PHILADELPHIA, January 18, 1869. Messrs. FARREL, HERRING & CO., No. 629 CHESTNUT Street GENTLEMEN: Cn the night of the 13th instant as is well known to the citizens of Philadelphia, our large and extensive store and valuable stock of merchandize, No. 902 Chestnut st., was burned. The fire was one of the most extensive and destructive that has visited our city for many years, of white wine; add some cooked celery and the heat being so intense that even the marble stoned olives; then sprinkle with crumbs of bread.

After boiling up once or twice add the bested durb it is a specific to the sprinkle with crumbs of we had, as you are aware, two of your valuable and well-known CHAMPION FIRE-PROOF hashed duck, let the whole simmer in a corner of the range, turn out on a dish and serve. SAFES; and nobly have they vindicated your ner of the range, turn out on a dish and serve. There are some hunters who cook the ducks by a very small fire, with butter, white wine, pot herbs, bay leaf, cloves, salt and the bear required.

They were subjected to the most intense heat, pepper, and serve them with butter sauce, and it affords us much pleasure to inform you acidulated with tarragon vinegar. Every one to his taste.—Peţit Journal. found, upon examination, that our books, papers IMPORTATIONS.

New York Liverpool. No. 629 CHESTNUT Street. GENTLEMEN: On the night of the 13th instant our large store, S. W. corner of Ninth and Chests nut streets, was, together with our heavy stock of wall papers, entirely destroyed by fire. We had one of your PATENT CHAMPION FIRE-PROOF SAFES, which contained our principal books and papers, and although it was exposed to the most intense heat for over 60 hours, we are happy to say it proved itself worthy of our recommendation. Our books and papers were all preserved. We cheerfully tender our testimonial to the many already published, in giving the HERRING SAFE the credit and confidence it justly merits. Yours, very respectfully,
