DISASTERS.

THE GALES ON THE ATLANTIC.

Stormy Passage of the City of Baltimore.

The winter season of 1868-9, though mild upon shore, has been an unusually tempestuous one at sea. Vessels crossing the ocean have been delayed by strong head winds, and gales and hurricanes have been frequent. The steamship City of Baltimore, of the Inman line, left Liverpool on the 20th of January, touched at Queenstown on the 21st, and a day out from that port encountered one of the most terrible gales ever known to have been experienced, which continued for twelve days. A heavy sea on the starboard bow carried away the bowsprit, and the fury of the blast split the sails and carried away the topsail yards and mizzen gaff. Being out of coal, the ship put into Halifax, and reached here yesterday morning. The passengers publish the following card:

"We, the undersigned, cabin passengers of the steamship City of Baltimore, on her recent passage from Liverpool to this port, desire to express our sincere appreciation of her great seaworthiness, and our admiration of the skill and untiring exertions of her commander, Capt. De la Motte, under the blessing of Providence, in guiding her safely to her destination. Since leaving Queenstown we have encountered terrific head gales for 12 days, during which time our Captain and the officers under his command have been unceasing in their vigilance and untiring in their watch, having scarcely a moment's repose for days together. Their conduct has inspired us with a thorough confidence in them, and we hope it may be ever our good fortune to meet, in our future travels, with captains and officers as competent in their profession and as attentive to the comfort and safety of their passengers."

ACCIDENT ON THE PAN HANDLE ROAD.

A Freight Train Locomotive Runs into a Sleeping Coach on a Passenger Train.

The Cincinnati Gazette of yesterday morning has the following: The train which left New York at five o'clock Friday night for Cincinnati, was, on Saturday noon, run into by a freight train on the Pan Handle Road, about thirty-five miles this side of Pittsburgh. Some accident had happened to the locomotive, on account of which the train had stopped at a place where there was a double curve of the track. The conductor sent a flagman back to warn the freight train which was known to be behind. The injury to the locomotive was repaired, and the train ready for starting, when the conductor gave the signal for the flagman to return. He had just got in when the whistle of the train approaching around the curve was heard. The flagman was despatched again in haste, and the passenger train started. It proved, however, to be impossible to get the one train sufficiently under way, or the other sufficiently slackened to avoid a collision. The locomotive of the freight train struck the sleeping car of the passenger train, smashed it up badly, and became entangled with it in such a way that the two clung together, while the remainder of the passenger train went ahead with accelerated speed. A new train was made up at Steubenville, and the passengers arrived in Cincinnati only an hour or two behind time. The only person much injured was Mr. George B. Wright, of this city, who sprained an ankle by jumping off before the collision

It is said that on the arrival of the train at Steubenville the conductor was immediately discharged.

Accident on the Pacific Railroad.

The St. Louis Democrat of Monday says:

On Saturday evening, about nine o'clock, the train coming east from Leavenworth, on the Pacific Railroad, was thrown from the track at Smithton, eight miles below Sedalia, caused by a misplaced switch. The locomotive No. 50 was thrown over, and, together with the tender, turned bottom side up. The engineer, Charles Brownell, was severely, and supposed fatally scalded. The fireman, Jack Bookhouse, was also scalded. It is thought he will recover. The baggage and smoking cars were also thrown off the track, but no other persons were injured. The passengers arrived in this city nine hours behind time. The accident was caused by the conductor of a wood train that had previously passed over the track, who neglected to adjust the switch before leaving the station.

A later report states that both engineer and fireman were killed.

CRIME.

Tragedy in Indiana.

A despatch from Warsaw, Indiana, on the 8th inst., says:

A horrible tragedy was unearthed here last night. Last April John W. Vannata, of Fort Wayne, Ind., secured the affections of Miss Horn, of this place, and married her in opposition to the wishes of her parents and relatives. On the wedding night, nearly all the guests, thirty in number, were taken sick with every appearance of poisoning by arsenic, and a sister of Miss Horn died from its effects. It has been found that he had proposed an elopement with a young lady named Bennett within the last few days, and in his letter to her he gives a full history of the poisoning, acknowledging that he had put a large quantity of arsenic in the water from which the coffee was prepared, and that he did it in revenge for the manner in which the family had treated him. He was arrested on Friday and after examination was committed to jail in default of bail to the amount of $50,000. Great excitement exists in this community in consequence of this wholesale attempt at poisoning. All the parties concerned are among the most respectable in this place.

Murder in Jamestown, Pa.

The Pittsburgh Gazette of yesterday says:

A murder was committed in Jamestown, Mercer county, about one o'clock on Sunday morning, under the following circumstances: Martin Moon, a silk peddler, and several companions, accompanied by the wife of one of the parties, left this city on Saturday morning, arriving at Jamestown the same evening. They put up at a hotel, and after supper the men went out to a drinking saloon, where they remained until a late hour, drinking, playing cards, &c. The woman, who had been left alone at the hotel, after waiting some time for her husband to return, became uneasy and started out in search of him. After a short search she found him with the rest of the party in the saloon. The entire party were intoxicated, and the woman fearing her husband might get into trouble, endeavored to persuade him to accompany her to the hotel. His companions objected to him leaving, but after considerable persuasion he was induced to go with her. His companions still protested against his leaving them, and followed him and his wife with the intention of persuading him to return to the saloon. Moon it appears was acting as leader of the party, and in order to prevent the man from going with his wife took hold of his coat and insisted upon him returning to the saloon. The woman remonstrated with them for some time, but finding it of no avail, picked up a club and struck Moon over the head, killing him instantly.

Justice Troupe held an inquest on the body, but the investigation had not been concluded. The entire party were arrested and are now confined in the Mercer county jail, awiting the result of the investigation.

THE COURTS.

DISTRICT COURT—Judge Stroud.—Wright, &c. vs. Beatty, &c. This case, involving the violation of the Act of Assembly in regard to placing chairs in the passage-way of places of amusement, was with the jury yesterday until near three o'clock, when, for the second time, they came into court and announced that it was impossible to agree. The jury were then discharged.

Martin Hayward vs. Henry T. Childs. An action on two notes. Verdict for plaintiff for $1,033 12.

Peirce Nefhart vs. William Frew, who was sued, with Charles W. Lockhart and John Gracy, trading as Lockhart, Frew & Co., but as to whom the Sheriff of Philadelphia county returned the writ nihil habet. An action to recover for an alleged breach of contract for the delivery of oil. On trial.

DISTRICT COURT—Judge Hare.—The Derry National Bank vs. Alfred Gilmore. An action on a draft. Defence set up want of consideration. On trial.

NISI PRIUS—Justice Read.—Walter Lackey vs. Joseph Brady. An action to recover damages for an alleged assault and battery. The plaintiff is one of the conductors on the Baltimore Railroad, and it is alleged that on the night of the 17th of July last the defendant, with two friends, was on the train, and not only acted disorderly, but made an assault upon the plaintiff.

The defence set up that the defendant and his friends were not creating any disorder, but because they declined to take sleeping berths they got the ill-will of the railroad officials, and three of them made an assault upon Mr. Brady. On trial.

QUARTER SESSIONS—Judge Peirce.—A disorderly house case claimed the attention of the court all the morning, one Philip Fitzpatrick being the defendant.

CITY BULLETIN.

LENT.—To-day begins the season of Lent, and is called Ash Wednesday, deriving the name from the custom of sprinkling the hair and garments with ashes as a symbol of grief for the sorrows of our Saviour, and also as a method of performing penance for the trangressions of the past year. The custom of sprinkling the ashes on the garments is not now observed, but is commemorated by making a cross on the forehead with ashes, blessed by the priest at the mass of the day. The ashes used are obtained by burning the particles of altar linen, blessed wood or other furniture of the church which has been damaged or broken during the year, and the portions of blessed palm remaining since the previous Palm Sunday. The ceremony of distributing the ashes is performed by the officiating clergyman. The faithful approach the altar rails, and, reverently kneeling, are marked with the sign of the cross, the officiating clergyman meanwhile reciting the solemn remembrancer, "Memento, homo, quod pulvis es, et in pulverem reverteris" (remember, man, thou art dust, and unto dust thou shalt return).

In the Episcopal Church the use of ashes is not recognized, and the day is celebrated with the reading of the appropriate psalms, lessons and anthems, the singing of hymns and pronouncing the malecdictions against impenitent sinners, at the end of each of which the congregation answer "Amen."

The season of Lent is one of fasting and praying, ordained to commemorate the forty days' fast of our Saviour in the wilderness. The Church lays aside its emblems of grandeur and glorification, and, robed in the habiliments of sorrow, accompanies its divine Founder in spirit, sympathizes with Him in His humiliation and tribulation, and shows by all exterior means the mental anguish which is felt for the sufferings borne by, and the disgraces inflicted on the Son of God.

INTERESTING TO MANUFACTURERS OF TOBACCO AND CIGARS.—D. P. Southworth, Esq., Supervisor of Internal Revenue in this city, has received the following from the Department at Washington:

"TREASURY DEPARTMENT, OFFICE OF INTERNAL REVENUE, WASHINGTON, February 3d, 1869.—Sir:—In reply to your letter of January 30th, in relation to putting the proprietor's, instead of the manufacturer's name on packages of tobacco, I have to say that sections 62 and 68 of the Act of July 20, 1868, provide for putting the proprietor's name, if desired, instead of the manufacturer's name, upon packages of tobacco. When the proprietor's name however, is put upon packages of tobacco, it should not appear as the manufacturer's, but as the proprietor's name. That is, the tobacco should not be marked or labeled as having been manufactured by, but for the proprietor.

"The manufacturer's name in all cases must be put upon cigars.

"Very respectfully,
"THOMAS HARLAND,
"Deputy Commissioner."
[Signed]

MISSING.—Henry A. Hildebrand, aged twenty-five years, left Camden on the evening of February 1st, for his home in this city, and has been missing since. Some time previous he had been robbed of $800, and, it is said, he had succeeded in getting a pretty good clue to the robbers. For that reason, it is supposed, that he has been foully dealt with. Mr. Hildebrand is five feet ten inches in height, and has black whiskers and moustache. At the time of his disappearance he wore a Grecian-bend hat, black overcoat, dark brown walking-coat, black vest, and dark mixed pants.

LARCENY BY A DOMESTIC.—Ellen Norman has been employed as a servant in the house of James Robb, on Market street, above Tenth. Last night she decamped with a coat and two pairs of pantaloons. She left the stolen clothing at a house at Sixteenth and Filbert streets, and then secured lodgings in the Sixth District Police Station House. This morning the police were notified of the larceny. Ellen had left the station-house then, but she was afterwards captured at Tenth and Market streets. Alderman Jones committed her for trial.

PLAYING CONSTABLE.—John E. Mann was before Ald. Hutchinson yesterday. There had been a difficulty between a man and wife residing in the neighborhood of Nineteenth and Callowhill streets. Mann, it is alleged, went to the woman, representing himself as a constable, and got some money from her on condition that he would not arrest her. He made a second effort to get money, and then the woman had him arrested. He was committed in default of $800 bail.

CHARGE OF LARCENY.—Henry Helmbold was before Alderman Maull, yesterday, upon the charge of the larceny of $90. It seems that a stranger was taken sick at the Washington House, in West Philadelphia. The landlord had $90 belonging to him. It is alleged that Helmbold induced the sick man to let him have the money to deposit in bank, and has since refused to refund the money. He was held to bail to answer.

AN IMPUDENT THIEF.—A negro, named Wm. Hall, went into a confectionery store, on Chestnut street, above Thirty fourth, yesterday afternoon. He selected a lot of candy, which was tied up and handed to him by the woman in attendance. Hall remarked, "I don't pay for anything," and left, taking the package with him. He was subsequently arrested, and after a hearing before Alderman Maull, was sent to prison.

ATTEMPTED ROBBERY.—This morning, about three o'clock, an attempt was made to break into the store of Isaac Rosenbaum, on Eighth street, above Race A jimmy was used upon a rear door, but before an entrance had been effected, the thieves were frightened off by the Sixth District Police.

RECEIVING STOLEN GOODS.—Jas. Kane, whose establishment is on Sixth street, below Fitzwater, has been arrested upon the charge of receiving stolen goods, viz., a box of tobacco, a chest of tea and a roll of carpet. He will have a hearing this afternoon, at the Central Station.

SERIOUS CHARGE.—James Hines has been sent to prison by Alderman Pancoast to answer the charge of committing an indecent assault upon a little girl, twelve years of age. Hines boarded with the parents of the child, who reside in the neighborhood of Sixteenth and Poplar streets.

NORTH BROAD STREET.—The Mayor has directed that a detail of policemen, under charge of Day Sergeant Adam Reese, shall be stationed along North Broad street, on Sunday afternoons, to prevent fast driving, which has been greatly indulged in heretofore.

PRESS CLUB.—An adjourned business meeting of the Press Club of Philadelphia will be held this afternoon at the rooms, No. 607 Walnut street. The new by-laws prepared by the Board of Directors will be presented.

GEN. GRANT.—Gen. Grant has given his consent to be present at the Lyle Monument Fund ball to-night.

FIRE.—About 4 o'clock this morning, the match factory of Conrad Shaffer, No. 1013 Otsego street, was damaged by fire to the extent of $50.

PUBLIC TEMPERANCE MEETING in the North Broad Street Presbyterian Church, corner Broad and Green streets, this (Wednesday) evening, at 7½ o'clock. Addresses by Major-General E. M. Gregory, J. R. Sypher, Esq., of the New York Tribune, and Rev. Dr. Stryker, Pastor of the church. All are invited.

THE FIREMEN'S BALL.—The ball of the Fire Department, in aid of the Lyle Monument Fund, will take place this evening at the Academy of Music, and bids fair to be a grand spectacle. The decorations by the various fire companies will be very elaborate. Everything to make the affair brilliant or attractive has been done by the committee on arrangements.

THE MAMMOTH RINK.—The ice in the Mammoth Skating Rink, Twenty-first and Race, keeps in good condition, notwithstanding the mildness of the weather. Being very solid, of the finest quality, and eight inches thick, we doubt not that there will be skating in this rink for weeks to come. The Directors give a grand carnival on the 20th inst., which will doubtless be a brilliant affair. Those in fancy costume only will be allowed to use the ice, but non-skaters and non-costumers will be admitted on spectator's tickets. An immense concourse will probably be present on the occasion.

THE ADVANCEMENT OF EDUCATION.—A public meeting of the citizens of the First Ward, called by the Board of School Directors of the Ward, will be held to-morrow evening, in the lecture-room of Scott M. E. Church, Eighth street above Tasker, for the purpose of advancing the interests of the public schools, and petitioning City Councils to appropriate sufficient sums to erect a Grammar School on the southeast corner of Seventh and Dickerson streets. The school houses in this section are said to be in a very dilapidated condition.

THE extraordinary art sale of American oil paintings and crystal medallions, being the collection from the American Art Gallery, New York, commences this evening at Scott's Art Gallery, 1020 Chestnut street. The catalogue numbers 260 gems, all handsomely framed in fine gold leaf. This is a most worthy object, as the pictures are sold for the benefit of the artists. Those wishing to purchase really works of art should attend. Will be continued to-morrow and Friday evening.

THE FEMALE ANTI-SLAVERY SOCIETY.—The Philadelphia Female Anti-Slavery Society holds its thirty-fifth annual meeting to-morrow (Thursday) afternoon, at half-past three o'clock, at the Assembly Buildings. The annual report of the doings of the Society will be read, and there will probably be some addresses by prominent lights of the anti-slavery movement. The public generally are invited to be present.

STATE OF NEW YORK, } CITY AND COUNTY OF NEW YORK, ss.

Be it remembered that on this 30th day of January, A. D. 1869, before me, the subscriber, a commissioner, in and for the State of New York, duly commissioned and authorized by the Governor of Pennsylvania, to take acknowledgment of deeds and other writings, to be used and recorded in the State of Pennsylvania, and to administer oaths and affirmations, personally appeared ALFRED FELL, Jr., Resident Secretary of the Liverpool and London Globe Insurance Company, and made oath that the above and foregoing is a true statement of the condition of said Company upon the first day of January, 1869, and I further certify that I have made personal examination of the condition of said Liverpool and London Globe Insurance Company on this day, and am satisfied that they have assets safely invested in the United States to the amount of $2,600 000; that I have examined the securities now in the hands of the Company, as set forth in the foregoing statement, and the same are of the value represented in the statement.

I further certify that I am not interested in the affairs of said Company.

In witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand and affixed my official seal, 30th day of January, A. D. 1869.

TO PHYSICIANS.

NEW YORK, August 15th, 1867.

Allow me to call your attention to my PREPARATION OF COMPOUND EXTRACT BUCHU. The component parts are BUCHU, LONG LEAF, CUBEBS, JUNIPER BERRIES.

MODE OF PREPARATION.—Buchu, in vacuo. Juniper Berries, by distillation, to form a fine gin. Cubebs extracted by displacement by liquor obtained from Juniper Berries, containing very little sugar, a small proportion of spirit, and more palatable than any now in use. The active properties are by this mode extracted.

Buchu, as prepared by Druggists generally, is of a dark color. It is a plant that emits its fragrance; the action of a flame destroys this (its active principle), leaving a dark and glutinous decoction. Mine is the color of ingredients. The Buchu in my preparation predominates; the smallest quantity of the other ingredients are added, to prevent fermentation; upon inspection, it will be found not to be a Tincture, as made in Pharmacopœa, nor is it a Syrup—and therefore can be used in cases where fever or inflammation exists. In this you have the knowledge of the ingredients and the mode of preparation.

Hoping that you will favor it with a trial, and that upon inspection it will meet with your approbation,

With a feeling of confidence,
I am, very respectfully,
H. T. HELMBOLD,
Chemist and Druggist of 16 Years' Experience in Philadelphia, and now located at his Drug and Chemical Warehouse, 594 Broadway, New York.

HELMBOLD'S FLUID EXTRACT BUCHU, for weakness arising from indiscretion. The exhausted powers of Nature which are accompanied by so many alarming symptoms, among which will be found Indisposition to Exertion, Loss of Memory, Wakefulness, Horror of Disease, or Forebodings of Evil, in fact, Universal Lassitude, Prostration, and Inability to enter into the enjoyments of society.

The Constitution, once affected with Organic Weakness, requires the aid of Medicine to strengthen and invigorate the system, which HELMBOLD'S EXTRACT BUCHU invariably does. If no treatment is submitted to, Consumption or Insanity ensues.

HELMBOLD'S FLUID EXTRACT BUCHU, in affections peculiar to Females, is unequaled by any other preparation, as in Chlorosis, or Retention, Painfulness, or Suppression of Customary Evacuations, Ulcerated or Schirrus State of the Uterus, and all complaints incident to the sex, whether arising from habits of dissipation, imprudence in, or the decline or change of life.

HELMBOLD'S FLUID EXTRACT BUCHU AND IMPROVED ROSE WASH will radically exterminate from the system diseases arising from habits of dissipation, at little expense, little or no change in diet, no inconvenience or exposure; completely superseding those unpleasant and dangerous remedies, Copaiva and Mercury, in all these diseases.

Use HELMBOLD'S FLUID EXTRACT BUCHU in all diseases of these organs, whether existing in the male or female, from whatever cause originating, and no matter of how long standing. It is pleasant in taste and odor, "immediate" in action, and more strengthening than any of the preparations of Bark or Iron.

Those suffering from broken-down or delicate constitutions, procure the remedy at once.

The reader must be aware that, however slight may be the attack of the above diseases, it is certain to affect the bodily health and mental powers.

All the above diseases require the aid of a Diuretic. HELMBOLD'S EXTRACT BUCHU is the great Diuretic.

Sold by Druggists everywhere. PRICE—$1 25 per bottle or 6 bottles for $6 50. Delivered to any address. Describe symptoms in all communications.

Address, Medical Depot, 104 S. Tenth street, Philada. Drug and Chemical Warehouse, 594 Broadway, N. Y.

None are genuine unless done up in steel-engraved wrapper, with fac-simile of my Chemical Warehouse, and signed

H. T. HELMBOLD
