HEAVY BANK HOBBERY IN BROOK-

845;000 in Bonds and $200 in Green-backs Stolen. The N. Y. Fribune gives the following particu-lars of a robbery already announced by ielegraph: On saturday afternoon, between 12 and 2 o'clock, the sate of the Park Savings Bank, No. 1133 Fulton avenue, was robbed of bonds amonuting to $15,000 in value and greenbacks representing $200 more. It appears that the amonuting to $15,000 in value and greenbacks representing to $15,000 in value and greenbacks fards were has a mail in box in the safe, and that the safe was not locked. The robbery was dis-covered by the Cashuer, Mr. Richard Olmstead, at 2 o'clock," and he immediately gave information to the police, who at once bogan their search for the thief, but without success. The bonds stolen are all on lo-cal improvements, namely: Wallabout improve-ment, City and Assessment bonds, which it will be difficult to neguliate. The bank officers state that a man, giving his name as John Harley, aged about 25 years, and stating that he resided at No, 24 Lefferts street, made a deposit of $15 in the about 25 years, and staling that he resided at No. 24 Lefferts strict, mide a deposit of $15 in the morning. He called again about noon and ob-tained change for a $10 bill. Shortly before two o'clock he made his appearance for the third time, and asking some questions, left, and was not seen thereafter. The same man having been loiter-ien about the neighborhood for several days nast. ing about the neighborhood for several days past, each. each. There were intervise several b. S. bother tor small amounts. It is supposed that the thief, having made himself partectly familiar with the management of the bank, watched his opportu-nity and selected the itt box while the cashler, the only officer present, was engaged behind the who gave it to their father, and ne at once took it to the Forty-fourth Precinct Station House, where it was identified as the box stolen from the Park Bank. The key was in the lock, and the key of the safe was attached thereto with a string. On opening the box it was found to con-tain a book with the accounts of the Park Bank with the Nassan National Bank; a life insurance policy for S5.000. in favor

Bank With 186 Nassan National Bank; 6 life insurance policy for $6,000, in favor of Mr. Richard Olmstead, President and acting cashier; another life insurance policy in favor of the same for $6,500; one check in favor of Poler Manback for $32 25, and another in favor of Octave Obacit of Peter Manback for $32 25, and another in favor of George Chapel for $33 34; also a number of re-ceipts and papers of little value, but none of the bonds, which are still missing; but as they are not negotiable, the bank will sustain no loss. The bank officers were promptly informed of the re-covery of the box, which is, however, still retained by Capit. Waidy. The strangest part of the affair is that a man should be able, in broad daylight, to go for a distance of a mile through a densely-populated portion of the city, with a box the size of a small trink, without being seen by any one. of a small truck, without being seen by any one. The man suspected of being the thief is still at large.

Alleged Flight of a New York Broker. On Saturday evening Mr. Wood, senior partner of the firm of Wood & Robinson, brokers, at No. 30 Broad street, called upon Inspector Dilkes, at Police Hendquarters, and stated that at 3 o'clock that afternoon Mr. C. D. Robinson, the junior partner of the firm, had left the office, taking with partner of the firm, had left the onde, shall with him $20,000.in United States bords of the issue of 1867, three certified checks of $10,000 each, and 660 shares of miscellancoas stocks, alto-gether of the salue of $36,000. These he was to use as collateral security for the purpose of neuse as collateral security for the purpose of a gottaining aloan. As the missing partaer had not returned to the office long after business hours, Mr. Wood naturally became anxious to ascertain his whereabouts, and called at the New Street-Police Station to look for him. Nothing Street-Fonce Station to how for him. Notified was known there of the missing man. It was certain, that no accident had befallen him or it would have been reported at Pollee Headquarters; for the same reason it was extremely improbable that he had been robbed, and Mr. Wood was forced to come to the conclusion the his neutron had find with the conclusion that his partner had fied with the amount intrusted to him. He offered a reward of $5 000 for the arrest of the missing man and of $5,000 for the arrest of the inisting man and the recovery of the funds in his possession. Mr. Robinson has always borne a high reputation for financial integrity, and should the news of his flight prove true, it will occasion no little sar-prise among those with whom he has dealt for so many years .- N. Grant on Cuban Independence. The New York Herald's Washington correspondence says:

The attention bestowed upon Cuban matters recently in Congress is due to the efforts of Gen. James H. Van Allen, of New York, who arrived here a few days ago from Havana. During his brief stay in Cuba Gen. Van Allen had clandestine Interviews. with several revolutionary leaders, and was put in possession of valuable information and was put in possession of valuable information to be communicated to our government. From his own observation and what he heard from the people about Havana the General has no. doubt whatever of the speedy success of the revolutionists. When he left Cuba he proceeded to Charleston and thence hurried on to this city. On Friday morn-ing he had a long interview with General Grant, to whom he communicated the information he herd received from the revolutionary leaders and explained the earnest desire of the Cubans to have, our Government recognize their independence of explained the earnest desire of the Cubins to have our Government recognize their independence of Spain. General Grant listened with much interest and spoke strongly in fa-vor of giving some substantial recognition to, the struggling Cubans. He was in favor of not only passing a resolution of sympathy, but also of authorizing the President to recognize the independence of Cuba, whenever in his judgment he might deem the situation such as to justify the step. General Grant considered that the United States was under no obligations. to Spain, seeing that she had afforded every accom-United States was under no obligations, to Spain, seeing that she had afforded avery accom-dation to Confederate vessels and blockade runnors during our late rebellion. He an-thorized General Van Allen to represent his views to Senators and Congressmon, and to state that he favored the passage of a strong resolu-tion. Accordingly, General Van Allen went among the Senators and Representatives and the among the Senators and Representatives, and the result has been the introduction of the two resolu-tions in favor of Cuba. Senator Sherman's resolution is strong and quite acceptable to Gaban sympathizers. It is believed it will be reported, favorably by the Foreign Relations Committee.

FIRE .- On Saturday night, about 12 o'clock, a fire broke out in the front basement of a building No. 930 Market. The basement was occupied by Thomas Wood, dealer is boots and shoes, the first story by Charles Williams as a house-fur-nishing store, and the upper part of the building by Mr. Williams as a dwelling. The flames ori-ginated from a stove which had become over-heated in consequence of the door having been left closed. The fire was confined to the base nient, but all the stock was commed to the oase ruined. Mr. Wood estimates his loss at $3,000, upon which he has an insurance of $2,000 in the Fire Association. The stock of Mr. Williams, on the first floor, was greatly damaged. It was valued at $9,000. Mr. Williams estimates his loss valued at $9,000. Mr. Williams estimates his loss at $6,000, upon, which there is an insurance of $5,000 in the County Fire Insurance Company of Philadelphia. A large case, containing table callery, was broken open, and the most of its contents were carried off. As no persons, except, those wearing firemen's badges, were allowed to enter the building, the robbery must have been committed by some of the members of the Fire Denartment. Department.

Woman is Divorced, and Her Hus-band Marries Again Before she bnows It

The Chicago Journal of Baturday contains this

Among the strangest of cases revealing the facility with which divorces are obtained in this city, was one called for examination before Jus-lice Summerfield yesterday. Mrs. Mary Aun Reynolds appeared on behalf of the prosecution, charging her husband, one James Reynolds, with living in an open state of adultery with another woman, after having most basely descride her. She had also procured a warrant for his arrest proon the charge of bastardy. the couple charged one had the photometa with the couple charged with adultery having had issue. Beynolds and the complainant, his wile, formerly resided in Morris, ill. Some years ago Reynolds deserted her, to asserts the woman, and came to this city. She has at various times visited the city in search She has at various times visited in the origin scale of him, and says that she has on several occasions seen him on the streets, but that he always avoided her. A few days ago it came to her knowledge that he was co-habiting with another woman, and then she made application for a warrant for his arrest. When the case was called before Justice Sum-merneld yesterday for examination, she seemed decree of divorce, which he had obtained some decree of divorce, which he had obtained some five months ago in the Recorder's Court, and a certificate of marriage to the woman with whom the stood charged with unlawfully co-habiting the certificate bearing date of some four months, ago. She asserted that she had never had any knowledge of any suit for divorce, and that the decree must have been faisely and fraudulently obtained. Of course the mon was discharged. But the unwilcourse the man was discharged, a But, the unwil-lingly divorced wife asserted that she would use all means to investigate, and all power to upset the decree. She claims to have been deeply wronged, and avowed a determination to bring the whole case to another judicial investigation. If her expressed determination is executed it is probable that some light will be thrown upon the practice of professional divorce attorneys, and, if her statement be true, it is hoped she will further

The Monopgahela River Acciden Rumors of Fout Play. The Pittsburgh Chroniele of Saturday says:

The Pittsburgh Chronicle of Saturday says: We alluded yesterday to the fact that five per-sons who had left Morgantown in a skiff, on last Friday night, for Geneva, had not since been heard from, and were supposed to be drowned, the boat having blen found floating in the river. - The river between Morgantown and Genera is, rather dangerous for navigation, and as the parties falled to reach their destination it was naturally supposed that the boat had capsized. A rumor, we under-stand, is current that the parties were foully dealt with, and those who affect to bellove the rumor, state that some of the parties were known to have valuable watches in their possession, be-sides sufficient amounts of money to excite the to have variable watches in their possession, be-sides sufficient amounts of money to excite the capidity of thieves. What other grounds there may be for such a rumor we are not informed, but it is altogether probable that if the partles were drowned, their death was caused by the accidential overturning of the skiff. The journey was a hazardous undertaking, particularly after night, and but few could have been induced to take it.

The Catholic Troubles in Auburn-Cardfrom Father O'Flaherty.

The Gatholic Troubles in Album – Cardfrom Father O'Filaherty. The Anburn News of yesterday publishes a long card from Rev. Thomas O'Filaherty, who was removed from the pastorship of the Church of the Holy Family in that eity, by the Catholic Bishop. After thanking his congregation and the American people of the city for their kind-ness, Mr. O'Filaherty says: There are three questions at issue. First—Has Bishop McQuade a right to force a pricet on the congregation of the Holy Family against their will, so universally expressed last Sunday? I maintain he has no such right, espe-cially as this priest is well known to the people, and was removed from here before by an order from the Holy See, directed to Bishop Timon. Yet, I do now, as I did last Sunday, advise the congregation to receive him for peace sake, and wait for the Providence of God to rectify mat-ters.

ters. Second—Has Bishop McQuade a right to remove me from my position as Dean and Pastor of the Church of the Holy Family without canonical cause—without sufficient reason? I maintain he has no such right. He has not given any cause whatever, or any reason for such course of ac-tion. I claim to be still Pastor of the Church of the Holy Family, although not exercising jurisdiction. Third-Has Bishop McQuade a right to suspend me from the "exercise of the ministry," because forsooth I will not accept another parish from him. I maintain he has no such right. I subjein

This letter will tell for fiself. Because I did not, at three days' notice, hurry on to another mission or parish, and leave my parochial affairs and business matters unsettled, I must be sus-pended from the exercise of the ministry. I claim no immunity for my age, long services, and position in the American Church, but I will eav wherever the statement is read rational and reflecting people will be able to judge of the con-duct of Bishop McQuade. He has precipitated this thing for the purpose of inflicting penaltics, knowing well that my business and parochial af-fairs would not permit me to leave at such short notice.
