also surrounded by a railing. There has been no disarrangement of any of the folics in the hall, but the renovation has given the spartment a new, handsome and much-im proved appearance. While the work has been in progress the hall has necessarily been closed to visitors, but it will be reopened to the public on Monday morning next.

ARREST OF SUPPOSED STORE ROBBERS .- Thi morning, about 3 o'clock, Lieutenant Bowers, o the Fourth district police, instructed his men to the Fourth district police, instructed his men to watch a certain tavern in the vicinity of Sixth and Arch streets, which had been kept open be-yond the usual hour and is suspected of being a rendezvous for thleves. About that time Police-man Aune observed four men at Sixth and Arch streets. Two started down Sixth street and the other two down Arch. Subsequently the offi-Arch streets. Two started down Sixth street and the other two down Arch. Subsequently the offi-cer met two of the men going up Arch street. Anne continued on down Arch street and met Of-ficer Frank Wilson. The two went on to Fourth street, and there found the suspicious looking men, whom they arrested. The prisoners were taken to the station house and gave their names as James Watson and William Dean. One belle from Reeding and the other from New York. taken to the station house and gave their liames as James Watson and William Dean. One hails from Reading and the other from New York. Dean wore a ring containing a stone used to cut glass. In his pocket was found a letter which he had written to a prisoner in Sing Sing Prison, say-ing that the ring, he had sent was answering ad-mirably. After the arrest of these men, it was discovered that the French plate glass in the window of the fur store of A. Schwartz, No. 506 Arch street, had been broken in, and four muffs and a cape valued at $110 had been stolen. Inside of the door a piece of barrel hoop, with a nail so ar-ranged as to form a hook, was found. It is sup-posed that the prisoners were concerned in the robbery. They will have a bearing at the Central Station this atternoon.

TEMPERANCE MEETING .- An interesting meeting was held at Dr. Shepherd's Church, Buttonwood street, below Sixin, to promote the cause of temperance. The audience was a very large one. Mr. Hiram Ward, who presided, made an interesting statement of the effects of intoxicating drinks upon the the system, and to illustrate his subject, exhibited a number of diagrams showing the condition of the human stomach after the use of alcohol. Mr. Thomas M. Coleman made an eleguent on wood street, below Sixth, to promote the cause

Mr. Thomas M. Coleman made an eloquent ap Mr. Thiomas M. Coleman made an eloquent ap-peal in favor of total abstinence, and dwelt with much force upon the power of the church in the land, and the necessity of exerting that power in behalf of 50 good a cause. He said the adult male members of the Protestant Church in the United States represented about one-half of the voting population, and therefore, it united upon any great meral reform, success would be certain. Rev. Dr. Cole made a short and powerful address, when the meeting adjourned.

A MOST striking proof of the progressive spirit A MOST STRIKING Froof of the progressive spirit of the times may be seen in the marvelous perfection of that remarkable invention, the AWERIOAN BOTTON HOLE AND SEWING MACHINE, when compared with any of the old mechanisms in this line. The rapid development of improvement as seen in this new and eplendid machine, and the astounding degree of ex-cellence attained, are, indeed, almost incredible. And what is most gratifying in this connection is the fac-that this is altogether a Philadelphia institution, the Company being located here, with their factory at Twentieth and Washington avenue, and SALESBOOMS S.
