 The statute of the product as SENATE .- The bill to repeal the Tenure-of-office Mr. Dawes remarked that the committee on Appropriations had looked into the matter, and had found no occasion to intimate any lack of integrity on the part of any officer of the House connected with the enrollment of bills. Mr. Lynch moved to amend the paragraph by making it apply only to internal revenue bonded renouses. Ar. Dawes presumed there would be no objec-m warehouses. Mr. Mungen argued briefly against the joint Mr. Mongen argue often, weight the rate of $50,000,000 a year, and the Govern-ment therefore could well afford to pay its own officers to do its own business. The fact that it was doing so now had probably had much to do with the large collection of revenue from that source. He protested against this whole system of legislating in an appropriation bill about taxes, about officers, about finance, and about apything and everything.

ravated by the scroft-lous contamination until they were painfully afflicting, have been radically cured in such great numbers in almost every sec-tion' of the country, that the public scarcely need to be informed of its virtues or uses. Scrofulous poison is one of the most destructive enemies of our race. Often, this unseen and unfelt tenant of the organism undermines the constitution, and invites the attack of enfecbling or fatal diseases, without exclifing a suspicion of its presence. Again, it seems to breed infection throughout the body, and then, on some favorable occasion, rapidly develop into one or other of its bideous forms, either on the surface or among the vitals. In the latter, tuber-cles may be suddenly deposited in the lungs or heart; or tumors formed in the liver, or it shows its presence by eruptions on the skin, or foul ulcerits presence by eruptions on the skin, or foul ulcer-ations on some part of the body. Hence the occa-sional use of a bottle of this Sarsaparilla is adsional use of a bottle of this Sarsaparilla is ad-visable, oven when no active symptoms of disease appear. Persons afflicted with the following com-plaints generally find immediate relief, and, at length, cure, by the use of this SARSAPARIL-LA: St. Anthony's Fire, Rose or Erysipelas, Tetter, Sait Rheum, Scald Head, Ringworm, Sore Eyes, Sore Ears, and other cruptions or visible forms of Scrofulous disease. Also in the more concealed forms, as Dyspepsia, Dropsy, Heart Disease, Fils, Epilepsy, Neuralgia, and the various Ulcerous affections of the muscu-lar and nervous systems.
