sought, to teach me, by his simple trust, Wisdom the weary schoolman never knew."

Bo, entering with a changed and cheerful step The city gates, he saw, far down the street, A mighty shadow break the light of noon, Which tracing backward till its airy lines Hardened to stony plinths, he raised his eyes O'er broad facade and lofty pediment, O'er architrave and frieze and sainted piche, O'er architrave and ineze and santied inclue, Up the stone lace-work, chiselled by the wise Erwin of Steinbach, dizzily np to where In the noon-brightness the great Minister's tower, Jewelled with subleams on its mural crown. Rose like a visible prayer. "Behold!" he said, "The stranger's faith made plain before mine. eyes. As yonder tower outstretches to the earth

As yonder tower outstretcnes to the earm The dark triangle of its shade alone, When the clear day is shining on its top. So, darkness in the pathway of Man's life Is but the shadow of God's providence, By the great Sun of Wisdom cast thereon; And what is dark below is light in Heaven." EUROPEAN AFFAIRS.

_____ The Resumption of Specie Payments The following letter has been written by Gen-eral Spinner. Treasurer of the United States, to Hon. PARIS, Dec. 23.—The Moniteur of to-day, in a leading editorial, says the active movements of the great Powers give a hope that diplomacy, by effort indefinitely, is equally dangerous, for unless

If it is right to give the cause six months attend the Government shall have rearned, at, the end of, which, they shall resume, then it would seem equally, right that individual debtors to the banks should have apother aix, months after, resumption, by the banks before they shall be required to make payment in coln or its equiva-lent.

f reaumption by the banks before they shall be required to make payment in coln or its equivalent. The three estates—the people, the banks, and the government—must stand together. The banks will fall, and fall together. The banks will not be able, to stand, without the banks will not be able, to stand, without the banks will be endorser of the notes of the banks, would prohably fall if, the banks should fall; and the people, infortunately for, themselves, could but follow in the wake of the other two.
A simultaneous resumption would not be unable, to the amount of three hundred million. dollars, would prohably fall if, the banks should fall; and the people, infortunately for, themselves, could but follow in the wake of the other two.
A simultaneous resumption would not be unable, for a three-sided pyramid, each alde leaning against and at the same time supporting, the other two idds.
If the dividends are retained but for one and a half years, as proposed by the bill, they would a amount to but nine per cent. To commone the retention a year earlier would give them fifteen for earlier would form a part of the banks they will be apt if they have any reason, to reason thus: "Gold is now at a premium of thrty-five per cent. As the day of resumption draws, near and nearer the premium will constantly become less and less. Therefore, it will be well for us to resumption draws, near and nearer the premium will constantly become less and less. Therefore, it will be well for us to resumption draws, near and nearer the premium will constantly become less and less. Therefore, it will be well for us to resumption draws, near and nearer the premium will constantly become less and less. According to the opiniou of the members of the Paris Academy of M. dicine, this article is superior to all the ferruginous preparations known. It agrees best with the stemach, never causes costiveness, it contains the ele-ments of the blood and the ossecous frame, and succeeds where other preparations fail, such as Vallet's pile, iron reduced by bydrogen, lactate of iron. and ferruginous maneral water. One tablesponful of the solution or syrup contains three grains of sail of iron. They are both coloriess.
