with Bohemianism in the rough, as de-veloped in those primitive efforts of human architecture. When, therefore, we can get a writer of real ability and style to go to the mines and watch the very naïveté of human nature, we have a rara avis whose song is worth our ears. As a specimen of this wri-ter's handling of the emotions, let us take a paragraph from towards the conclusion of the present story. The situation is the per-ishing of a band of outcasts and villains in the snow after having been kicked out of a frontier city. The "Duchess" is a kind of Aspasia of the far west. "Piney" is an inno-cent, who has met the party and been snowej

Affairs in Cuba. HAVANA, Jan. 27 .- The Diario reports, on authority of official despatches, that Palma, Sari-ano, Cobre and other towns, are full of fugitive insurgents and their families, and that three thou-sand of them have presented themselves to the authorities and received annesty. At Baracoa several chiefs gave themselves up and were pardoned. Other accounts from the interior, received through Spanish channels, represent that the insurgents are surrendering at many points, to ready the benefits of General Dalce's proclamation, but in the vicinity of Santiago, the rebels continue very active. They carry off slaves and harrass the troops, and it is reported that they have destroyed by fire half a dozen large plantahave destroyed by he half a dozen large planta-tions near the town. Havana, Jan. 25, by way of Key West, Jan. 27. —A reign of terror has commenced in this city, caused by open hostility between the Cuban and Spanish factions, whose hared for each other cannot be described. There is little security out-side the city walls. The Cubans from their housetops fire upon the volunteers and soldiers passing through the streets. The military enter the houses from which shots are fired and massacre the inmates. The attack made by the volanteers upon the Louvre Coffee house is denounced as brutal and unprovoked Ou the same night the volunteers shouled "Kill Dulce." because he was known to be taking measures to put a stop to their ex cresses. The volunteers by their behavior pro creases. The volunteers by their behavior pro-voke resistance of the people, and then fire into them indiscriminately. The officers and men of the regular force are opposed to giving such dis-cretionary powers to the volunteers. The older volunteers behave well, having become somewhat accustomed to discipline. The conduct of the first battalion during the Louvre affair, and afterwards, is especially preleed, but the newly-recruited volunteers are praised, but the newly-recruited volunteers are unrestrainable. Many private persons, clilzons, strangers and foreigners have been fired upon in different parts of the clty. The Government is taking measures to put a stop to the disorder. The houses of suspected persons are being registered by the police, and the Government will also make special, and it is to be hoped, effectual efforts to protect American clitzens. _____ Miss Sue Murphy. This ledy's care has been sent back to the Committee, that they might reconsider about it as long as it had been debated. To the reliet of the delegated dignity of the land, General Garfield redelegated dignity of the land, General Garneld re-ceived a letter yesterday from a gallant officer, which read something like this: "My DEAR GENERAL: I have been reading the reports about Miss cue Murphy that have, day atter day, been telegraphed over the land, until I begin to think it would probably come to judg-ment about the time the Lord judged us all, on the grated day, when I havenended to see, the fact the great day, when I happened to see the fact stated that the loval lady balled from Decatur, and then I recognized an old acquaintance.
