A VALUABLE sketch of the life and labors of the late R. G. Pardee, so long and favorably known as one of the foremost Sabbath school worders in the land, has been published by the Sanday School Times, No 608 arch street. It is from the able pen of John S. Hart, LL. D., and is accompabiled by an excellent portrait of Mr. Pardee. Persons interested in the Sunday school cause can obtain a copy of the sketch free on application to the publishers of the Times.

The Rev. Mr. Earle, the revivalist, who has been preaching in the Baptists church at Richmond, Va. in his farewell discourse, said the Sabbath was more universally bonored and observed in Richmond than in any city in the United States which he had visited; and he had been in all the chief cities of the Atlantic, Pacific and Western States He also stated that, during his stay of twenty-five days, he had not met a drunken man on the streets of Richmond.
