[Special Despatch to the Phila, Evening Bulletin.]

Washington, March 30.—The Senate this afternoon refused to postpone the Currency bill in order to take up the Indian Appropriation bill. The friends of the redistribution of currency hope to get a vote to-day.

The President sent but one nomination to-day: Chas. S. Hamilton, for U. S. Marshal for Wisconsin.

[Correspondence of the Associated Press.]

Mr. Conkling objected to considering the bill at this time. First-Because he had been informed that there were objections to it which could be best examined by a committee; and second, because it was not one of the measures which the majority of the Senate had agreed should be considered at this session.

Mr. Howard urged the reference of the bill to the Committee on the Pacific Baliroad. It involved, he said, many important questions, one of them being the question whether there is really any Memphis and El Paso Railroad Company in existence. (Correspondence of the Associated Press.)

While a youth Berlioz came up to Paris from his/native piace (a village in the Isère department) for the purpose of suddying medicine. He soon played the chief part in a familiar little domestic drama. Medicine was not his vocation (though he might have done less harm even as a doctor than as a composer), and having quitted it against the resternal wish, Berlioz was thrown on the world to make what he could of himself. He set to work in earnest, and began his musical server as a chorus singer at the Gymnase Dramatique. The second step was to give lessang, and the third, to take lessons himself. His talents were not precocious—he entered the Conservatoire, and member of the Legion of Honor, librarian of the Legion of Honor, librarian of the Legion of Honor, librarian of the Conservatoire, and member of the Legion of Honor, librarian of the Conservatoire, and member of the Legion of Honor, librarian of the Conservatoire, and member of the Legion of Honor, librarian of the Conservatoire, and member of the Legion of Honor, librarian of the Conservatoire, and member of the Legion of Honor, librarian of the Conservatoire, and member of the Legion of Honor, librarian of the Conservatoire, and member of the Legion of Honor, librarian of the Conservatoire, and member of the Legion of Honor, librarian of the Conservatoire, and member of the Legion of Honor, librarian of the Conservatoire, and member of the Legion of Honor, librarian of the Conservatoire, which have the Legion of Honor, librarian of the Conservatoire, which is controlled to pay to the Treasurer of the purpose of consolidation with another brack the past to past the confliction of the Legion of the Legion of Honor, librarian of the Conservatore, which have the completed to pay to the Treasurer of the United States the amount of its outstanding to the purpose of consolidation with another or its outstanding to the purpose of consolidation with another of the completed to pay to the Treasurer of the United States the amount of its outstanding to the Legion o
