Declared on January 1st, 1869,
BY THE
AMERICAN
LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY
OF PHILADELPHIA,
S. E. corner Fourth and Walnut Streets.

What does this dividend to those insured and those about to be insured in "The American"?
1st.—It shows the property of the Company.
2d.—It shows that the Company is doing business.
3d.—It shows that the affairs of the Company are well managed.
4th.—It shows that the Company have placed just one half of the annual premium to the credit of participating policies, and may be used in the payment of future premiums.
5th.—It shows that Philadelphia and Pennsylvania need not go outside of their own land and State to find all that is desirable in any Life Insurance Company, and to secure all the possible benefits of being insured.
Why didn't you go into the American Life last year? You got it for the next dividend.

Abduction and Assassination Conspiracy

(From the Baltimore American of last night.)
Now that the trial of John Surratt for participation in the assassination of President Lincoln has been thrown out of Court through the technicalities of the law, and he is announced as preparing for a narrative of the whole transaction, it may serve a good purpose to give publicity to the following statement of Samuel B. Arnold, one of the volunteers of the 4th Maryland, made in Baltimore voluntarily, four days after the assassination. We also give the confession of Atzerodt, made in his cell on the night before the execution. Both of these confessions we have in our possession in the handwriting of the prisoners, and they have hitherto not been made public under the expectation that they would be used in the trial of John Surratt.

The confession of Atzerodt was made in his cell, at Washington, on the night before his execution. He asked for paper, and he is written with lead pencil, the disconnected words of it indicating the state of mind of the prisoner.

CONFESION OF SAMUEL B. ARNOLD, MADE APRIL 18, 1865.
To whom it may concern: Know that I, Samuel B. Arnold, about the latter part of August or first part of September, 1864, was sent for by J. Wilkes Booth, who was a guest at Barnum's Hotel, in the city of Baltimore, Md., by the name of him. I had not seen the same J. Wilkes Booth since 1852, when we both were schoolmates at St. Timothy's Hall, President I. Van Bokkell having said that I was a place of refuge.

His reception was very warm, and he asked me to go to Washington with him to arrange his affairs. I went in the morning, Friday, I think. I returned Sunday evening home, having a letter from J. W. Wharton, at Fort Sumner, giving me employment. Went to the country, and on Saturday, the 1st day of April, 1865, returned to Baltimore. The letter from Wharton had been retained, never corresponding with Booth or seeing him from the above named date to the present writing. The groundwork was to be laid for the assassination of Lincoln, and to see that I would kill him. Further than this I know nothing, and am innocent of having taken any active part in the dark deed committed.

THE PLAN OF EXECUTION.
Was to place Mr. LINCOLN in the buggy purchased for that purpose, and cross Eastern Branch bridge. Surratt and Atzerodt, alias Port Tobacco, were to be on the bridge, and when the boat concealed; turn the horse loose, place the President in the boat, and cross the Potomac to the Virginia shore, and thence to make our way to the city of Richmond, Va., where we were to act as pilots.

A box painted black, like unto a sword-box, was sent by Booth from the hotel by the porter there, containing the arms and accoutrements for the wagon, O'Laughlin giving pilot, to some place. I was not present. After giving the box to the driver, went to Georgetown, and O'Laughlin had the full charge of the horse and carriage, and to Mr. Heard's, and from thence the unknown carried it home. Took the guns out and carried them to Peede. This latter clause Booth told me.

Witness: V. Randall, E. G. Horner.
Baltimore, April 18th, 1865.
Note.—Besides this written statement of Arnold's, he verbally communicated the fact that Booth and Atzerodt were in the city of Baltimore, and that they were in the city of Washington when I presented him Arnold's statement.

CONFESION OF ATZERODT RELATIVE TO THE ASSASSINATION OF PRESIDENT LINCOLN.
I had not seen John Surratt for about eight days before the murder. Booth told me a few days before the murder that he was in Washington, and that he was in the city of Baltimore, Md., by the name of him. I had not seen the same J. Wilkes Booth since 1852, when we both were schoolmates at St. Timothy's Hall, President I. Van Bokkell having said that I was a place of refuge.

Previous to the arrangement for the murder of Booth heard that the President was to visit camp. The coach was to be taken out Seventh street. Surratt was to jump on the box as he was the best driver, and drive through Old Fields to the Long Bridge. This was about the middle of March. O'Laughlin, Samuel Arnold, Payne, Surratt, Booth, Atzerodt and Harold, were to wait for us. They did so until midnight and returned to Washington near morning. This failure was quiet then for some time. Booth went to New York, Arnold to Baltimore, O'Laughlin also, and Payne left for New York. After this Harold brought a promise across the Potomac. Howell was made prisoner, and Surratt took her North about a week before the murder. Booth told me that Surratt was in the Herndon House on the night of the murder, the 14th of April; we were not all together at the Herndon House. Booth told me that Surratt was to help at the box, that he expected others in the box. Surratt went from the Herndon House, down to Washington near morning. This failure was quiet then for some time. Booth went to New York, Arnold to Baltimore, O'Laughlin also, and Payne left for New York. After this Harold brought a promise across the Potomac. Howell was made prisoner, and Surratt took her North about a week before the murder. Booth told me that Surratt was in the Herndon House on the night of the murder, the 14th of April; we were not all together at the Herndon House. Booth told me that Surratt was to help at the box, that he expected others in the box. Surratt went from the Herndon House, down to Washington near morning. This failure was quiet then for some time. Booth went to New York, Arnold to Baltimore, O'Laughlin also, and Payne left for New York. After this Harold brought a promise across the Potomac.
