to the walking match between Payne and Weston is on the increase. The betting is heavy and almost even. At the last accounts Weston walked fifty-eight miles without stopping, and was forty minutes ahead of Payne, who stopped for refreshments. The bridges at Cattaraugus creek bad been carried away by the freshet, which detained Weston, and Payne caught up with bim. Weston obtained a team to carry his jadges and left a few minutes before 11 o'clock. Payne was detained for want of a team to carry bis judges. The public sentiment favors Payne. Considering the muddy condition of the roads, both men have done splendid walking. They are expected to make the trip in a little over 24
