BAD ACCIDENT On Thursday, Mr. John Mc-Donald and family moved into a house, No. 1007 South Truth street. The building is in an unfinished conditions Trith street. The building is in an unfinished conditions and but one bed from was full hed sufficiently to be used. In this the whole family went to sleep. A slove was puting. Mr. McDonald and his wife, and Mary, his daughter, aged 5 years, and Sarah Carr, a servant gri, retired at a late hour on Thurrday night. The windows and doors were all closed. Yesterday morning Mr. McDonald awoke. He could scarcely oreathe and the apartment was filled with coal gas. He proceeded to arouse the other members of the family, but found them meansible. Becammoned some of the neighbors, and then iell, being exhausted from the effects of the gas. Physicians were sent for and were soon in attendance. Little heary dieg., however, before any assistance could be afforded her. The others were at once put under treatment, and this morning were all doing well, with every prospect of recovery. On the first floor of the house there is a gas oven, the flue from which passes alongside of the sleeping apartment. Into this fine the pipe from the stove was put. It is sapposed that the flue was defective, and that the gas got into the room through the ctove.

acuployed at the stable of Michael Lawn, at Twenty-third and Locustatreets, resolved to have a spree. He got pretty full of whisky, and then hitched a horse beinging to Mr. Hall, to a wagon owned by Mr. Dougherty, and started out to have a ride. At Twenty-second, and Spruce streets the wagon was run against the railing at the house of Mr. Guoy. Both the carriage and railing as were hadly damaged. Brady was arrosted by Policeman Bothwell, and was committed by Alderman Patchell.

SLIGHT FIRES.—Yesterday morning about ten olight fires.—Itsierasy morning about fen-o'clock the chimney at the recidence of Dr Elwyn, No. 1423 Walnut street, took, fire. The flames were extin-suished before any serious damage was done. Policemen Shaffer, of the Fifth District, had his cost and cap badly burned.

This morning about seven o'clock the dwelling of Wil-liam Black, No. 1429 Hope street, was elightly damaged by fire. The flames originated from the explosion of a lamp.

Quite a Christmas Story .- Any one happening into the fifth story of Oak Hall last Monday morning, at about eight o'clock, would have looked upon a strange scene. There, at a long table, extending scross the room, were five doctors, with all the para phernalia of their profession, and, attending them, as many clerks with pen in hand busily at work on a pile of papers spread out before them. About this group were gathered a host of men, the employes of the establishment, some hundred or more in number, with Mr. Wanamaker himself in their midst. They were of all ages and sixes, from little Milton, Mr. Wanamaker's messenger, up to grav-haired old men already past three score. It was evident enough that all were interested in what was transacting, and their smiling faces and frequent laughter showed that ,they were not more interested than pleased.

The impression most apt to be given at first sight was that we were back again in war times, and that all these were volunteers eager to enter the service, and now being examined as to their physical fitness by the Board of Medical Examiners. And the first inti-mation of the real character of the business came from seeing Mr. C. B. McLean, the manager for "The American Life Insurance Company," busy among the men, evidently superintending "a job," while Mr. John S. Wilson, the Company's enterprising Secretary and Treasurer, smiled upon the scene with evident satis-

With this clue, the explanation of the scene was easy enough. Christmas is at hand, and it is the habit of Wanamaker & Brown to make Christmas presents to their employes. Casting about for something that would be of real value and satisfaction to the men, Mr. Wanamaker, with his usual practical appreciation of their wants, had hit upon a policy of Life Insurance in "The American" of this city, as the very best gift that he could place in their tands.

The idea was a most excellent one, and was acted upon immediately. A single conference with Mr. McLean, on Saturday last, sufficed for the full maturing of the arrangement of the plan, and on Monday morning, as we have seen, "The American" took full possession of the immense clothing house at Sixth and Market streets, and in the space of six hours had made out One Hundred and Thirty-three applications, for amounts ranging from one thousand to fifteen thousand dollars each, and amounting in all to nearly Two Hundred Thousand Dollars.

On these applications policies were immediately made out, the premiums paid by the firm, and on Christmas day each salesman, cutter and tailor in the employ of our "Largest Clothing House" will have on his life an insurance of at least one thousand dollars; a sure provision against his family being left, in any event, entirely destitute.

It took a generous heart to conceive the gigantic benefaction, and a will accustomed to prompt and resolute action to execute it; for any one at all acquainted with the rates of Life Insurance knows that it is no trifle to assume at one jamp the premiums of nearly

These policies are all non-forfeitable after two or three payments, and so very soon assume a rea money value; but, so far as that is concerned. Mr. Tue Ameri can" to assume himself the renewal of all these policies for so long as the men may continue in his cm

It was a grand day's work for "The American," pleasing surprise and welcome present to the men, and a noble deed on the part of Mr. Wanamaker, worthy the imitation of other of our leading and most enter prising business houses
