The Board then proceeded to the election of a President

The Board then proceeded to the election of a President. Mr. Freeborn nominated Daniel Steinmetz. No other nomination was made, and Mr. Stein-metz was declared elected by acclamation. Upon taking the chair, Mr Steinmetz made a speech, returning his thanks for the honor be-stowed upon him. He thought that the Board ehould have more power than it does now, and suggested that legislation should be asked for to accomplish that object. Two subjects especially alluded to and strongly urged were the appoint-ment of a general superintendent and giving the Board tull control of the fund raised for school He also favored an increase of the purposes. He also favored an increase of the salaries of the teachers. The President announced that the committees would remain the same as last year, as far as the members continued in the Board. In addition, Mr. Elkin was appointed Chairman of the Com-mittee on Qualifications of Teachers and a mem-ber of the Committee on Expenses. Mr. Wilson was appointed on the Committee on Property and Supplies, and Mr. Ridings on the Commit-tees on Boys' High School and Reports of Schools. members continued in the Board. In addition

OITY NOTICES.

THE SIMPLE fact that Life Insurance has been most favored in the most intelligent communities is exceedingly significant. That alone is sufficient answer to the strange prejudice which leads some people to call the whole matter "a humbug" and "a swindle." Any man who laughs at Life Insurance pays a poor compliment to hi own intellect. The best compliment you could pay to your sound judgment as a provident and good business man would be to invest immediately in a policy with "The American."

It is to be hoped that this measure will receive your is to be hoped that this measure will receive your hearly approval, and that the Commissioners of Fairmount Part, with the aid and co-operation of these Councils, will give to the city of Philadel-phia a park, the advantages and beauties of which may not only tend to the health and en-joyment of our own people, but prove attractive to the many strangers visiting the city. We have long feit the need of a Honse of Cor-rection, and there seems to be but little opposi-tion on the ground of utility,—the difficulty lies in the choice of site. situations offered to us, and there is no doubt but that the necessity for such an institution will soon point out the spot and erect the proper buildings. Public buildings for the accommodation of the Courts and their officers, the preservation of the records, and for the departments of the city, have long been wanted. Now that the measure has shaped itself, your aid will be required to hasten the completion of the proposed buildings. No argument will more fully convince you of their urgent necessity than a visit to the Courtrooms and offices at present in use. Other improvements will claim your attention, and in all such measures a due regard to the best interests of a great manufacturing and commer-cial community should be your guide in the ex-penditure of money. Of those who have been fellow-laborers with
