ORIME. ARS ASSINATION.

Hon, Marray motonnell Assassinated From the Chicago Tribune we clip the following particulars of a tragedy already mentioned in our telegraphic despatches:

The Hon. Murray McConnell was assassinated at his office in Jacksonville, at about half-past eight o'clock in the morning, on the ninth in-

The General was in his usual health, and was preparing to take the cleven o'clock train for Springfield. A few minutes before his assassination he had been at his front gate observing Tom Thumb's charlot and ponies, having shortly before this been at the railroad depot. No percons were seen either to enter or to leave his premises, and the whole affair is shrouded in mystery. His wife and a servant girl were in another part of the house when, hearing a noise as of the slamming of a door, they went to ascertain the cause, and found him lying on his face on the floor. It was supposed that he had fallen in an attack of apoplexy, as he had felt some indications of this disease a tow days previously. The servant girl ran in stant. The General was in his usual health, and was as he had felt some indications of this disease a tew days previously. The servant girl ran in haste to the First National Bank for his son, Major George McConnell, the Cashier of that institution, and informed him that his father had fallen again, as he did a couple of weeks sgo. The Major hastening to his father, found him bleeding at the mouth, nose and eyes, but on the excitement of the occasion did not observe the wounds on his head in a few moments after Major McConnell arrived the General died having been totally unconscious and mable to epeak since the assault was made upon him. A surgeon arriving shortly after, immediately perceived and stated that he had been murdered. The intelligence spread rapidly, and soon a large crowd was gathered at the spacious residence of him who was so suddenly and mysterionic hurried away.

The assessin and skillfully laid the plot, and adroitly carried it into execution, for though it took place in one of the most densely populated parts of the city, yet no clue could be discovered

During the late war General McConnell was During the late war General McConnell was an ardent supporter of every measure put forth by the Government for the suppression of the rebellion, aiding much by his eloquence and his means to prosecute the same. Although a man of marked peculiarities of character, and of strong likes and dislikes, yet he has passed from earth without a known personal enemy, but with the respect which his age, his sterling worth and many excellent qualities of head and heart have secured for him. secured for him.

secured for him.

Another account states that Mr. McConnell was found at 8.45 this morning, in his private bedroom and office, upon the floor, on his face, in a pool of blood. He had breakfasted with the room and outce, upon the neor, on his race, in a pool of blood. He had breakfasted with the family about 8 o'clock, and was seen at his room alone, reading, about ten minutes before his lifeless body was discovered. No one was seen or heard to enter the room or premises, which are logically one of the main streats of the circ or neard to enter the room of premises, which are located on one of the main streets of the city. Five deep gashes, like those made by blows from a hammer, were found on his head. The jawbroken, and the skull fractured in several places.

The General was in his usual health, had spent The General was in his usual neated, had spine the day before in writing, and was intending to leave for Springfield on the noon train to transact private business there.

Not the alightest clue to the motive of the perpetrators of the deed. He was perfectly lifeless when found. The General was in his seventy-first year.

Major McConnell.bis son, has offered's reward of $1,000 for the apprehension of the assassins. The Coroner's jury has been in session all day, but has brought in no verdict as yet. The greatest excitement provails.

ACTION OF THE LEGISLATURE.

In the House of Representatives, at Spring-field, yesterday afternoon, the following pream-ble and resolution were adopted; Whereas, The sudden and violent death of Hon. Murray McConnell has come to the knowledge of this House; and,

Whereas, As the deceased has been intimately connected with the legislation and history of this connected with the registation and has taken an important and leading part in moulding its laws and shaping its institutions; therefore, Resolved, That out of respect to the memory of the illustrious departed, a committee of three be appointed to draft resolutions in acknowledgment of the eminent services to the State of the deceased, and to present the same to the House.

THE EXECUTION OF WHALEN.

Bearing of the Prisoner—No Definite Confession -3 be Exhibition Public, and Largely Attended—The Affair Passes of Without a Disturbance. OTTAWA, Feb. 11 .- James Whalen, the alleged murderer of the Hon. Thomas D'Arcy McGes. Minister of Agriculture for the new Government of Canada, was executed upon the gallows this morning at a few minutes past 11 o'clock, in the town of Ottawa, Canada. The prisoner had, up town of Ottawa, Canada. The prisoner had, up to a few days ago, conducted himself with great unconcern, and even indulged in ribaldry and obscene jesting in view of his end. It was thought he indulged hopes, almost to the very last, that he would not be hung. Early in the morning people began to assemble outside the juli, in Stewart street, eager that the victoring scene manifesting that to witness the revolting scene, manifesting that morbid curiosity which many, both men and women, always exhibit on such occasions. By women, aways extent on such occasions. By 10 o'clock the streets were crowded with a hetero-genous mob, and many persons had perched themselves on the tops of the houses in the vicinity for the purpose of obtaining a better view. The morning was dull and cloudy, with a view. The morning was dull and cloudy, with a drifting snow from the east. At 10% o'clock it was estimated there were at least 7,000 persons in the vicinity. Disturbance, and an attempt at rescue had been feared, and precautions taken to prevent it. Everything passed off quietly. Inside the jail a select company had been admitted, including Sheriff Powell, Jail Governor Powell, Sheriff Temple, of Fredericktown, New Brunswick; Drs. Bell, Van Courtlandt, Conover, Sweetland, Mr. Frazer, and others. The Sheriff wore his uniform and sword. The guard, inside and out, consisted of regular The guard, inside and out, consisted of regular The guard, inside and out, consisted of regular soldiers. The arrangements for quelling any attempt at rescue were very complete. Various surmises were freely circulated in the crowd as to how Whalen would deport himself in the emergency. Some said he had fully made up his mind to confess, while others were eure he would implicate some other party, and furnish the public with another feast of horrors. It was earnestly hoped by the more thoughtful and considerate that at least some light would be thrown upon the mystery, and light would be thrown upon the mystery, and that he would tell who had fired the fatal shot, if he did not. At twenty minutes before 11 o'clock the favored few were admitted to the landing-place opening on the scaffold. At this moment not an inch of space within view of the scaffold was unoccupied. The suspense was intense. At a few minutes after 11 o'clock the door of the corridor opened, and the solemn door of the corridor opened, and the solemn voice of Father O'Connor was heard in earnest prayer for the doomed man. The prisoner as-cended the steps to the scaffold in company with the officials and three Catholic priests. Whalen the officials and three Catholic priests. Whalen walked firmly and erect, and seemed but little moved. He was dressed in a suit of black, with boots carefully blacked, and his whole toilet made with the utmost care. He were a green ailk necktie. As he walked up, he was repeating in unison with his confessor and spiritual adviser, "Lord have mercy on us." A death-like stillness relgaed throughout the great multitude as Whalen stepped upon the drop, and remained firm and upright, almost rigid, while the fatal noose was adjusted. The executioner stood at his left side, clad in a blue calico jacket and pante, and a red and white striped cap, his face masked with black crape. When the rope was adjusted, Whalen was asked by the Sheriff if he had anything to say, when he made the following remarks:

"I beg pardon for any offence I may have committed. I forgive all parties who have injured me, and I ask forgiveness of all whom I may have injured. God save Ireland, and God save my

The signal was then given, and the drop fell at 11.15 A. M., precisely. The wife of Whalen visited him yesterday, and was with him up to the time of his execution. She seemed to have suffered greatly, and was very bitter toward the authorities. It is reported that Whalen made a full written statement, which he gave into the custody of the Sheritf, and which has not yet been made public.—Tribune.

FIRM AT A DYR House. This morning, about five o'clock, a fire broke out in a four-storied brick building in the rear of the dye works of Charles Lafferty & Co., Nos. 1526 and 1528 Hautcock street. The building was used by the firm for drying purposes, and was pretty weil filled with cotton goods in process of drying. The flames originated in the lower part of the structure and burned stubbornly until all the lattice work. ture and burned stubbornly until all the lattice work composing the floors, the stock and the roof of the building were destroyed. The fire was confined to the building in which it originated. The loss on stock is estimated at $2,000, and is insured in the County Fire Insurance Company. The building was dumaged to the extent of about $1,500, which is fully insured in the Fire Association. The origin of the fire is attributed to accident.

NARROW ESCAPS.-A young woman named Henrietta Rayden, was about to walk into the Delaware, at Lombard street wharf, last evening. when she was stopped by Lieutenant Edgar, of the Harbor Police. She came from Norristowa the Harbor Police. She came from Norristowa to visit her parents, and lost her way. She was not aware of her close proximity to the river. Delaware avenue is very poorly lighted, and it is time that the proper authorities had taken some action in the matter.

SNEAK THIEVES. Alderman Neill had before him this morning William Reddison and Felix O'Toole, charged with larceny. It seems that O'Toole sneaked into the house of a German woman, on William street, below the Reading Rall-road, Twenty-fifth Ward, yesterday, and stole $17. He handed the money to Reddison, who concealed it in a shed. The accused were held in $800 bail to answer at Court.

ALLEGED BOARDING HOUSE THIEF.-Henry Kulp was arrested yesterday by Lieut.Brureln, of the Seventh District Police, upon the charge of attempted robbery. He boarded at a house No-421 Wood street, and, it is alleged, was caught in the act of searching the bureau drawers in one of the rooms. He did not secure any plun-der. He will have a hearing at the Central Station this afternoon.

STORE ROBBERY .- Moses Hansom, colored was arrested yesterday by Policeman Smith at Seventh and Lombard streets, with a piece of calico in his possession. It was subsequently ascertained that the calico had been stolen from a store on South street near Eighth. Hansom was sent to prison by Ald. Patchel.

ROBBERY IN THE FOURTEENTH WARD .- The dwelling of J. Fisher, No.1844 Parrish street, was entered yesterday afternoon, while the tamily were absent at a funeral. The entrance was effected by breaking in a back door. Silverware and clothing valued at several hundred dollars and $600 in money were stolen.

RAILROAD ACCIDENT .- Edward Flogers, aged 12 years, residing on Hutchinson street, above Thompson, had his hand crushed by a railroad car while playing on the track at Ninth and Thompson streets, this morning. He was taken to the Episcopal Hospital.

House Robbery .- The dwelling of Samuel C. Paris, at Third and Christian streets, was entered vesterday by boring through a door in the rear of the basement. Three overcoats valued at $50

STEALING ORANGES .- Rudolph Jones, a black man, was arrested yesterday upon the charge of stealing oranges out of the wagon of a huckster at Fifth and Gaskill streets. He was committed y Alderman Carpenter.

SLIGHT FIRE. This morning, about half past 6 o'clock, the wool manufactory of Horne & Ellis, No. 307 Race street, was slightly damaged by

BUOKS AND PICTURES .- Mr. Duffield Ashmead is about to alter and improve his store, and proposes to reduce his fine stock of books, chromos and stationery by offering it at prices ranging from 25 to 50 per cent. below regular rates. This offers a fine opportunity to secure very tempting bargains to those who desire to stock their shelves and adorn their walls with choice books

THE CONCLUDING SALE OF PAINTINGS, Crysta Medallions, &c., from the American Art Gallery New York, will take place this evening, at Scott's nnt street at 71 We would advise all who want a good painting to attend this sale.

NEW JERSEY MATTERS. LOVE AND LARCENY.—Shakespeare declares that "the course of true love never did run smooth," which has been exemplified in an instance which recently came to light in Camden. It appears that during the rebellion a nice young man, named Kelley, herolcally disposed, residing in Salem, enlisted in the Third New Jersey Cav alry, and was stationed at Frederick City. While there he became acquainted with a five young lady, Union, of course, to whom he paid unre lady, Union, of course, to whom he paid unremittent attention. At last he declared his tender passion for her, and rumor says she reciprocated most admirably. But time rolled on, and the lovers had to part. The war ended, and Kelley returned to Salem. Distance, nor time, nor the scenes of bloody carnage dampened his ardent attachment. Foolscap nor tinselled note-paper covered with humber words field to convey to her the warm Foolscap nor tinselled note-paper covered with burning words failed to convey to her the warm gushings of his enraptured soul. He pined to see her, but the distance was great, and the un-feeling railroad companies could not see that he was entitled to a "pass." But, "love laughs at locksmiths," and invents many singuhar devices. It suggested a novel way to our hero to perform the journey to his heart's Mecca, in no less a plan than to "borrow" a korse and wagon unbeknown to the owner, and travel the entire distance. If he was never found out in the operation, so much the better. So, one morning, a few days ago, Mr. Kelley and a fine equipment were missing. Several days passed, and neither the hero nor the equipage was found. All the time he was making for Frederick City, and expected every moment to meet expected every moment to meet his idol. At length he reached his destination, and at the same time the telegraph lodged information with the authorities at Salem of his whereabouts., Immediately thereupon a constable started in pursuit, and found Mr. Kelley enjoying his otium cum dignitate, with ble ledy-love, and took him into custody. He was brought to Camden and lodged in jall, and yesterday morning was taken back to Salem, where the law will reward him for his enterprise INCENDIARISM IN THE COUNTY .- Incendiaries are busy in the country, and have been operating in Atlantic county. A few nights ago an attempt was made to burn the residence of Enoch Cham-pion, at English's Creek, while the family were at church. They fired the building in four places, It was, however, fortunately discovered in time to extinguish it before the building was destroyed. Damage about $1,500.

INTOXICATION.—An unfortunate was before his Honor Mayor Cox, this morning, for drunken and disorderly conduct in the street. He was fined the usual penalty. CLOSED.—The Courts close their winter sessions to-day. They commenced on the 13th of January, and have been in session four weeks.

THE COURTS.

Nisi Privs-Justice Read .- Margaret E. Gates vs. Moses Blumenthal. An action to recover damages for an alleged malicious prosecution. Before reported. Verdict for plaintiff for $1,000. QUARTER SESSIONS—Judge Peirce.—This morning witnessed another attempt to improve the acoustic properties of the new Court room. A wooden cover has heen erected over the witness stand, and placed at an angle to form, if possible, a sounding-board for the witnesses. It has not been tried long enough to decide how far it is an improvement, but with the strips of muslin stretched across the room near the ceiling, and this new shed near the jury-box, the room is assuming a curious appearance.

Prison cases were resumed this morning. Several tailors in Paris, trying to protect themselves from non-paying, fashionable young men, adopted a system of figures which they circulated among themselves, rating their customers culated among themselves, rating their customers 1, 2, 3, 4, 5, 6, &c., according to their readiness to pay. Some of the recipients of the less complimentary figures heard of the plan, and sued the tailors for libel. They recovered 300 to 500 francs, with imprisonment added.

The Paraguay Trouble. The Washington correspondent of the New York Herald says: The Secretary of the Navy to-day sent to the House, in compliance with resolutions, voluminous correspondence relative to affairs in Paragusy. It appears that on the 4th of Decamber last Admiral Davis addressed to President Lapez to me to define or even to consider the status of to me to define or even to consider the status of Blies and Masterman; but on this subject your Excellency will, I do not doubt; repose confidence in the justice and friendship of the United States, which has afforded your Excellency many recent proofs of its respect and sympathy." Mr. Lopez replied that those persons were criminals, deeply committed in the affair of a horrible conspiracy, very particularly Mr. Bliss. He said he would cheerfully consent to the delivery of the criminals, provided it were requested in a manner more in conformity with the fact of their being accomplices of ex Minister Washburn, and the first intimately acquainted with his intrigues in the character of conspirator and agent of the enemy, of which he is accused in the national tribunals. To this Admirat Davis responded that it was no part of his official duty either to offer or refuse any terms which would affect the legal criminal condition of those two persons. Again referring to terms which would affect the legal criminal condition of those two persons. Again referring to the friendship of the United States towards Paraguay, he asked that Bliss and Masterman be embarked on board his vessel, subject to the disposition of the Government of the United States, of whose justice and friendly sentiments President Lopez could entertain no doubt. President Lopez acceded to the request of Admiral Davis, saying, however, it could not be compiled with in the sense of a reclamation, but of a graceful courtesy on the part of the government of Paraguay toward the United States.

A French Mystery.

A French Mystery.

A mysterious affair has created a sensation in the Faubourg St. Germain, Paris. A son of the Compte de Monstier, nearly connected with the Ex-Minister, aged 17, attending the course of preparatory icctures for St. Cyr, quitted his parents' house on Sunday week, having previously asked for sixty france to distribute among some poor relations he was in the habit of visiting. He neither refurned home nor appeared in the sequetomed place at the lecture. On He neither refurned home nor appeared in his accustomed place at the lecture. On Jan. 22 he was picked up on the sea coast near the Hague, in a state of asphyxia, gagged, dripping wet, and wounded in the shoulder. In his pocket-book were found twenty france, and most fortunately his name and address. The French Legation at the Hague was instantly apprised of the fact. The Secretary the Minister telegraphed to Compute de Monstlet. the Minister telegraphed to Compte de Moustier, who instantly started, and found his son partly paralyzed, and only able to speak after two days of medical treatment. He had been brought to Paris, but he could give no account of what happened to him.

FIRE-PROOF SAFES.

PHILADELPHIA, January 18, 1869. desers. FARREL, HERBING & CO...

No. 629 CHESTNUT Street. GENTLEMEN: Cn the night of the 18th instant, as is well known to the citizens of Philadelphia, our large and extensive store and valuable stock of merchandise, No. 902 Chestnut st., was burned. The fire was one of the most extensive and destructive that has visited our city for many years, the beat being so intense that even the marble cornice was almost obliterated.

We had, as you are aware, two of your valuable and well-known CHAMPION FIRE-PROOF SAFES; and nobly have they vindicated your well known reputation as manufacturers of FIRE PROOF SAFES, if any further proof had cen required. They were subjected to the most intense heat, and it affords us much pleasure to inform you that after recovering them from the ruins, we found, upon examination, that our books, papers and other valuables were all in perfect condition. Yours, very respectfully, JAB. E. CALDWELL & CO. P. S.—THE ONLY SAFES THAT WERE EX-POSED TO THE FIRE IN CALDWELL'S STORE WERE FARREL, HERRING & CO.'S MAKE.

PHILADELPHIA, January 18, 1869.

Messrs. FARREL, HERRING & CO., No. 629 CHESTNUT Street. GENTLEMEN: On the night of the 13th instant our large store, S. W. corner of Ninth and Chest nut streets, was, together with our heavy stock of wall papers, entirely destroyed by fire.

We had one of your PATENT CHAMPION FIRE PROOF SAFES, which contained our principal books and papers, and although it was exposed to the most intense heat for over 60 hours, we are happy to say it proved itself worthy of our recommendation. Our books and papers were all preserved. We cheerfully tender our testimonial to the many already published, in giving the HERRING SAFE the credit and confidence it justly merits.

Yours, very respectfully, HOWELL & BROTHERS.

GENTLEMEN: I had one of your make of safes in the basement of J. E. Caldwell & Co.'s store. at the time of the great fire on the night of the 13th inst. It was removed from the rains to-day, and on opening it found all my books, papers, greenbacks, watches, and watch materials, &c. all preserved. I feel glad that I had one of your truly valuable safes, and shall want another of your make when I get located.

TO PHYSICIANS.

New York, August 15th, 1887. OF COMPOUND EXTRACT BUCHU. The component parts are BUCHU, LONG LEAF, CUBERS, JUNIPER

Mode of Preparation.-Buchu, in vacuo. Juniper Berries, by distillation, to form a fine gin. Cubebs ex tracted by displacement by liquor obtained from Junipe Berries, containing very little sugar, a small proportion of phit, and more palatable than any new in use. The active properties are by this mode extracted.

Buchu, as prepared by Druggists generally, is of a dark color. It is a plant that emits its fragrance; the action of Same destroys this (its active principle), isaving a dark and glutinous decoction. Mine is the color of ingredients The Buchu in my preparation predominates; the emalies quantity of the other ingredients are added, to preven ermentation; upon inspection, it will be found not to be a Tincture, as made in Pharmacopeea, nor is it a Syrupand therefore Ican be used in cases where fever or inflam mationfexists. HELMBOLD'S FLUID EXTRACT BUCHU, for weakness arising from indiscretion. The exhausted powers of Nature which are accompanied by so many alarming symptoms, among which will be found Indisposition to Exertion, Loss of Memory, Wakefulness, Horror et Disease, or Forebodings of Evil, in fact. Universal Lassitude, Procifation, and inability to enter into the enjoyments of society.

The Constitution, once affected with Organic Weak ness, requires the aid of Medicine to strengthen and in vigorate the system, which HELMBOLD'S EXTRACT RECHU invariably doce. If no treatment is submitted to. Consumption or Insanity ensues. HELMBOLD'S FLUID EXTRAOT BUCHU, in affections pe cultar to Females, is unequaled by any other preparation e in Chlorosia, or Retention. Painfulness, or Suppres the Uterus, and all complaints incident to the sex, whether arising from habits of dissipation, imprudence ip, or the decline or change of life.

HELMEOLD'S FLUID EXTRAOT BUCHT AND IMPROVED ROBE WASH will radically exterminate from the system diseases arising from habits of dissipation, at little expense. Little or no change in diet, no inconvenience or ex posure; completely superseding those unpleasant and dangerous remedies, Copaiva and Mercuty, in all these

Use HELMBOLD'S FLUID EXTRACT BUCHU in all diseases of these organs, whether existing in the male or female, from whatever cause originating, and no matter of how long standing. It is pleasant in taste and odor, "imme diste" in action, and more strengthening than any of the preparations of Bark or Iron.

Those suffering from broken-down or delicate constitutions, procure the remedy at once.

The reader must be aware that, however slight may be the attack of the above diseases, it is certain to affect the hodily health and mental powers.

All the above diseases require the aid of a Diuretic. HELMBOLD'S EXTRACT BUCHU is the great Diuretic.
