THE ALASKA INVESTIGATIONS.

New Revelations. The Washington correspondence of the N.Y. Herald says:

Robert J. Walker appeared before the Committee on Public Expenditures again to-day and added a new and interesting chapter to the Alaska fraud developments. He said he had seen some new attements in the newspapers of late making serious charges against certain officials, which he pronounced entire fabrications. Passing from this, he took up the testimony of a certain newspaper correspondent. He said that this correspondent had called upon Mr. Frederick Stauton, and after observing that he understood there was a good deal of money in the job, stated that he could control a number of votes in the House and also the correspondence of many leading newspapers. The correspondent put the question bluntly to Mr. Stanton, "Is there money in the job?" And added, The Washington correspondence of the N. Y. The correspondent put the question bluntly to Mr. Stanton, "Is there money in the job?" And added, "If there is, I'll be hanged if I don't want my share of it." The correspondent further said that he understood Mr. Walker had been entrusted with a large amount of money to distribute among members and newspaper men to help the job through. If such were the fact he would un-dertake to control a certain number of votes and papers, either for or against the measure, if a certain amount would be paid down then and there. Mr. Stanton informed the correspondent that he had been wrongly informed, that there was no such fund in Walker's poscession, and, therefore, no spondulix to enrich the correspondent. The correspondent thereupon changed his tone, said he would pitch that the personalize and year. into the job generally, and use all his influence to defeat it. He further said he would call upon Walker himself and speak with the latter on the subject. Mr. Stanton informed Walker about the conversation with the correspondent, and

TENNESNEE.

Walker told Stanton to tell the aforesaid correspondent that if he ventured to call upon him (Walker) he would kick him out of his (Walker's) office.

Johnson and Brownlow. A Knoxville correspondent of the Cincinnati Commercial states that Gov. Brownlow will resign his position as Executive of Tennessee, to take effect about the 26th of February, when he will proceed to Washington to take his seat in the Senate on the 4th of March next as the successor of Mr. Patterson; but he is so feeble in health that he will hardly be able to take a very active part in the deliberations of the Senate. It his room nearly all the time during the past eighteen months. The Hon. De Witt Senter, the Speaker, of the Tennessee Senate, will succeed Mr. Brownlow as Governor for the unexpired term. Mr. Senter has been many years in public life in Tennessee, is a man of good ability, seems to enjoy the confidence of his constituents seems to enjoy the confidence of his constituents and of his party, and will probably prove a successful Executive. The next election for Governor takes place in Augustnext, and Col. Stokes is much talked of as the Republican candidate; but should Mr. Senter's administration prove a successful one he may be selected as the standard-bearer. If we may believe the outgivings from Washington, Nashville, and various other quarters, it is the intention of Andrew Johnson to be the Democratic candidate for Governor; and if it be true that he desires the nomination, we can see true that he desires the nomination, we can see no possible reason why he should not have it. According to a Nashville correspondent of the Louisville (Ky.) Courier-Journal, Mr. Johnson has written to his frierds in Tennessee to say that he will be a candidate for Governor, and that he is expected to arrive in Nashville about the middle of March. The same authority states that his plat-form will consist of "universal amnesty and impartial suffrage." Colonel Stokes is a first-class sumper, and A. J. has a style peculiarly pleasing to the Democracy (including the Ku-Klux) of Tabnessee and such like States. A canvass for Governor between Stokes and Johnson would no doubt, be a lively one. Mr. Johnson's ultimate aim is, no doubt, to be the successor of Mr. Fowler in the United States Senate, the Gover-norship being merely a stepping-stone to the more desirable position.

NORTH CAROLINA Great Excitement Over the Recent Lynching—Kinston in a Mate of Siege
—Outrage in Duplin County by Negroes—The Militia to be Calted Out.

Breathen Hillian to be carried out.

Breathond, Va., Jan. 29, 1869.—I am in receip of a despatch from Goldsboro, N. C., which states that the greatest excitement provails at Kinston in consequence of the lynching of the five prisones there on Saturday night last. The names of the victims were Richard Nobles, white, and Robert Grady, John Miller, Kader Herring and Damel Smith, colored. A person near by the scene heard the discharging of the pistole as the prisoners were shot on the bridge, and the heavy splashes of the bodies as they were thrown into the river. the river.

Kinston is in a state of slege by the negroes of the surrounding country, who threaten to liberate the remaining prisoners in jall and burn the town. The whites are all armed, with such weapons as are at their command, guarding their homes. Pickets are stationed in the sub-

Another horrible outrage occurred in Duplin county. A white man who fired on a party of negroes attempting to violate the persons of some young ladles was murdered in his house the folinwing night and his body cut in halves and hung up in the room in which he slept. No arrests have been made in either of these cases. Liw-lessness and anarchy exist in this entire section of the country to such a revent extent of the country to such an extent extent and are extent at a country to such an extent extent at a country to such an extent extent extent and are extent as a country to such as a c of the country to such an extent as to justify the calling out and arming of the militia by the Governor. The civil authorities are powerless to suppress this fearful carnival of crime.

OLTY BULLETIN.

ANNIVERSARY .- The First Reformed Presbyterian Congregation of this city celebrated their 71st anniversary on Thursday evening, the 28th 71st anniversary on Thursday evening, the 28th inst., at Horticultural Hall. The place was tastefully decorated with American flags. Dr. A. S. McMurray presided. Rev. S. M. Ramsey, of Ohio, gave out the 100th psalm. Rev. W. G. Boyd, County Antrim, Ireland, made the opening prayer. Rev. M. Galley, of this city, read the 60th chapter of Isalah. The 147th psalm was then given out by Rev. Dr. Steel, of this city. The Chairman, Dr. McMurray, gave a brief history of the congregation from its organization, referring in a touching manner to its first pastor, the late Rev. Samuel B. Wylle, D. D., whose portrait occupied a prominent place in the Hall. Rev. Dr. Cooper asked minent place in the Hall. Rev. Dr. Cooper asked a blessing on the refreshments. Suitable ad-dresses were delivered by Rev. Messrs. Barr, Boyd and Steel. Pieces were recited by Prof. James, and Messrs. Yates, Scott, and M' Leod. The addresses, recitations and refreshments were interspersed with appropriate music. After singing the 148th Psalm, the benediction was pronounced by Rev. Mr. Boyd. The immense audience, consisting, it is supposed, of nearly eleven hundred persons, separated at a late hour, well pleased with the orderly arrangements and excellent character of the entertainment. This was by tar the largest meeting of the kind ever held by this PRESENTATION .- Mr. Terrence McCusker, late Chlef Engineer of the Fire Department, was last evening presented with a gold watch and chain by his friends, members of the Fire Department. The watch has the emblems of the Department engraved upon one side, and upon the other side is an appropriate inscription. The presentation took piece at the saloon of Geo. D. Glenn, on Swalwick street. The presentation speech was made by Wm. D. Kendrick, of the Columbia Engraphics. gine Company, and was responded to by Jos. A. Bonham, of the Perseverance Hose Company. The Liberty Cornet Band was present and furnished company couldn't ample the company of the compan nished some excellent music.

THE IRISH REPUBLICANS .- A meeting of the Irish Republican Association was held last eveningfat the hall, Fifth and Locust streets. Mr. John M. Moriarty presided and made a speech. He was followed by Captain J. J. Doyle. A committee, consisting of Captain J. J. Doyle, Hugh Dougherty and Charles McDonnell was appointed to visit the different. Wards and solicit persons to join the association. A number new members were elected.

FATAL ACCIDENT.-About nine o'clock this morning a German named Peter Schneider, about 40 years of age, residing at 702 East Cumberland street, while crossing the Trenton railroad bridge over Frankford creek, was struck by one of Hillie's coal carts, knocking him off the bridge, and seriously injuring him about the head. He was taken to his home where he died shortly after from the effects of his injuries. The Coroner was notified to hold an inquest on the body.

STILL MISSING. - Mr. Jeremiah Ingley who left his home, No. 1323 South Seventh street, on the evening of December 7th, is still missing. It will be remembered that he attended a meeting of a Building Association on South street, and paid up his dues. He left that place to go home, and nothing has been heard of him since. His family are in great distress at the mystery surrounding his prolonged absence.

VIOLATING AN ORDINANCE. Edward Chambers was before Alderman Hurley, yesterday afternoon, charged with violating a city ordinance He left a horse standing without hitching at Third and Chestnut streets. The horse stepped up on the sidewalk and kicked a man who was passing. Chambers had the usual penalty imposed upon him.

LARCENY OF PIG IRON,-A colored man named Abner Allison was arrested yesterday by Police man Myers, on Buttonwood street, above Fifth. upon the charge of the larceny of twenty pounds of pig iron, which were found in his possession. He was taken before Alderman Toland and was committed to answer.

Suspicious.-Ben Polin and Joseph Doyle, hailing from New York, were arrested last night at Twenty-sixth and Washington streets, while were takin before Alderman Dallas, and were committed to prison.

DRATH WARRANT RECEIVED .- This morning tion of Gerald Eaton, convicted of the murder of Timothy Heenan. The day fixed for the execution is February 25. The warrant will be read to the condemned man this afternoon.

DISORDERLY HOUSE .- James Hagan was arrested yesterday by Sergeant Murray, and was taken before Alderman Kerr, upon the charge of keeping a disorderly house at No. 324 Noble street. He was held in $800 ball for a further bearing.

A GREAT ACCOMMODATION .- Mr. G. W. Russell, jeweler, has recently put up a handsome tower clock, on Sixth street, opposite Commerce. The pedestal upon which this clock is mounted is thirteen feet high. The dial of the time-piece faces north and south, so as to afford passers by the best opportunity of observing the time. A peculiarity of this tower clock is, that the movement is some sixty feet distant from the dial plate, and yet the clock is so accurate a time-keeper that it does not vary a minute in a month. Another remarkable fact is that while during the prevalence of a tremendous sleet storm recently, nearly all of the large town clocks in the city, whose dials are unprotected, stopped, the hands of this one marked the time with its usual correctness. Quite a number of orders have been rectices. Quite a number of orders have beed received for clocks of similar style, for private individuals, as well as from the Government. Dr. J. W. Schenck has had one erected at his country seat, on the Trenton Railroad, and another has been put up for the Government at the Soldiers' Home, in Washington city.

An Interesting Lecture,-Mr. Paul B. Du Chaillu, who has traveled very extensively in Airica on hunting and exploring expeditions, will deliver a lecture at Concert Hall on Monday evening next. His subject will be "Lion and Gorilla Hunting; or, Two Years in Equatorial Airica." Mr. Du Chaillu is a pleasing speaker; his knowledge of the many curious things which be describes is derived from versional charges. he describes is derived from personal observa-tions, and therefore there can be no doubt of their correctness. The lecture will be illustrated by maps and paintings, which will materially assist the audience in fully understanding the many thrilling adventures of which Mr. Du Chaillu will speak. The proceeds of the lecture are to be given to the Sabbath-school of the North Presbyterian Church.

Butler versus the Indians.

The Washington correspondent of the Herald The Washington correspondent of the Herald says:
General Butler struck the keynote of real reform in Indian affairs on Wednesday, when he declared against any more treaties with Indians or other men within the boundaries of the United States, and boldly took the ground that hereafter Indians, as well as other people, must be governed by laws. The lazzaron members and their confederates in the lobby who live by plundering the government through the Indian treaty system, grew pallid through the Indian treaty system, grew pallid with fear and anxiety during the General's remarks. They must, however, go to the wall. Every honest man in the nation who has examined the subject is utterly opposed to further treaties with Indians. Give them just and wholesome laws but no treation

Assessor Webster's effort to enforce the law imposing a tax of one twenty-fourth of one per cent. on an capital employed by dealers in stocks and securities, is creating considerable excitement in Wall street, that region being included in his district. It is claimed by Mr. Webs'er that there are 100 bankers in Wall, Broad and the contiguous streets who have made no returns whatever, and the instances are numerous where returns of less than $100,000 are made by parties who confess to using a capital much larger.
