The House bill authorizing the Reading and was passed.
The House bill authorizing the Aldermen of Philadelphia to justify the sureties on bonds of applicants for license, and requiring the approval of the Recorder instead of the Districtttorney, was discussed. Messra. Myers, Davis, Hong and Herr, all Republicans, favored the bill, stating in substance that it gave back to the Recorder certain fees that it gave back to the Recorder certain fees which had been taken away from him two years ago. The receipts of the District-Attorney were large, reaching, as Mr. Davia said, to nearly one hundred thousand dollars per annum, there being, among other things, about forty thousand dollars which he receives from the State for examining which he receives from the State for examining the receives from the receiver from the receives from the receiver from the receives from the receiver from the receiver f taking the fees from the District-Attorney because he happened this year to be a Democrat, and of giving the fees to the Recorder, who now a pened to be a Republican.

Mr. Brown (Clarion) said that a bill had been passed last winter which reduced the insurance fees of the District-Attorney from $40,000 to $5,000, and Mr. Rogors said Mr. Sheppard would not receive more than $8,000 this year from all sources. not receive more than $8,000 this year from all sources.

The bill was passed by a party vote of 52 Republicans to 35 Democrats. One Republican, Webb (Bradford), voted with the Democrats.

THE BLACK HAWK WAR-Abraham Lincoln, Zachary Taylor, Robert Anderson and Jefferson Davis Serve Together -- A Letter from Gen-eral Anderson

[From the Chicago Evening Journal of March 12.]
The following interesting incident was stated in a recent address before the Historical Society of this city, by Hon. Isaac N. Arnold:
"In 1832 John Dixon kept the ferry across Rock River, and the latch-string of his hospitable in a recent address before the Historical Society of this city, by Hon. Isaac N. Arnold:

"In 1832 John Dixon kept the ferry across Rock River, and the latch-atring of his hospitable home was never drawn in against the stranger. The Black Hawk war was pending, and settlers and whole families had been killed and scalped upon the prairie. The National Government sent General Scott, with some regular troops, to Chicago and to these were added some common. Chicago, and to these were added some companies of Illinois mounted volunteers, called out by Governor Reynolds to aid in protecting the set-Governor Reynolds to aid in protecting the setters and chastising the Indians.

"Among the regulars who met on the banks of Rock river, at the crossing then called "Dixon's Ferry," under the immediate command of General Atkinson, were Lieutenant Colonel Zachary Taylor, subsequently Fresident of the United States; Lieutenant Robert Anderson, the hero of Fort Sumter; Lieutenant Jefferson Davis, and private Abraham Lincoln, of Captain He's company of Illinois Mounted Rangers. These facts I received from John Dixon, a hale man of more than eighty years, still living. Auderson and Davis were young Lieutenants, just from West Point, and Lincoln was a tail and boyish-looking young man of twenty-two. So far as I know. Point, and Lincoln was a tall and boyish-looking young man of twenty-two. So far as I know, our fellow-citizen, Gurdon 8. Hubbard, is the only living citizen of Chicago who was engaged in this expedition against Black Hawk.

"When Major Anderson visited Washington, after his evacuation of Fort Sumter, he called at the White House to pay his respects to the President. After the Chief Magistrate had expressed his the though to Anderson for his conduct in South dent. After the Chief Magistrate had expressed his thanks to Anderson for his conduct in South Carolina, Mr. Lincoln sald: 'Major, do you remember of ever meeting me before?' 'No, replied Anderson, 'I have no recollection of ever having had that pleasure.' 'My memory is better than yours,' said Lincoln. 'You mustered me into the United States service, as a high private of Illinols volunteers, at Dixon's Ferry, in the black Hawk war.'"

The letter from General Robert Anderson, which follows, corroborates Mr. Arnold's statement, and gives some additional facts of historic interest.
