1 Correspondence of the Philadelphia Evening Bulletin. Dover, Del., March 17, 1869.—The eruption of the volcanos olong threatened in Delaware has at last actually broken out in the shape of soveral tax bills, which have been introduced into the House by the Committee on Ways and Means the first of which relates to taxing railroads and canals in the State.

Owing to the refusal of the P. W. & B. R. R. Co. to pay the effect of each passenger going over the road through this State, suit has been entered by the State to collect, if possible, said tax. This is all the tax which has heretofore been exacted from the road, which in itself has been sufficient to pay the interest on the State debt and seract a small sinking fund besides. In addition to the tax thus paid, the present bill provides for the collection of an additional tax of ——per cent. on the case receipts and the cash value of each, share of stock held in the State. Each locanovic is taxed $100, each passenger car $25, and each, freight ear and truck, $10. The Railroad Company will pay assessments made against the Compoury is like its first of the State is against the State.
