THE ECUMENICAL COUNCIL.

Subjects for Deliberation.—The Pope of the Future.
(From the Correspondence of the London Times.)
Among the matters upon which the Universal Council, appointed to meet at Rome in the month of December next, will have to deliberate, there is one which is particularly interesting. This is a project for proceeding to the choice of a new Pontiff without awaiting the death of him whom he shall succeed. The choice and inauguration of the Pope are at present divided into three parts: First come the election by the Cardinals assembled in conclave at the Quirinal; then the exaltation, when the newly-elected, seated in the papal chair, is carried on men's shoulders to the Church of St. Peter; finally, to the exaltation succeeds the coronation, when the present spiritual prince, and most absolute of earthly sovereigns, who adopts the lowly title of "Servant of the Servants of God," assumes the triple tiara that symbolizes his various powers. Of these three ceremonies, the first only can be carried out in the case of a Pope elected during the life of his predecessor, and who will therefore have the position of an heir to the crown. The object of thus choosing a successor to Pius IX. before his death is easy to discern. It is desired to obviate an interregnum that might favor the designs of the enemies of the temporal power. It cannot be doubted that the great Council which is to assemble in Rome at the end of the year will be ready enough to meet the views of the orthodox on the scheme, and to sanction, in the most solemn manner, the proposed innovation. It remains to be seen what Italy will say to a measure so manifestly directed to thwart her aspirations. There are grounds for believing that this Government, whose information from Rome seems better than it used to be, is perfectly aware of the plan, and has not yet courteously replied, holding meanwhile the Stars-and-Stripes at the main. During the day the French Admiral paid an official visit to Admiral Boscawen.

WASHINGTON'S BIRTHDAY IN HAVANA.

The President's Arrival in Key West.
HAVANA, Feb. 23, 1869.—Washington's birthday has been celebrated here by the United States steamer Conocoec, the flag-ship of Admiral Hoff, firing the usual national salute. The Spanish and French flags hoisted on the harbor, and the Stars-and-Stripes at the main. During the day the French Admiral paid an official visit to Admiral Boscawen.

WASHINGTONTROUBLES IN CHICAGO.

The Episcopal Troubles in Chicago.
The troubles of the Episcopal Church in relation to the election of Bishop Whitcomb, and the clergyman by another name, not yet ended. It now appears that even a Bishop cannot preach in the diocesan limits of another Episcopal Bishop without running a risk of exploding some canon.

THE BATTLE OF BAZUGOS.

The Battle of Bazugos.
The tragedy at Bazugos has thrown the Vatican into consternation, and has been vigorously attacked by the accounts received of the hostile manifestations against the Holy See at Madrid, and the attacks on the Vatican. The first impulse was to break off relations with the Emperor and Government, but as the facts are known only from the newspapers, it was decided to first demand satisfaction from the authorities, and make the continuation of the war depend on the result.
