WHAT RESULTED FROM PLAYING DETROTIVE. ward Randolph, a resident of Camden, N. J., came to the city on Saturday and got into the neighborhood of Eighth and Catharine streets. There he met three men who scraped up an acquaintance with him. The party went into a tavern and all had a drink, Randolph paying the bill. They then started out and walked as far as Minth and Pine streets. There one of the men, named Edward McMenamin, told Randolph that he had a warrant for his arrest on the charge of having robbed his employer, in New Jersey, and was about to search him. Randolph would not submit to the search, but expressed his willingness to be taken to the sta me to the city on Saturday and got into the expressed his willingness to be taken to the station-house. McMensmin then said that he was a detective officer, but if Randolph paid him five dollars he would let him eff. To this proposition dollars he would let him en. To this proposition Randolph refused to agree, and then sharp words ensued. From words the parties came to blows. Randolph pummeled. McMonamin pretty se-verely, and then both were arrested by a Fifth District policeman. They were taken before Alrman Morrow, and were held to bail for breach

WOOLEY MILL BURNED .- On Saturday evening, about half-past seven o'clock, a fire broke out in the picker-room of the extonsive cotton and woolen mill of Lees & Mellor, located at Fifty-first street and Westminster avenue, near Heston-ville, in the 24th Ward. The building was 200 feet long and fifty feet in width. It was part brick and part frame, and formed a portion of what is known as the Jefferson Mills. The flames spread rapidly through the frame portion of the mill, in which they originated, and then got into the stone portion. All the fire companies in West. Philadelphia were upon the ground, and several steam engines from this side of the river were taken to the scene. The firemen worked ardnously, and a portion of the stock on hand was saved. The fire, however, burned until nearly eleven celock, and gutted the entire establishment. Various other buildings were located in close proximity to the burning structure, but they were saved by the firemen. The loss of Messrs. Lees & Mellor, upon stock and machinery, is estimated at $16,000, which is fully covered by insurance. The building belonged to J. B. Hughes, and was valued at about $5,000. The origin of the fire is not known. in the picker-room of the extensive cotton and FREAKS OF AN INSANE MAN-A POLICE STA-TION ON FIRE.-A young man was arrested yesterday in St. Philip de Neri Church, on Queen street, above Second, while acting in a strange manner. He was taken to the Second District Police Station, and was placed in a cell. Some time afterwards the policeman on duty discovered smoke curling up the stairway. Upon making an investigation, it was discovered that the smoke came from the cell in which the young man was confined. The cell was opened and the prisoner was found in a nude state, He had taken off all of his clothing and set it on fire. When questioned, he stated that while in the church he found that there was "a screw loose in the charity hox," and he was "going for it". He further rebox," and he was "going for it." He further remarked that he had been arrested for nothing, and he was determined to burn his way out of the station-house. It was evident that his mind was affected, and he was passed over to the custody of his relatives.

MURDEROUS ASSAULT.-Edward McMahon, residing on Ellsworth street, above Eleventh, is now lying in a critical condition from the effects wound in the neck received on Christmas. While out with some friends, he was met by a number of young men, one of whom recog-nized blm and shook hands with him Another of the party, then, it is alleged, struck him in the neck with a sharp instrument, and ran away, fol-lowed by his companions. McMahon went home, and the next moving he did not seen the and the next morning he did not appear at the breakfast table. His mother went to his room and found the bed saturated with blood and her son in a very weak and exhausted condition. A physician was summoned and the wound was attended to. The assailant and the reason for the attack are both unknown.

CHARGED WITH HOUSE ROBBERIES .- George Williams was arrested on Saturday by Detectives Levy and Tryon, upon the charge of having robbed the dwellings of Mr. Horstmann, No. 1600 Walnut street, and Mr. Seth.B. Stitt, No. 212 West Logan Square. He had been suspected, and was captured on the street while in company with his wife. He had a basket hanging on his arm. In this basket articles which had been stolen at each house were found. All the property stolen from Mr. Horstmann was recovered, and with the complete of the manner. and, with the exception of a few pieces of silver, all of Mr. Stitt's property has been found. Williams will have a hearing at the Central Station.

A Snow Storm .- A snow storm prevailed vesterday from 9 o'clock A. M. until 5 o'clock P. M. The flakes were light and dry, and did not come down very lively. Only a sufficient quantity fell to make the sidewalks slippery during last evening and early this moraing. To-day the sun sbines, the atmosphere is moderate, and nearly all evidence of yesterday's storm has dis-

RECKLESS CONDUCT .- Henry Muney and John Holden were arrested yesterday afternoon, at Ninth and Chestnut streets, by Reserve Officer Kendig, upon the charge of reckless driving. They were in a carriage and drove into another vehicle, the wheel of which was broken in the collision. The prisoners were held in $400 bail by Ald. Beitler.

RECAPTURED. Theodore Sill and James Painter, who escaped from Moyamensing Prison some time since, were recaptured on Saturday by the Thirteenth District Police. They were arrested in Montgomery county, about three miles above Manayunk. They were taken back to prison.

BROKE HIS LEG.-Wm. Bransberry, aged about 66 years, a resident of West Philadelphia, fell on the ice on Market street near Thirty-ninth, last evening, and had a leg fractured. He was taken to the hospital.

FINE ARTS.—We observed at Messrs. Earle's, on Saturday, a large painting by Zanthus Smith, intended for the decoration of the new Chamber of Commerce. for the decoration of the new Chamber of Commerce, in Second street. It represents the idea of Commerce, under the figure of a huge merchautship, careering in mid-ocean with crowded sail. A pair of portraits flank it: William Penn, by Mr. James Lambdin, one of the best efforts we have lately seon from the brush of this excellent man and artist, so long identified with the history of American painting. The pendant portrait is one of Franklin, by Mr. S. B. Waugh. These three pictures, framed with simple elegance by Messrs. Earle, will be the completing ornaments of a handsome building, and we are glad to see the paintor's brush called in to supplement the skill of the architect.

She was a prominent member of the Society of Friends, and a most estimable and highly esteemed citizen, in Camden and Burlington counties. She had a vivid recollection of most of the incidents that occurred during the war of 1812, and seemed to take great pleasure in relating them to her frieads. IT IS IMPOSSIBLE

FOR ANY HOUSE TO GET THE PRICES DOWN AS LOW as we are now selling all our CLOTHING, and the REASON for it can be very easily seen. An appraisement of the stock was made under direction of the EXECUTOR, and then it was determined to sell it at ONCE to make a quick settlement of the accounts of the former Firm.

To do this THE PRICES WERE ALL PUT DOWN, so that we GUARANTEE them fully TEN PER CENT. LOWER THAN THE LOWEST ELSEWHERE, OR GOODS TAKEN BACK AND CASH PAID OVER AGAIN WHEN SHOWN TO BE OTHERWISE.

It will be remembered that our Style, Make and Finish is FAR BETTER than ordinary Ready-Made Clothing. Our large facilities always enable us to SELL CHEAPER THAN OTHER HOUSES; and now, under these special circumstances, it can be readily seen that this is THE opportunity to lay in a full supply.

We have still a very large stock (at least $150,000 worth of Goods). and freshly supplied every day by new lots, as we are making up all the piece goods we had on hand. • As before announced, we continue to allow these whom it suits best to make selections and pay in installments until all is paid up.
