And, lastly, we must guard ourselves most absence of any brain on the poker, Dr. Paine has in particular cases.
You will observe at the threshold of this examination that you must give to the defendant at every stage of your inquiries the benefit of his character, of the presumption of innocence until guilt is clearly established, and of every reasoniceling between the deceased and the defendant, tecause of the introduction of the name of Mrs.

Twitchell in the deed of the house. It is charged that this was done in fraud of Mrs. Hill. It is also said that she complained that the defendant had robbed her, and that this was communicated to the defendant. It is further stated that he spoke of her insultingly.

The principal winess on this branch of the case is Mr. Joseph Gilbert. Mr. Henderson speaks of his visit to Mrs. Hill, and that defendant ordered rer a shirt bosom, there-t George S. Twitchell got will probably conclude that Mrs. Hill was in the N. Y. Tribune. The Bevolutionary Movement. THE AMERICAN CONSUL THREATENED. Some time ago a party of twelve armed men were arrested at San Christobal, and among them was a Mr. Sants Rosa. They were attempting to inaugurate a revolution, and were brought by the Spanish authorities to Hayana, where they are held in prison as rebels against the Government. There is nothing informal in their arrest, but one Mr. H. P. Reynaud, in New York, does not happen to think so, and has telegraphed to the American Consul that the Spanish authorities were ill-treating his friend, Mr. Santa Rosa, and informs him that should said Mr. Santa Rosa depart this life suddenly, he (Reynand) Approved this thirty-first day of December, will bold blim (the American Coosul) responsible for his friend's demise.
